

SHONFELD'S ALARM GROWS

Aged Omaha Appeals to Press to Expose Daughter's Husband.

BOSTON BANKER SENDS A WARNING

Writes that Philip D. Watkins Has Worse Record Than Police Reported and that Man's Danger is Great.

To add to the distress, already acute, of Henry Shonfeld and family of 2212 Wirt street, there has just been received by them a letter from a Boston banker, who writes: "For God's sake, and as you love her, recover your daughter from that man, Philip D. Watkins. I know something of his record and you cannot act too soon."

It will be remembered that about a week ago the Omaha papers told the story, which in substance that Miss Shonfeld, while on her way to visit her sister, Mrs. A. L. Bell, in Ogden, Utah, met on the train the man named Watkins, a blonde, of fine figure and in a way attractive. So skillful was his pleading that when Ogden was reached, the girl, educated, but not in the wiles of the world, consented to an immediate marriage and the ceremony was performed and the couple on board the train again before Miss Shonfeld's sister in Ogden knew what was being done.

When their fears were confirmed the other members of the Shonfeld family, including the aged and distressed parents, tried to get in touch with the endangered girl. They have written a half dozen letters and many telegrams, but now comes a brief letter from her stating that they are going to New York and begging to know why no one has written her. No address is given and the whole circumstance leads the relatives to believe that Watkins is holding her mail from her and perhaps manipulating that of hers which she tries to send here.

Mr. Shonfeld is now redoubling his efforts and appeals to the press and to all newspapers to give the widest possible publicity to the facts in the case, as that seems the only means of overtaking Watkins and rescuing the girl. The father asks that wherever she is found his daughter be held in safety until he can be notified. He will come to her at once and will reward anyone for whatever expenses may be incurred.

FINANCES OF LABOR TEMPLE

Report of Treasurer Sturges Showing the Condition of the Association's Finances.

T. F. Sturges, treasurer of the Labor Temple association, has made his report of the financial condition of that institution for the term ending July 1. According to the report the association is now in debt in the sum of $1,513.16, of which sum $1,150 is due the labor unions which meet in the building. This money was advanced at the time the association moved its quarters from the Peterson building to its present location. The cost of arranging the new building to suit the purposes of the association was $1,614.41, of which sum all has been paid except a comparatively small amount due for material, including the cost of preparing the new hall the operating expenses of the association during the six months have been $3,750.23 which includes money paid on the debt of the association at the beginning of the term.

The total receipts, including the loan from the unions, was $2,371.15, leaving a deficit for the period of $1,623.15, and a deficit in excess of cash on hand of $689.21. The statement of receipts and expenditures for the first six months of the year is very satisfactory to the officers, as it includes considerable extraordinary expense, incident to moving, showing that under the present conditions the debt on the temple will be wiped out in a short time.

The furniture of the building is insured for $1,500, and $1,000 is carried upon partitions and fixtures. The salary of the superintendent has been increased from $50 per month to $100 per month on account of the additional work required in the new quarters.

Building Inspector E. B. Carter, with Councilman Fred Hove, A. C. Powers, Fred Anderson and Ed Morris drove about thirty miles out into the country Sunday and stopped for dinner at the home of Dan McLain, one and one-half miles south of Eldorado.

"It won't be very long," said Mr. Carter, "before the people who live in the city will cease to have an edge over those who live in the country. Take McLain, for instance. The plans for his house were drawn by the best firm of architects in Omaha; his mail is delivered every day, rain or shine; in the hall there is a telephone, the grass on the front lawn is cut with a lawn mower, there is a hammock on the piazza and the hired girl gathers fresh vegetables from the garden before every meal. How is that?"

DIET OF BABY WORRIES WOMEN

Anxious Mothers Object to the Menu Fed the Eight-Months-Old Dachsteiner Scion.

WHAT BECOMES OF THE COUNTY TAXES

Court Expenses, Jurors' Fees and Other Such Bills Are Included in the Large Assortment.

The Ninth ward boasts an 8-months-old baby who eats meat, bread, gravy and potatoes and drinks coffee, to the total exclusion of milk, pap and other forms of infant food. That is, a part of the ward boasts it; the other part complains that the child is being abused, though that this mite of humanity thrives upon the diet of a day laborer cannot be gainsaid. His name is Emmanuel Dachsteiner and he is the son of Carl Dachsteiner, 2007 Chicago street.

Three women of the neighborhood called on Health Commissioner Ralph yesterday to see if something could not be done toward regulating matters in the Dachsteiner home. "He is an old man," they said, "about 75 years old, and this child is by his second wife, who has been in the hospital almost since the day of his birth. He can't keep a girl for some reason so he has to take care of the child himself. We did what we could to help him on the start. We told him what kind of milk to get and how to get it, but he said it made the baby sick. One day, we continued the spokesman, "I was there about dinner time. He was just ready to sit down to the table and the baby was crying with the colic and spitting its milk out and the old man was mad. He shook the poor little thing and slammed it into his high chair at the table and said:

"Here, you! Eat 'vat I eat or tie!" "Ever since that he's been feeding it mashed potatoes and beefsteak and stuff like that."

"How does the baby stand it?" asked the health commissioner.

