SUPREME COURT SYLLABI

The following opinions will be officially reported. Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad company against Martelle. Error from Illinois. Reversed. Barnes, C., division No. 2.

parance in his docket entries in the case, the defendant ordered a transcript, to order to perfect an appeal, and the Justice included therein the proceedings on the special appeal, and included the same in the fee charged and received for the transcript. Hold that the execution of fees for that part of the transcript pertaining to the special appearance, did not render the Justice liable for the statutory penalty for taking illegal fees.

1. The words "Surety approved by me this 10th day of July, 1899," followed by the official signature of the Justice of the Peace, in a bond for the appearance of a defendant, and the execution of a fee therefor, as such, by the Justice, is illegal.

1. It is not a good ground of challenge for cause, under the provisions of section 66, Code of Civil Procedure, that a juror who has been summoned on the regular panel to the array, has again been summoned under a special venire at the same time of court, and on the same day, if the juror sat in a cause tried at the same time of court before the challenge of the venire was made.

1. It is within the absolute discretion of the licensing authority to refuse a license to a person, to whom a license has been granted, if the authority believes that the person is not a fit person to be licensed.

1. In an action for damages for personal injuries, resulting from the alleged negligence of a defendant, it is not necessary to set out in the petition the specific steps taken by the plaintiff to avoid the injury, the general allegation that such injuries were caused by the fault or negligence of the defendant is sufficient.

1. In an action by an administrator to recover damages resulting from a wife's death, the administrator is not bound to set out in the petition the specific steps taken by him to avoid the injury, the general allegation that such injuries were caused by the fault or negligence of the defendant is sufficient.

SHIELDS WANTS TO HURRY

Afraid the Democratic Congressional Nominations Will Escape Him. MANY CANDIDATES NOW IN FIELD

Chairman Fred H. Cosgrove has called the democratic congressional convention of this district to convene in this city at 10 o'clock, Saturday, August 16.

The session called for an early convention, under the circumstances, is not only a surprise, but something of a shock to the democrats of the district.

When the delegates to the congressional convention were selected June 21 Shields was the only avowed candidate in the field.

1. The delegates to the democratic congressional convention are as follows: Omaha—First ward, John Zellars, Walter Brander, Edward J. Doe, John Drexel, David Rowan, William W.
