Mobilization at Fort Biley During the Month of September.

MONDAY'S SCORE IN RIFLE COMPETITION

At Army Headquarters Sergeant Wey is Tipped for High Man in Final Count-Department of Missouri Notes.

At army headquarters indications are that there will be one of the greatest gatherings of all arms of the United States nilitary service at Fort Riley in September that has ever been held in the United States except in time of war. The orders Illuation are not out at this time and it is impossible to say what organizations will take part. It is expected, however, that practically every company, troop and battery in the department will be present, as well as the battalion of engineers loned at Fort Leavenworth. This will egresont every branch except the coast

So far the only indications of the massing of the large number of troops are that | applications to the War department for troops to appear at festivals and fairs in Sentember have been uniformly denied for the reason that the troops would be otherwise engaged and applications from others for tents and similar supplies which have at, other times been loaned to encampments of veterans of the civil war have been refused, as they will be in use by the regu-

the states of Kansas and Nebraska will attend the encampment, and those from Colorado may come.

General Bates On a Trip. General Bates left Monday evening for Fort Leavenworth, where he will be present at the finel skirmish firing of the infantry team of the department. He will go from there to Jefferson Barracks, where he will unpect the work of reducing to skeleton sations the troops of cavalry at that post. It is said that the War department will reduce these troops to twenty men each. The general will be accompanied from Fort Leavenworth by Captain William Wright, aide-de-camp, and they will go from Jefferson Barracks to Chicago, dquarters of the Department of Lakes, of which department General Bates is in temporary command. It is expected that they will return to Omaha Saturday

Before leaving for Fort Leavenworth Gen eral Bates wrote to the cot that post revoking the order for the parade, at which the medals to the winners of the rifie competition were to have been presented. This was done for the reason that the medals had not been prepared by the War department. They will later be presented by the commanders of the regiments to which the winners may belong.

The third day of the competition was held Monday, it being the first day of the skirmish firing, which closed last night. Old-time competitors around headquarters menting upon the showing of the men who stood high at the known distance and some prophery that Sergeant This prophecy is made because he was the only men at skirmish firing to make more han 100 points out of the possible 200.
