

BASE BALL GOSSIP OF WEEK

Western League Goes Back to Last Year with Omaha Leading. DENVER THE ONLY NEAR COMPETITOR

On the last turn. Omaha's base ball team will soon be coming down the home stretch. It is now on its last visit east for this season and will wind up with four clubs before coming home.

Last week's playing shows very little change in the work of the Omaha team. Fielding averages have suffered slightly and batting as well, but not so much as to constitute a noteworthy variance from the season's record.

Again are the little pills being cooked, again the white snake curls up from the pipe heat, and again from the "laundry" comes the old story of the circuit for the next season. The circuit builders have commenced work early in the west, and have already constructed two and one-half complete and thoroughly equipped base ball leagues.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT PROSPECTS

Outlook for Interstate Meeting at Omaha Has Become Brilliant. MANY PLAYERS HAVE ALREADY ENTERED

With a score of outside entries already secured and with half as many more certain to come from Omaha, the success of the Interstate Tennis tournament to be held at the Omaha Field club, commencing August 18, is already an assured thing, and the managers of the affair are highly elated over this early earnest of a prosperous and strenuous week.

Nebraska Players in. Fred Shephard, beyond a doubt the best man at the game who ever lived in Lincoln, is coming. Mr. Shephard has a handicap in a weak back, however, that prevents him from showing stamina.

After a local season of flattering success the Union Stock Yards Juniors of South Omaha will leave Monday on their long talked of trip through Nebraska.

These youngsters continue to play the kind of ball they have been putting up for some time. They are expected to be the principal towns east of a line drawn through Blue Hill, Hastings and Grand Island northward.

Reaching further away, F. R. Sanderson of Galesburg, Ill., is found on the list. Meanwhile H. M. Holland of the same city has entered with Tom Ferguson, Jesse Clark and Frank McMahon.

TEACHING THE BOYS TO SWIM

Physical Director Barnes of Y. M. C. A. Has His Hands Full Daily. FEATURE OF SUMMER ATHLETIC ROUTINE

Forty boys taught to swim in one summer. That is certainly a noteworthy record for one man, and that's what Physical Director Barnes of the Omaha Young Men's Christian association grins about.

But it is not long that any boy is allowed to remain a tyro or even a novice. Barnes is himself a trained and powerful swimmer, who never seems to need more than one hand or foot to take care of himself in the water, and he quickly puts the green ones through a course of sprouts in which the dog paddle movement has no place.

Two base ball diamonds are busy at the park this summer and some star amateur players have been developed. The diamonds are fine, being thoroughly skinned and under constant care, and the boys can play just as fast ball as they know.

Two good tennis courts are prominent features of the park. The Young Men's Christian association players at the game are all new men, but they are kept after it. Some of the younger ones who are growing strong at the racket are Kenworthy, Padden, Clark, Wilson, Loomis and Harris.

Thomas Garland, an 8-year-old New Yorker, is the sole survivor of the steamship Arctic, which sank with 600 people aboard off Cape Race forty-eight years ago.

The father of all the big trees has been discovered near Fresno, Cal. With airth of 150 feet it seems likely to stand on its base longer than the Caucasians.

The two American states which have the largest proportionate number of Canadian-born inhabitants are Massachusetts and Michigan.

The person of the Young Men's Christian Association team who swim regularly Sunday at the lake and take their turns at it with equal zest, though necessarily not so often. Saturday night is the "slippery lily" of the hour, and on Tuesday or Thursday morning will find Mr. Barnes down at a certain sandy beach on Off-Lake, surrounded by a crowd of boys numbering from twenty to fifty.