"The child looks all right. It doesn't cry so much as it used to, but surely it can't stand that kind of food very long."

The commissioner assured the delegation that the city had no right to interfere in the case, whereupon the women began to speculate upon the advisability of filing a complaint of cruelty to children.

SIXTEEN MORE MAY GET ON

List for the Black Hills Trip by Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben is About Closed.

When the building committee of the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben held its final meeting at noon it was found that out of 100 places to be sold for the Deadwood excursion but sixteen remained to be disposed of and it was decided to limit the sale on the special train to that number, so that persons desiring to join the Ak-Sar-Ben party will have to secure places early.

It was found that negotiations for the Twenty-second Regiment band had been unsuccessful and a committee will visit Fort Crook to see if the commander of the regiment will not release the band for the excursion. The band is already engaged with the Elks' excursion to Salt Lake and this is understood to be reason why it is found difficult to secure it for the Deadwood trip.

Aside from the thirty-one persons who will go from South Omaha and whose names have not been given to the local committee, those who will go on the excursion are: S. J. Potter, C. S. Blugher, four from Williams' Shoe company, E. T. Yates, M. A. Disbrow, G. L. Russell, A. S. Billings, H. Peterson, G. W. Tierney, I. Kahn, C. S. Hayward, two from M. F. Smith & Co., Frank Copple, E. P. Deane, M. F. Funkhouser, E. D. Van Court, Thomas Kendall, W. Stelmets, M. Wulpi, George West, George H. Lee, A. C. King, Frank Haller, J. S. Krago, George W. Sues, N. P. Guckert, one from Linsinger & Metcalf company, Frank Dunlop, F. B. Woodson, E. Windheim, D. J. O'Brien, F. P. Kirksandall, David Cole, F. M. Hish, L. L. Kountze, two from Byrne & Hammer company, E. BIG RUSH FOR THE WARRANTS

Crowds Throng County Clerk's Office Taking Them Up.

WHAT BECOMES OF THE COUNTY TAXES

Court Expenses, Jurors' Fees and Other Such Bills Are Included in the Large Assortment.

In Saturday evening's issue The Bee announced that 5,000 of the county's general fund warrants would be ready Monday, morning and the result is that since a very early hour the county clerk's office force has been as busy as so many haymakers waiting on a crowd that lines the long counter with few gaps. Clerks Frank Dewey and Dan Butler have taken pains enough to supply a steambath captain for a full week, if properly misapplied.

These warrants tell a tale of finance. They show what becomes of the taxes that the county board levies for, the county treasurer asks for and special collectors finally have to go gunning for.

In this batch of 5,000 are some to cover part of the court expenses that have piled up since July of last year.

For instance, for the October term of district court the fees of the petit jurors amounted to $7,735, and for the talemans $272, making a total of $8,007. For the February term the petit jurors cost $7,719.70, the talemans $82.50 and the special jurors $61, or a total of $7,863.20. For the May term, which is now being considered by the board and will not be for some time, there is entered $4,144.10 for petit jurors and $114 for talemans, or a total of $4,258.10. These three totals make the grand totals for jury service through three terms of court $20,128.30. There must be added to this sum this year a total of $2,065.60 for the services of the grand jurors. This makes the grand total for district court jurors look like $22,193.90, and the purse of the taxpayer looks like it had been hard hit.

Other Minor Funds. To this might be added the fees for the county court jurors and the coroner's jurors, but the former amount to practically nothing and the latter to too little to be worried over.

Witnesses cost some money, too. Those in district court during the October term have a bill against the county for $1,837.90; those named during the February term for $1,962.90, and those of the May term for $1,091.10, or a total of $4,891.90. Add to this $1,676.10 for witnesses called before the grand jury and the total rises to $6,478, still exclusive of county court and coroner officials. For five justice courts the total of witness fees is entered as $235.40, the first bill being dated November.

The county, however, does not pay these sums in full, as many who serve as witnesses or jurors owe the county for taxes, and this indebtedness is always subtracted from the face of the warrant issued. The county gains immensely by this and its officials marvel that the city does not adopt the same system.

Justice Altstadt put in a claim for $321.70 and has been allowed $53.70; Bryce Crawford, $57.75; Justice Foster, $41.75, and Justice Baldwin $17.20, making a total of $485.90 for the justice courts. If there be included the $235.40 for witness fees.

The coroner, serving from January to July, puts in fifty-eight payrolls, totaling $772 for witnesses and jurors, and a bill of $485.75 for himself, or a total of $1,257.75.

Expense for Insane Cases. Insanity cases are another considerable drain upon the county funds. The constable and witness fees are recorded as only $29, but the total to be paid out of this last appropriation is $2,348.10. This includes three bills of Dr. George Tilden, filed October 17, February 6 and March 18, for a total of $747.50; two bills of J. L. Kaley for a total of $930, and a total of $1,600.60 for Frank A. Broadwell, clerk of the district court.

Since the organization of the life-saving service in 1871, over $100,000,000 worth of property has been saved, and almost 100,000 persons rescued. This is certainly convincing proof of the importance of these stations. There is also convincing proof in the wonderful record of cures behind the medicine that positively cures heartburn, indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, biliousness and malaria, fever and ague. If you have never tried it, do so today.
