

DEAL ON WITH DEMOCRATS

Merger Arranges to Have Hitchcock Put In Nomination.

FINDS ED HOWELL READY FOR A TRADE

Object is to Have Democratic Nominee Who Cannot Draw Votes of Anti-Merger Republicans.

Political Doings.

"At the congressional convention tomorrow," said a leader of the anti-Herndon-Hitchcock faction yesterday, "the democratic party of this district is to be deliberately and disgracefully traded off. The bargain has been made between the Herndon-Hitchcock clique and the Mercer managers, and it only remains for so-called delegates of the party to carry it out in convention. Lee Herndon and Ed Howell named this delegation and as they control it absolutely there has been no hesitancy on their part to negotiate for its delivery in the interests of Ed Howell's candidacy for mayor. The bargain has been made with the Mercer clique of so-called republicans and the agreement is to nominate G. M. Hitchcock for congress in consideration of a promise from the Mercers to help elect Howell mayor next spring.

"The whole deal rests on the presumption that the republicans are to nominate Mercer and Howell, and the end aimed at is the election of Mercer and the defeat of Howell. Few democrats believe that Hitchcock would poll the full vote of the fusionists, and not one thinks for a moment that he could win out. Mercer has realized all along that the opposition to him in his own party is so strong and irreconcilable that he could not be elected if nominated, in case the democrats put up a man who could gather in the votes of those republicans who are opposed to him. So the point with him—and a point preliminary even to his nomination—was to see that the democratic nominee should be one who could not get the support of the anti-Merger republicans. That is why the democratic convention has been called before the republican convention and that is why Hitchcock is Mercer's man. The whole thing is as plain as the nose on your face. If Mercer is to be the republican candidate, the only hope of electing the democratic nominee is the hope of having him draw the votes of the anti-Merger republicans. Hitchcock, of all men, is the last man to do this.

"In return for the nomination of Hitchcock, Mercer's managers promise to help nominate and elect Ed Howell mayor next spring. Furthermore, they promise in the event of Mercer's defeat at the republican primaries and the nomination of some other republican for congress to turn in and help elect Hitchcock. And that is what Hitchcock gets out of the deal. The most disgraceful part of the whole transaction is the selling out of the democrats of this district like so many cattle."

The deal to nominate Hitchcock and his expressed willingness to accept makes the following card, published at the head of the editorial page of the World-Herald of June 30, of timely interest:

Some discussion having arisen concerning the project of nominating me for congress in this district I take this occasion to say that I am not and will not become a candidate. I appreciate the good will of those who have proposed my name, but I cannot undertake to make the race.

G. M. HITCHCOCK.

BOARD IN SECRET SESSION

Fire and Police Commissioners Talk About Market Behind Closed Doors.

The acting Board of Fire and Police Commissioners held a special meeting at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon for the purpose of reconsidering the order adopted Monday with reference to the removal of the market place from Howard street to Capitol avenue. One member of the board said that the action had been too hasty and he was in favor of reconsidering the matter. Those present at the meeting were W. J. Broach, J. W. Thomas and Lee Sprechen. They held a short session, at which they approved a number of bills which had previously been approved by the mayor as chairman of the finance committee of the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners appointed by the mayor and council.

Then the secret session began. Behind closed doors for an hour the debate continued and then the acting commissioners emerged, Mr. Broach saying: "We did nothing at all. The only thing to go on the minutes is the approval of the bills."

"We considered the market house question, but did nothing," said another member.

"Will the policemen be instructed to remove the gardeners Monday morning?" he was asked.

"The matter will be considered further probably. We intend to do nothing radical," was the reply.

Cholera Morbus.

This is an extremely dangerous disease. In almost every neighborhood some one has died from it, and in many instances before a physician could be summoned or medicine obtained. Mrs. E. H. Delano of Durant, Mich., is subject to severe attacks of cholera morbus. During the past four years she has kept at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and says it has always given her quick relief. During this time she has used two bottles of it. This remedy can be depended upon in the most severe and dangerous cases. The safe way is to keep it at hand ready for instant use.

TO PROTECT DAKOTA CITY

War Department Probably Will Act at Once on Engineer's Recommendation.

