July Corn Bid Up Over Seven Cents by Frightened Shorts.

DISPLAY STRENGTH PROVISIONS

Close with Good Advance, While September Wheat and Corn Quit Higher, but July Onts Recede One Cent.

CHICAGO, July 7.—Following early easiness the grain markets railied today on reports of additional rains in the west, September wheat closing 160% and September corn %c up, while September oath slosed unchanged. July corn shorts bid the tied-up option to 81%c, but got little corn for their pains. Provisions closed at 10932c higher.

At the opening wheat was sold freely on the good weather of the days when the board was closed. The stuff reemed to come from all sources, St. Louis interests being prominent. Under this pressure the price of September went from 73%373/c, the high price at the opening, to 72%c. Here the pressure from sellers eased up and the market be to the high price at the opening, to 72%c. Here the pressure from sellers eased up and the market be to the days were 85 cars, 9 of contract grade; Minneapolis and Buluth reported 58 cars (three days) were 85 cars, 9 of contract grade; Minneapolis and Buluth reported 58 cars (three days) were 85 cars, 90 of contract grade; Minneapolis and Buluth reported 58 cars (three days) were 133,000 bu. Seaboard clearances in wheat and flour were equal to 57,000 but for the corresponding period a year ago.

There was heavy selling of September corn early on the improvement in the weather map. While this option was weak, however, May and December were firm. Later September reacted under fairly active buying, chiefly for the short account. This option sold between 61c and 67%c and closed %c up at 62%c. July corn, which is controlled absolutely by a coterie of speculators, had a fit of hystesics for a very slight cause. There was little trade, and such as there was was in the smallest possible lots. The market opened unchanged to 2%c up at 52%c. July corn, which is controlled absolutely by a coterie of speculators, had a fit of hystesics for a very slight cause. There was little trade, and such as there was the case today. Receipts Provisions opened strong and in the mal Provisions opened strong and in the main ruled that way throughout the day. A sharp advance at the yards together with the high price of corn and wheat were the influences. The advance disclosed a considerable short interest, which did most of the bidding. Traders Hold Aloof and Volume of Business is Small.

NEW YORK, July 7.—There was little tone in the stock market today in the way of buying and selling. Most of the professional traders took the precaution to close up their committments last Thursday afternoon in view of the possibility of unexpected developments over the three days' holiday, and there was not much inclination apparent today to make new ventures.

of unexpected developments over the three days' holiday, and there was not much inclination apparent today to make new ventures.

The developments in regard to crops were considerable. The statistics of railroad traffic were also promising for a continuation of large earnings. The movement of miscellaneous freight westward is reported to be maintained on an unprecedented scale and rates to be firmly held. The so-called local traffic, too, which is so important a factor in the aggregate in the prosperity of railroads, is reported as unusually large and varied.

The crop news made the grain-carrying railroads prominent. The most conspicuous movements were in stocks associated with the interests that make up the so-called western contingent.

Rock Island made a sensational jump of 5½ points. There were more substantial and better maintained advances in some of the other grain carriers, notably Missouri Pacific. The disclosure by recent railroads are profiting materially by reason of the increased demand for soft coal since the mining of anthracite has been suspended gave another center of strength in which Pannsylvania and Hocking Valley were the leaders.

But the advances were largely restricted to the leaders in both groups and when it was perceived that the general market falled to respond in sympathy the rise was displaced and gave place to reaction. The closing was heavy and showed all of the animation gone out of the market.

The hugging of the gold export point by foreign exchange and the interior demand for currency which sprang up over the holiday were repressive influences which were reinforced by the poor bank statement.

The bond market was quite firm and showed the influence of demand for rein-

The bond market was quite firm and showed the influence of demand for reinvestment of July disbursements. Total sales, par value, $2,750,000. United States refunding 2s declined \(\frac{1}{2} \), the old 4s, registered, \(\frac{1}{2} \) and old 4s, coupon, \(\frac{1}{2} \) per cent on the last call.

OMAHA LIVE STOCK MARKET

Good to Cheice Grade of Steers Seld at

* Indicates Sunday.  Indicates holiday. SATURDAY'S SHIPMENTS.

The following list shows the number of feeders shipped to the country Saturday, and their destinations:

Total receipts 68 The disposition of the day's receipts was as follows, each buyer purchasing the number of head indicated.

Cattle, Hogs, Sheep, ..., 240 532 731 ..., 356 465 654 ..., 209 1,426 928 less saiable they were. The same as has been the case for some time past packers do not seem to care whether they get the commoner grades at all and only take them at their own price.

The cow market did not show much change from the close of tast week. The better grades sold without difficulty at just about steady prices, but the canners and cutters were slow sale and brought very uneven prices. Beliers find it difficult to get satisfactory prices for such kinds of cattle, as shippers do not seem to realize how low that class of cattle is selling and frequently they sell for less money here than was paid for them in the country. Commission men are eautioning their shippers to buy their grass cows, and especially the commoner grades on a wide margin.

Bulls, veal calves and stags did not show enough change to be worthy of mention.

There were hardly enough stockers and feeders offered today to make a test of the market and there was nothing strictly choice in the yards. It was evident, however, that speculators were anxious for good stuff, and it is safe to say that strong prices would have been paid for the right kinds. Representative sales: BEEF STEERS.

HOGS—There was a light run of hogs here today and as supplies were rather moderate at other points also prices advanced and established a new high point for the year. Packers started in bidding only about a nickel higher, but sellers were asking more money as a rule and the market soon became generally a dime higher and in some cases the advance was even greater than that. Packers all seemed to be anxieus for the few hogs that were offered and a a result everything was out of first hands in good season. The top price today was $5.00, which is the highest prices ever paid on this market in July for a load of hogs. It was 17%c higher than Saturday's top, but the hogs were better than any thing offered on Saturday. The bulk of the good weight hogs sold from $7.50 to $7.50 and the mediam weights went largely from $7.70 to $7.50 and the light stuff from $1.70 down. It was a good active market from start to finish and prices were much higher than on any day so far this year. Representative sales:

NEW YORK, July 7.—COFFEE—Spot Rio, easy: No. 7. invoice, 54c: mild, steady: Cordova. SFII'Mc. The market beened barely steady, with prices 5 to 10 points lower, and for the rest of the session displayed underlying weakness with liquidation at times quite active. The importing element were free sellers, despite the fact that prices were down to a new low record level for the season thus far. It was shown that arrivals of Brazilian coffee in the United States reached 175,000 bags, while clearances from that country for the United States were 135,000 bags, thus promising a marked increase in the already burdensome American visible supply. The movement of the crop in Brazili was larger than expected. At the close the market was barely steady and net 10 to 15 points lower.
