POOR OPINION OF ORGANIZED LABOR

Republicans from Over the State Bring Encouraging Reports into Republican State Headquarters.

LINCOLN, Aug. 8.—(Special.)—Governor Savage has forwarded to the Omaha union of plumbers, gas and steam fitters the following communication in defense of his appointments for the Omaha fire and police commissioners.

Receipt of your communication under date of August 5 is hereby acknowledged. I regret that I am required to take issue with you regarding your contention of my action in appointing the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners for the city of Omaha.

It is regrettable that the performance of this duty was to select a commission that, when reported with the best interest to the rights of organized society and the law of the state, should be so construed to exercise thought and circumspection, and that the commission as selected did not include all the names of those who were candidates.

ROME AND THE PHILIPPINES

Priest Takes Issue with Archbishop Ireland in Connection with the Question.

INDIANOLA, Neb., Aug. 8.—The Editor of The Bee: Although a subscriber to The Bee, I take issue against certain remarks in today's editorial entitled, "An Appeal to Conservatism."

As for labor not being represented in the personnel of the commission, the statement is untrue. Every man of the four is a man behind the plow, the counter at the desk, who is more a laborer?