Senator Millard is in receipt of a letter from Captain H. M. Chittenden of Sioux City, Ia., in which the latter says that he has made a thorough investigation of the river front at Dakota City, Neb., and has recommended to the War department that the anchor riprap be put in. It is likely that the work will begin at once. When Senator Millard was in Washington on his recent trip he called upon General Gillespie, chief of the engineers' corps, and after the matter had been thoroughly explained to him General Gillespie said it would receive his immediate attention. The river at Dakota City has so encroached upon the town that much property is endangered.

The result of the other trials was a draw, one being won by the plaintiff and one by the defendant. It is said that these cases are part of a fight made by the Barbers' union on the barber colleges, out of the same kind having been started at San Francisco and Minneapolis.

Laid Out with a Flatiron.

A young negro, William Bryant, lay last night on a cot at the city jail under medical inspection, so that it could be known whether he had been fractured, rendering his condition serious, or if only the outer shell of bone had been splintered. Bryant had tried to cut her with a knife. The crown of the head where Irene (or Della) Carter heard a cry and running downstairs found Bryant lying in the yard. Officer McCarthy was summoned and soon found the young woman whom he arrested. Bryant was not able to give the particulars of the attack, but he said that he quarreled when coming home on tenth street earlier in the evening and that Bryant had tried to cut her with a knife. When they reached their room, she says, he tried to strangle her again with the flatiron. The house where the trouble arose is occupied by Mrs. Cady, and the two have been there only a short time. Mrs. Carter, whose property the iron is, was much concerned when this war raged off to the police station and implored the officers to return it in time for her morning work.

Horse Gets Into Sewer Ditch.

When Fred and Mrs. Stromberg of 4303 Saratoga street were driving along Bristol street shortly after 8 o'clock last night they were much concerned when the rear wheel of their street car fell into a sewer ditch. The horse was yanked in the street before the new houses of E. E. Huntley at 2321 and 2323 North 16th street. The horse was broken harness in such a way that it was in danger of strangling it was necessary to cut the leather straps. The fall to the bottom of the trench. Neighbors assisted in pulling the horse out. The cutting into an inclined plane and with the aid of a rope the horse was pulled to the street level without much injury. The red light had burned out.

Discover What Would Happen.

The fire department had a run yesterday evening all because two youngsters wanted to see what would happen if a bell was rung on the telephone. The alarm came from the Twentieth street station. At about 10 o'clock Miss McGee, when leaving the mission, allowed a few boys to remain playing croquet on the lawn. They were not far away when they had finished. It was while carrying out this instruction that temptation in the form of the small red card with the large 25 passed on the telephone came to the eye of a boy of 11 and 13 years, respectively, Henry Talbot and John Duncan. The pair were later arrested and are locked up. Thirty-seven is evidently not of the 7-11 family.

HARD FIGHT TO KEEP MEN

Union Pacific Brings in More Workmen, Many of Whom Desert.

STRIKERS' FRIENDS AMONG THE LOT

Company Imports Thirty-Two from East and Sends Them West with Ten from Local Shops.

Interest in the Union Pacific strike affairs again has shifted to the company's effort at managing the situation. Activity along this line has marked the progress of the fight during the last two days. With the addition and subtraction process constantly in operation it seems to be a "cat-and-mouse" game between the company and the strikers. The company is getting men from the east and sending them west. The strikers are getting men from the west and sending them east.

Friday morning a carload of men arrived over the Milwaukee from the east, thirty-two in all, and these, with ten taken from the local shop force, were sent out farther west, the plan being to employ them in other parts of the country. Most of the Milwaukee crowd were said to be union men, and it is said they would desert the company upon their arrival at their destinations. Their scheme is to get to the Pacific coast, and they are taking advantage of the company's free transportation to accomplish this end.

Another importation of fourteen men came in yesterday morning on the Illinois Central "hilled" from Chester, Pa. Twelve of this number left on the arrival and joined the strikers. The leader of the crowd had this to say:

"We were hired in Chester on the understanding that there was no strike out here, and while we had our suspicions, we knew nothing of the strike. We were told that we had come to the conclusion, however, shortly before reaching Omaha that there was a strike on, as they locked the car doors for fear we would leave the train, and we determined to do so at the first opportunity. This change was made, and we were turned loose. We were ushered into the dining room at the shops for breakfast and within a few minutes twelve of us had made our exit."

