City Tournament Develops Fact that Young

Players Are Fast. MATCHES IN FIRST ROUND ARE OVER

Last Evening's Play Affords Excellent Sport for Spectators, Who Watch Several Warmly Contested Matches.

Several keenly contested matches marked the second day of the city championship tennis tournament on the courts of the Omaha Field club yesterday evening. Although none of the results can be set down as surprises, the defeat of two or three of the older hands indicates the rise of a sufficient number of new men to take the place of those who are being lost to Omaha tennis from one cause or

Con Young had received a telegram from the secretary of the national association authorizing the postponement to the 18th, which was gratifying to the committee, as finally settling the matter.

A letter from the Sioux City secretary was also passed around, showing a very cordial appreciation of the action of the Omaha committee in making the change and promising as many entries as possible from the Iowa city. As already announced, some of the Omaha players will take part in the tri-state tournament at Sloux City on August 12 and following days.

IS DISAPPOINTING TENNIS Both of the Dohertys Withdraw from Longwood Contest for the International Meet.

LONGWOOD, Mass., July 29.—The tennis at the Longwood Cricket club today was disappointing. Large crowds gathered to see the Englishmen. R. I. and H. L. Doherty, in what was thought would be good matches. Both did some playing, winning their match in the eastern doubles in the morning and H. L. Doherty in the afternoon defeating J. C. Neely in straight sets. R. I. Doherty came on to the court and played a set and a half with Richard Stevens of New York, but rain put an end to the play for the day. Both Dohertys then withdrew from the tournament for singles and for the rest of the week will confine themselves to playing in the eastern doubles, in the hope of winning this event, so that they may meet the western champions, Collins and Waldner, at Newport next month. In addition M. D. Whitman, the former American champion, also withdrew, so that, with the exception of L. D. Ware and Holcomb Ward, there is no first-class player left in this event.

First round:

Horton and Codman against Warner and Tailent, R. D. and George L. Wrenn, ir, against Merrill and H. H. Whitman, Sharples and Scott against Seaver and Pier, Keyes and Brown against Clothier and R. C. Wright, Atkinson and J. Codman against Perry and Blagden, Ware and Larned against Allen and Hoskins, Neely and Parger against Plimpton brothers.

Day's play in singles:
Second Round—E. W. Larned beat W. L. Jennings, 5-7, 7-5, 5-2, 5-4.

Third Bound—H. Ward beat L. Perry, 6-4.

6-2, 7-5; G. S. Keyes beat S. F. Wise, 6-2, 6-2; 6-4; H. L. Doherty beat J. C. Neely, 6-2, 6-1, 6-2; L. E. Ware beat R. G. Fessenden, 6-1, 7-5, 7-2; H. H. Whitman beat E. W. Leonsrd, 6-2, 6-2, 6-1; L. C. Wright beat H. W. Warner, 6-2, 6-3, 6-1; W. J. Clothier beat M. D. Whitman by default; R. Stevens beat R. F. Doherty by default.

Fourth Round—L. E. Ware beat H. L. Doherty by default.

Eastern doubles:

First Round—R. F. Doherty and H. L. Doherty beat Hallowell and S. Ware, 6-2, 6-2, 6-2.

Eastern doubles:
First Round-R. F. Doherty and H. L. Doherty beat Hallowell and S. Ware, 6-2, 6-2, 6-2, 6-2.
An explanation of the withdrawal of the Dohertys and M. D. Whitman from the Longwood tennis singles was given out tonight. In the case of the former it was stated that as the Englishmen had come over to play in the international and national matches they had nothing to gain by playing matches in the Longwood singles. To play in the national tournament it is necessary for them to win the castern doubles, so they will reserve their strength for these matches. If they win the eastern doubles they will play at Newport against the western champions. Mr. Whitman withdraws, as he believes he is in form for the international event and does not care to exert himself in the Longwood matches.

an easy victory over J. W. Battin, whose name has been identified with the game since the days of the first tournaments in Omaha. The score of 6-1, 5-2 hardly does credit to the loser, for Battin kept the ball moving well and the railies were long and hotly contested.

The preliminary round is now concluded and enly two ties remsin undecided in the first round. C. H. Young and F. S. Loomis are scheduled to play early this evening and the winner will be pitted against A. Collett, who had an easy time yesterday with Frank M. Marsh, another oldtime devotee of tennis, who has lately been taking up with golf.

The other first-round tie, between Pollard and J. W. Hughes, which is down for tonlight, and the match between the winner and A. Potter in the second round, promise to be among the most interesting of the early part of the week.

Two of the last contests to be settled yesterday were those between W. Vaughan and L. S. Webster and between H. D. Allee and C. C. Rosewater. It was unfortunate that these two games happened to get into the two east courts, where the speciators saw little of what was going on. Both were well fought battles. That in which Vaughan finally agined a victory point of 120 sovereigns, distance, one mile and a courte finite of the most was going on. Both were well fought battles. Defents Princeton Man in Tennis Tourney at Chicago in Bitter Contest.

CHICAGO, July 29.—Creigh Collins of Kenwood wrested the western tennis championship in singles from R. D. Little of Princeton today at the Kenwood Country dub tournament in one of the most brilliant and bitterly contested matches ever witnessed in this part of the country. Collins, by perfect play, succeeded in winning the first two sets, 7-5, 7-5.

When the third set was commenced Collins immediately took the lead and for a time it looked as if he was going to make it three straight. Little, to the surprise of everybody, however, by excellent play and good headwork, succeeded in winning the set, 2-6.

In the fourth set Collins again took the lead, but was soon overhauled by Little, and despite the Kenwood player's best efforts the easterner succeeded in winning the set, 3-6.

This made the match even, each having won two sets. They both played perfect tennis in the next set, but Collins used better headwork and finally won the set and match, 6-3.

This is the second time Collins has won this event. Last year he was defeated by Little.

Today's victory gives Collins the oppor-Contest.

Today's victory gives Collins the oppor-tunity of meeting the winner of the east-ern tournament for the national champion-ship.

HANOVER, July 29.—The chess masters engaged in the international tournament of the German Chess association met this morning in the seventh round, being paired as follows: Gunsberg against Napier. Wolf against Barleben, Marshall against Janowski, Olland against Pillsbury, Mieses against Tschigorin, Popiel against Gottschall. Swiderski against Cohn, Mason against Levin and Suechting against Arkins. The meeting between Marshall and Janowski was the special feature of the session, each having won five games to date. Janowski had much the better of the contest when play ceased for the first adjournment. Another game that was closely watched was the Pillsbury and Olland, the Dutch champion. The latter has not yet suffered a defeat, but when his game with the American was adjourned he had decidedly the worst of it. Five games were finished in this morning's session, Tschigorin winning from Mieses, Gottschall from Popiel and Cohn from Swiderski, while the contests between Gunsberg and Napier and Suechting and Alkins were drawn.

In the afternoon series Wolff won his game with Bardeleben and Pillsbury fulfilled expectations by defeating Olland. Janowski and Marshall drew. The Mason-Levin contest was drawn. This leaves Marshall and Janowski tied for the lead with five and a half games won out of seven. Olland is next, with four and a half games to his credit out of six played. Pillsbury played twenty-one simultaneous games with second-class players while bilndfolded.
