After coronation—jubilation. King Henry will now feel satisfied that he wears a crown.

Governor Savage is something of a letter writer, but his letters are not in it with the reply evoked from the officers of the local plumbers' union.

The Real Estate exchange wants it distinctly understood that it is in politics and that it is out of politics.

Is the reappearance of ex-Governor James E. Boyd at a reception to the democratic nominee for governor a forerunner of his re-entry into the political field?

Wyoming democrats have put up a complete state ticket, all nominations being made by acclamation.

Colonel Bryan has taken to firing questions at President Roosevelt. Mr. Bryan used to amuse himself by writing open letters addressed to President Cleveland and felt much aggrieved because Mr. Cleveland paid no attention to him.

The program of the coronation ceremonies is to be made as short as possible by cutting out all unnecessary verbiage and long-winded speeches.

Council Bluffs has the bulge on Omaha in entertaining the distinguished guests who will attend the reunion of the Society of the Army of the Philippines next week.

Republicans would feel better if Senator Stewart of Nevada would refrain from indulging his forecasting propensities. When he was addressed on the free silver line, the Nevada statesman scored a record at making predictions that failed to pan out.

The fee for admission to practice in the federal court, which was formerly $5, has been reduced to $1.

We are pleased to note that Douglas county has been accorded a place on the ticket put in nomination by the prohibitionists of Nebraska.

Whiteleaf Field does not half appreciate how truly sorry all those popo-rastic popogars are that he did not remain to take part in the postponed coronation festivities.

The statement that the Union Pacific has placed an order for steel rails with German manufacturers because the American mills are so far behind with their work that they cannot fill orders short of a year or more, indicates that the prevailing prosperity in this country is here to stay for a little while at least.

Bryan is having a hard time making people believe he is not a candidate for a third time presidential nomination in 1924.

The iron and steel industry of Canada has been making good progress in the last few years and there is no reason why it should not continue to advance.
