

TWO WOMEN WANT ONE MAN

George Schaezel Bone of Contention in Present Case.

FORMER WIFE AND PRESENT WIFE QUARREL

Number Two Gives Number One a Tongue Lashing and is Fined in Police Court for Creating a Disturbance.

Mrs. George Schaezel, formerly of New Orleans, enroute to Beresford, S. D., was fined $5 and costs in police court yesterday morning for disturbing the peace on a complaint sworn to by Mrs. Lydia E. Schaezel of this city, formerly Mrs. George Schaezel.

The arrest was the result of an unexpected meeting of George Schaezel, his present wife, and his former wife at Seventeenth and Dodge streets Monday night, near the home of Mrs. Schaezel No. 1. When the three met, according to the present Mrs. Schaezel, she concluded it was a good time to get even with the former Mrs. Schaezel for the time the latter slapped her when the three once before met in Minneapolis. All she did, she said, was to express herself very vehemently, but did not strike her. The former Mrs. Schaezel then called the police and the present Mrs. Schaezel was arrested. She pleaded guilty to the charge against her and paid the fine.

Professing to be a widow and in a hurry of a husband's desertion, a trip to Europe with a prettier and younger woman, an attempted suicide, and a wronged wife's long chase after her husband.

Story of First Wife.

Mrs. Schaezel No. 1 and her husband resided at Beresford, S. D., where he was one of the wealthiest bankers in the state, according to his former wife's story. The husband attended the Mardi Gras at New Orleans a year ago last winter and there first began the troubles of the then Mrs. Schaezel. Her husband met May Russell and the two ran away together, making an extended visit to Europe. The deserted wife made a thorough search in this country for them without success, finally securing a divorce. She later learned that her husband was married to May Russell.

Story of Second Wife.

The present Mrs. Schaezel said the former Mrs. Schaezel had been doing the housework. "She met my husband and me in Minneapolis some time ago on the street and without any warning slapped me in the face. She then begged my husband to leave me. He did so for a while and I felt so miserable that I tried to kill myself with a revolver." To prove her assertion Mrs. Schaezel showed a scar in her wrist evidently made by a bullet wound. "When my husband saw the account of my attempted suicide in the papers he came back to me, and since then the former Mrs. Schaezel has repeatedly tried to win him from me."

More Trouble Coming.

Former Mrs. Schaezel intends to have the present Mrs. Schaezel arrested for sending threatening letters through the mail. Each woman wore several diamond rings and both were handsomely gowned. The present Mrs. Schaezel is about 35 years of age and is a good-looking blonde. The former wife is about ten years her senior. Schaezel is an ordinary looking man.

MAUD SHONFELD'S MARRIAGE

Father Receives Letter Containing News of His Daughter and Her Husband.

Miss Maud Shonfeld, who was married seven weeks ago to Philip D. Watkins of Boston, after a day's acquaintance, while traveling in the west, was heard from yesterday for the first time since her marriage. Her father, S. Shonfeld, received a letter mailed at Santa Barbara, Cal., in which his daughter stated that she and her husband would leave the day following that upon which the letter was mailed for a visit to San Francisco. They would remain there several days and then go to New York City. The daughter stated that she had frequently written home, but has received no answers to her letters. Mr. Shonfeld is of the opinion that the husband of his daughter is not what he pretended to be when he induced her to marry him, and believes that he has intercepted the letters written by his daughter and those written to her.

INTEREST ON INVALID BONDS IS DUE

City Must Make Immediate Arrangements to Pay on a Lot of Improvement Securities on Which it is Stuck.

At the meeting of the city council Tuesday night a communication from City Engineer Rosewater was read, requesting that the council take definite action in the matter of the tax levy for Central boulevard from Pacific to Burt street. "The levy was disapproved by the last Board of Equalization," said the communication, "and this department has received no instructions to prepare a new levy. In the absence of instructions the Park commissioners are conducting the improvements without legal provision to pay for the property appraised. Unless this matter is adjusted now it may involve serious difficulties in the future." The communication was referred to the committee on judiciary.

SPIKES COME OFF FLAG POLES

Economy Outweighs Beauty in Management of Uncle Sam's Housekeeping.

The spikes upon the flag poles at the federal building have caused the destruction of several national banners before their time, the wind throwing the bunting upon the spikes and then blowing it to shreds. The spikes were placed upon the poles as ornaments by the architect who designed that portion of the building and when the custodian made application to have them removed he met with some opposition upon aesthetic grounds. However, when applications were made to replace those caught upon the spikes began to arrive at the Treasury department more frequently than the officials believed they should it was decided to remove the offending spikes and authority to take such a course was received yesterday.

MUSICAL FESTIVAL TICKETS

Committees Out Selling Books and Tickets with Success in the Work.

The musical festival committee is now soliciting subscriptions for the purchase of books of admission tickets. One member secured over $1,500 in pledges before noon and others met with considerable success. The committee is now in doubt as to the employment of a superintendent of the tent and grounds. The man who was employed last year and the year before was not satisfactory to certain elements of the city, the labor unions making the greatest complaint. For a month or more the management has been trying to secure a man agreeable to the labor unions who is also competent to handle the work, and has invited to come to certain elements of the city. So far they have failed to do this, and it is said by members of the committee that if the union cannot provide a man they will be forced to employ the former superintendent and trust to the unions to recognize the condition and make no complaint.

SPRING SUMMERS FOR A DEBT

Banker Undertakes to Recover Money Loaned to United States District Attorney.

Charles M. Chamberlain of Tecumseh, Neb., has instituted suit in the state court against W. S. Summers to recover the sum of $1,150, with interest on that amount from 1887. In his petition the plaintiff states that July 31, 1897, he loaned the defendant $50, and a like amount on August 19 of the same year, evidenced by checks cashed at the Chamberlain Banking house at that time. That on August 28 of the same year he loaned the defendant $500, evidenced by a check which defendant transferred to Jessie M. Wright, by whom it was cashed; that September 24 of that year the defendant drew a sight draft upon the plaintiff, as cashier of the Chamberlain Banking house, for the sum of $550, the draft being in favor of the Columbia National bank. The plaintiff states that none of the money so loaned has ever been paid and asks judgment for the entire amount.
