

OMAHA LANDS THE LAST ONE

Final Game of Des Moines Series a Victory for Kouzka. HOFFER'S SLANTS EASILY STRAIGHTENED

Omaha pulled one foot out of the mire when it had become a rather threatening bog by defeating Des Moines in the last game of the series Monday, 6 to 3.

The Underhanded play was one, which they took in the first on two strikes and an error by Fears.

First Baseman Fears is the first Omaha man to execute unaided a double play on the Vinton Street park grounds this season.

Yesterday Fears had a different proposition. With Warner on first in the seventh, Fears batted a bouncer down the line.

Umpire Abbott had two or three clashes with Des Moines players, but there was nothing done for Joe Quinn.

Today Omaha plays in Des Moines and the team will not return until August 21.
