

ANXIOUS TO PURCHASE LAND

Holders of School Leases Applying to Convert Them Into Deeds

REV. HILLS IS ONLY OUT ON PAROLE

Arrangements Being Perfected for State G. A. R. Reunion, Which is to Be Held in Hastings

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Aug. 13.—(Special.)—Many occupants of state school land in Nebraska are anxious to transform their lease contracts into sale contracts and thus become owners of the land.

The land occupants realize that farming or stockraising in Nebraska is a safe proposition, and hosts of those who have leased land know that it is cheaper for them to buy the land at a fair appraised value than pay the required 6 per cent and probable bounty for merely temporary possession.

Only those persons who own leases taken out prior to 1897 may purchase the land. Under the old law a lease contract could be converted into a sale contract at any time, provided the appraised value and equal price offered met the approval of the board.

The idea of the legislature was to keep the land in the possession of the state, for it is considered that more can be realized from it by leasing it than by selling.

Hills Only Paroled.

It was explained in the governor's office today that executive clemency was extended to Rowland P. Hills, the ministerial big game hunter of Washington county, largely because of the fact that Hills had been paroled and not pardoned, but he enjoys full freedom with the single restriction that he must not go beyond the boundary lines of the state.

L. A. Williams, editor of the Blair Pilot, will act as sponsor and employer for Hills.

Mr. Williams was responsible for securing his liberation and parole, which he won for his 400 per cent.

Hills began suit for divorce from his first wife several weeks ago, while still a convict, and it may be that he now intends to make the second marriage legal.

"I was sitting in the executive office last Saturday when the thought occurred to me that I might succeed in getting Hills out of the penitentiary on parole," said Mr. Williams today.

Hills' defense in the prosecution was that as the marriage was secretly performed in a foreign parish it was not binding upon him and under this impression he thought it unnecessary to be divorced before marrying a second time.

Getting Ready for Reunion.

Department Commander Steele and Assistant Adjutant General Howell have been here in this city tonight regarding the progress made in the arrangements for the forthcoming reunion of the Grand Army men of the state, which will be held at Hastings for six days beginning September 8.

A rate of one fare for the round trip will prevail on all railroads on September 8, 9 and 10, with ticket good until September 15.

Where the local one way fare is less than the half rate will prevail from September 7 to 11.

Wymore Battles Silets Captain.

The Wymore battery of light artillery now has a duly elected commanding officer. He is Samuel E. Yoder, formerly lieutenant and acting captain. The vote of the company, which was canvassed by the adjutant general today, was as follows: Yoder, 21; C. W. Garrison, 1; Arthur A. Murdoch, 2.

The last named is a son of former Captain Murdoch. There has been considerable strife in this company over the election of a captain, it being desired by Captain Murdoch that the adjutant general and the governor were not acting fairly with him.

Until recently he was a candidate for reelection but the opposition developed so strongly that he withdrew and took no further active part in the fight.

OFFER FOR STREET RAILWAY

Eastern Capitalists Ready to Buy at Ninety Cents on the Dollar.

LOCAL STOCKHOLDERS NOW CONSIDERING

While No Options Have Been Given it is Probable that Stock Will Soon Pass Into Hands of Easterners.

The Omaha street railway has not been sold to New York, no deal for a sale to take effect on September 1 has been made, no one holds an option on the stock and no offer of 92 cents on the dollar has been made for it. All of these statements, however, it is felt that the negotiations for the sale of the property, which have been under way for many months, are likely to succeed in the near future.

The New York banking house of J. and W. Seligman & Co., as a result of the offer of 90 cents on the dollar for all or any part of the stock of the Omaha Street Railway company, and the local stockholders are now considering that offer, with a strong probability that it will be accepted. The Seligman firm has no option on any of the stock and it is up to each and every individual stockholder to accept or reject the offer, which was sent to them simultaneously by the Seligmans last Tuesday.

Frank Murphy, president, E. W. Nash and Guy C. Barlow, all of whom are heavy stockholders in the company, are now in the city and it is expected that the business associates last night the Seligman offer would likely accept the Seligman offer for their holdings. Senator Millard said that he would be willing to part with his stock in the street railway at 90 cents on the dollar, and other heavy stockholders in the city are also being approached.

There are three or four other heavy stockholders in the city who seem to be a strong probability that their property will pass from the hands of Omaha capitalists.

No date is fixed by the Seligmans for the withdrawal of their offer, and it will likely remain open for a reasonable length of time. The stockholders are expected to act individually and the passing of the stock into the hands of the New Yorkers may drag along for some weeks. It is thought, however, that most of the stock will be transferred within a short time.

Consolidation Held Back.

The deal for the consolidation of the Omaha and Council Bluffs street railways, which was outlined in the Bee of August 10, but which has not yet been held in abeyance, will now be held in abeyance, and if the Omahans sell their stock to the Seligmans it will be up to the new owners to consummate the merger.

Secretary W. V. Moore of the Omaha Street Railway company said: "The great financial house of J. & W. Seligman & Co. may become interested in the Omaha street railway. It does not own a share of the stock today, neither does it hold an option on a share, and so far as I know every stockholder in Omaha has been notified and he pleases with his holdings. The Seligmans have merely made an offer of 90 cents on the dollar for the stock. If the deal goes through it will bring several millions of eastern money to Omaha for new investments, because the Omahans now own practically all of the street railway stock and are not the kind of men who are likely to let their money rust. If they sell their street railway holdings the money they receive will be ready for other investments and Omaha will be the gainer."

"The house of J. & W. Seligman & Co. is one of the greatest financial concerns in the world and it believes thoroughly in the future of Omaha; hence its desire to become interested in the street railway. If this deal is made it will help make it the leading city of the west."

Mr. Moore added that in case the sale is made the new owners will carry out the plans of the present company for improvements to cost about $1,000,000, as outlined in the Bee last Saturday.

SECRETARY DOPP'S NARROW ESCAPE.

Had Backache and Sleeplessness Caused by Catarrh of Kidneys—Peruna Cured.

Many Persons Have Catarrh of the Kidneys and Don't Know It.

Raymond Dopp, Financial Secretary of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association No. 42, writes from 275 Astor street, Detroit, Mich.:

"If you had seen me three years ago and then saw me today you would not wonder that I praise Peruna. At that time I was in a wretched state of health. I had a backache and bladder trouble. My back ached, I could not properly digest my food, my nights were made hideous with bad dreams, but Peruna changed all this. Less than a dozen bottles made a new and well man of me, and a hundred times I blessed you for having placed before me so many such a blessing to the sick as Peruna."—Raymond Dopp.

Mrs. Matson, Treasurer of the Minneapolis Independent Order of Good Templars, writes from 12 Sixth street, Minneapolis, Minn., as follows:

"Last winter I had considerable trouble with my kidneys brought on after a hard cold which I had neglected.

One of my lodge friends who called when I was ill told me of a wonderful medicine called Peruna. I had no faith in it, but my husband purchased me a bottle, and I asked him to try it. It brought me most satisfactory results. I used three bottle before I was completely cured, but I have had good cause to be grateful, for not only did my kidney trouble disappear, but my general health improved and I have been in good health ever since. It could not be without it for ten times its cost."—Frances Matson.

This experience has been repeated many times. We hear of such cases nearly every day.

Mrs. Matson had catarrh of the kidneys. As soon as she took the right remedy she made a quick recovery.
