BARBER'S COARSE WORK THE FEATURE

iwelled Up Pitcher Disgusts Crowd by His Insolence and Furnishes Final Delight by Getting Beaten in Ninth.

complish anything worth mentioning with agement Stone's three-bagger following seemed only natural. Thousands of women were in the grandstand and the place was a sea of "scenery," that rocked and swayed to bat, with Genius' run safely in and Stone only one bag from home. An error Stewart and Graham struck out. The suspense was almost unendurable as Hickey. who had not made a hit since last Friday, came out. But the man with the batting left field and the game was won.

victory over such appalling chances was a thing that will long be remembered by the fans, but there was another feature only Stone could have scored on it, while of the game. That was the metamorphosis of Mr. Barber, pitcher, also his passing. From the start this twirler displayed the maximum of arrogance and insolence. When the fourth inning had passed and swelled up like a polsoned pup; the beginfound him inflated like a pouter pigeon.

Then when that hitting streak began in the ninth Barber quit for a minute as if he were siready whipped. All through he had delayed the game shamefully, but after Genins' two-bagger it seemed that he could never be persuaded to resume the box and throw one up for Stone. It was wrangle, wrangle and play baby. Stone's ball went to middle field fence, and then there was more disputafence, and then there was more disputation, for Stone made third on a elide, and the Angels swarmed in to say he had been

Milwaukee beefed more or less all through the game, and it cost the Angels with tumultuous emotion, as Dolan came dear. O'Brien was put out of left field in the seventh, Hanford going from catch to that place. After Stone's hit in the ninth of McVicker let Dolan on first and then Thornton went to the bench for too much gab work and McVicker was brought in from the field to play first. As apparent retribution for all this disgusting kicking Mattle made an error on the very next ball average of .213 drove a beautiful single to to first, hit by Dolan to Gatins, and fielded across by him in good time. Then after Stewart and Graham had struck out, and Barber began to swell again with the 8 to 1 chance he had of winning, Hickey's single was mishaudled by Hanford in left, else

SUNDAY BALL PLAYERS HELD Nebraska City Team Arrested for Breaking Sabbath and Released on Bond.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., July 14.—(Special.)—The base ball club was arrested yesterday for playing ball on Sunday and today the case was called in Judge Hill's court.

The defense demanded a change of venue on the ground that Judge Hill, who is clerk of the Baptist church, could not give a fair trial. The question was fought bitterly and the entire morning was consumed in argument. The change was finally agreed to and the defense took a three days stay.

The men were released under a bond of $250 to appear for trial Thursday morning at 9 o'clock. NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., July 14.—(Spe-cial.)—The base ball club was arrested yes-terday for playing ball on Sunday and today the case was called in Judge Hill's sourt. at 9 o'clock.

There was a mass meeting of those who do not approve of the attempt of the so-called Law and Order league to run the town as they see fit this evening at which the action of the league was roundly condemned. The people of the city are excited to the point where they take a stand either for or against the ball team and the majority seem to be in favor of the fans.

Fort Dodge Nips Good One. FORT DODGE, Ia., July 14.—(Special Telegram.)—Fort Dodge downed Webster City, 8 to 7, today in an exciting game replete with hard hitting, brilliant fielding and errors. IN RECORD TIME Hamlin's Pacer with Geers in Sulky Takes First Heats of Chamber of Commerce Stake.

DETROIT, July 14.—C. J. Hamlin's spiendid black pacer, Direct Hal, with Ed Geers in the sulky, made memorable the opening of the Detroit Driving club's blue ribhon meeting at Grosse Pointe this afternoon by winning the first heat of the Chamber of Commerce $5.000 stake in the record time of 200%. This is a world's record for the first winning heat of a green horse.

A severe thunderstorm flooded the track

after two heats in both the Chamber of Commerce stake and the 2:15 trot had been driven, and necessitated putting the finish of these two events and the 2:15 trot and 2:37 pace over until tomorrow, when racing will begin at 1 o'clock and both days' programs will be finished if possible.
