FITZSIMMONS BREAKS DOWN

Cornishman Sheds Tears in Denying that Fight Was Fake. SAYS THAT HE PRAYED TO WIN BATTLE

All Others Concerned in Fugitive Contest Assert that Fight Was Fair and that the Best Man Won.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 26.—The result of the championship battle fought here last night between Jeffries and Fitzsimmons is the subject of widespread discussion. The story circulated to the effect that the fight was a pre-arranged affair has enraged the champion and frenzied Fitzsimmons to the point of bursting into tears.

Those who claim that the outcome of the fight was pre-arranged base their allegation principally on the fact that Fitzsimmons, after waging a masterful and telling battle, dropped his guard, leaving an opening which Jeffries took advantage of.

It is a shame to call it a fake. I fought the fight as I saw it. I have never been branded as a cur. There I was winning all the time, but I could not have won anyway.

I know some woman had written to Naughton that I was to lay down in the eighth round. I was to do it at the end of the eighth round.

My hands went back to me. In the last two rounds I put my gloves into his face, but he was too quick for me.

the people judge for themselves relative to last night's fight. I like a courageous man who fights for his own name.

These were not the things we feared most. One of his eyes was cut between the eyebrow and the eyelash, and we were afraid that it would fall out.

RESISTANCE PROVES FARCE Situation in Paris Over Closing of Unauthorized Schools is Improving.

PARIS, July 26.—The serving of official notices closing the unauthorized religious schools began this morning and was carried out so far as Paris was concerned without any disturbance.
