he is a charter member. For this reason when "Snowball" heard the bartender in the saloon at 902 Capitol avenue make a remark last night which he construed into an assertion that the bartender could lick the combined police force of the city he was hurt and angry.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

New Plan of the City Treasurer Works Like a Charm. PAYS WARRANTS AND COLLECTS TAXES. Delinquents on Personal Account Kicked, but Get Credit for the Amount Due the City. Just the Same.

The plan recently adopted of deducting personal taxes from warrants issued to those having salaries or claims coming from the city is working like a charm, although in some instances it jars the holder of a warrant pretty hard.

NEBRASKA IS GOOD ENOUGH

Conclusion of Two Real Estate Men Who Went to North Dakota to Invest. Joseph A. Conner and A. P. Tukey have returned from a trip to North Dakota, where they went to invest in cheap lands. From the reports they bring of the country it is hardly probable that persons having a knowledge of the character of the soil will leave Iowa and Nebraska farms for the new Eden.

SAENGERFEST AT WEST POINT

Nebraska Singing Societies Expect a Record-Breaking Time at Their Meetings. The approaching saengerfest of the Nebraska Singing societies, which will take place at West Point August 8, 9 and 10, will be the most notable event of this description that has ever taken place in Nebraska.

COULDN'T DODGE THE RAIN

Real Estate Exchange Brings Off Its Postponed Picnic in Another Shower. The members of the Real Estate exchange who went to Arlington Thursday last week and tried to have a picnic and who came home with enough moisture on them to make Kansas a wet state, finished up their picnic in another rainstorm Saturday afternoon at Courtland Beach.

DIED.