Don't Know the Trade.

Two young men left the shops here yesterday who were employed as blacksmiths. Their names are given as F. W. Green, who hails from a ranch in South Dakota, and John Matteson. Green says he and Matteson are carpenters by trade and had been at work at that trade for the Union Pacific here, but when the force in the blacksmith shop ran low they were told to go in there and work. Not being familiar with that character of work, the young men left rather than undertake a new occupation.

Green says about twelve girls are running in the blacksmith shop. He and blacksmiths deny that there are twenty, as has been given out.

Word was received from Cheyenne stating that the shop force there has been undergoing additional losses. Besides the twenty-four men who left several days ago, twelve are reported to have quit Wednesday, materially reducing the force. These defections at Cheyenne and other western towns make it necessary for the company to take men from its Omaha shops.

The union men manage to whip a man into the local shops every little while, but in cases like this they are detected by officials and promptly dismissed. Thursday R. Schlegel, an Austrian who had been in the company's employ before the strike, was engaged in repairing a boiler in the Omaha shops when Foreman O'Neill of the North shops when Foreman O'Neill of the North shops detected him and ordered him out of the shops. The workman had shaved his mustache and had his hair closely cut in order to disguise himself, but despite these facts and his protestations that O'Neill was mistaken, the latter compelled Schlegel to leave the shops.

Strikers are still complaining of irregular mail service and yesterday Vice President Tom L. Wilson of the machinists said: "We have made complaints to the authorities at Washington and begun an effort to improve our mail service from the west. It became so annoying that we had to take some action. President O'Connell will look after the matter at the national capital."

CLOTHES FOR MEN AND WOMEN

(Issued Under Authority of the Railroads of Nebraska.)

Statement Showing the Remarkable Prosperity of Manufacturers of Nebraska and the Light Taxes They Have to Pay.

The census reports for 1900 show the following to be the condition of manufactures in Nebraska:

|---|---------------|
| Value of land owned by manufacturers | $ 6,350,076 |
| Value of buildings owned by manufacturers | 15,822,336 |
| Value of machinery and tools owned by manufacturers | 22,201,553 |
| Cash and sundries on hand | 26,599,163 |
| Total Value | $ 71,982,127 |

By the use of this capital the products of the manufacturers of Nebraska in the census year were valued at $148,990,102.

They paid:

|---------------------------------|---------------|
| Salaries, officials and clerks | $ 2,325,038 |
| Wages to laborers | 11,570,668 |
| Rent of works | 855,750 |
| Taxes | 248,760 |
| Rent of offices and interest | 5,888,018 |
| Contractors | 292,871 |
| For materials | 100,856,255 |
| Fuel and rent of power and heat | 1,341,453 |
| Total expenses | $128,028,813 |
| Net earnings of manufacturers | 20,961,290 |

The state auditor reports the following amounts as being returned for taxation by manufacturers in the State of Nebraska for that year:

|---|------------|
| Material and manufactured articles | $ 126,485 |
| Manufacturers' tools, implements and machines | 268,267 |
| Property of companies or corporations | 1,908,132 |

Assuming that all of the property in the state reported as being "property of companies or corporations" should be property of manufacturing corporations, (which is improbable, as street railway companies and many other corporations are known to be in this item) this shows that but 8.6-10 per cent of this class of property was returned for taxation, and more direct is the proof that but 12-10 per cent of the value of manufacturers' machinery was so reported, as both the census and our tax schedules have this item reported separately and $268,267 is less than 12-10 per cent of $22,201,553.

In the foregoing statement, the interest paid by manufacturers is reported together with the item of rents to the census bureau, and is deducted with the amounts paid in operation; in a comparison with the railroad net earnings, it should be remembered that the interest paid by the railroad on its bonded indebtedness is paid out of the net earnings after the operating expenses have been deducted. The percentage in the comparison is so low that it is not changed by our statement.

The Manufacturers Pay 1 2-10 per cent of Net Earnings for Taxes in Nebraska.

The Railroads Pay 10 6-10 per cent of Net Earnings for Taxes in Nebraska.

Manufacturers' Net Earnings were Ten Times their Assessed Valuation in 1900.
