OUTBATTED, BUT STILL WIN THE GAME

Gibson Does Fine Twirling for Kansas City, Bats Remarkably Well, but Poor Support Tells the Story.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 16.—(Special Telegram)—By playing the game all the time for all it was worth Omaha took the first game from Kansas City today by a score of 5 to 4. The visitors were outbatted and hit by bunched nicely on them in two innings, but the Manningtons put up such a wretched game in the field that it was comparatively easy for the Omahans, who gave their twirlers brilliant support. The Bourke band played the fastest game in the field that has been seen since the Manningtons returned home and were superb on the bases, stealing five times. Three of these men would have been caught out in the pilfering act had Robinson frozen on the ball when it shot down to him at second. One of the features of the game was the batting of Gibson, who twirled for the locals. He is a notoriously weak batter, but today he developed a Lajoie form, and out of three times at bat made a single, a double and a home run over the left-field fence. His home run came in the fifth inning, when there were two men on bases. Up to this time the locals had been shut out by Alloway, who retired at the end of the inning on account of a bruised thumb, Owen relieving him. The game ended in a sensational manner. After Messitt and Kemmer, who batted for Shannon, had been retired in the ninth Gibson beat out a bunt and Ketchum followed with a hit to center. There were two outs and two men on bases. Gibson, who batted for Ketchum in the act of sliding about six inches from the plate, thus ending the game, which looked for a moment as though the score would be tied. Attendance, 1,800. Score:
