that can be worn slightly open at the throat is a favorite of fashion and is keenly a high collar means discomfort. This admirable model is so constructed as to althe plain bishop sort. As shown, it is of pale blue crepe de chine cream lace and black velvet ribben, but all the materials used for gowns and odd waists are appropriate, silk, soft wool and the many levely cotton stuffs.

The foundation is a fitted lining that closes at the center front. Both back and fronts of the walst are stitched in groups of four fine tucks, then arranged over the lining. The waist proper closes beneath the center group of tucks, but the yeke is attached to the right front only and hooked into place at the left shoulder. The elbow sleeves are tucked to within a few inches of the lower edge, where they fall free to form frills, but the bishop sleeves are plain, finished with narrow ouffs.

To cut this waist for a woman of mediun size 3% yards of material 21 inches wide or 2 yards 44 inches wide will be required with 2 yards of lace insertion, 8 yards of narrow and 21/2 yards of wide velvet ribbon to make as illustrated; 3% yards 21 or 27 inches wide, or 2% yards 44 inches wide to make with bishop sleeves. The pattern 3013 is out in sizes for 22, 34, 36, 38 and 40-inch bust measure.

Por the accommodation of The day read-ers, these patterns, which usually retail at nominal price, 10 cents, which covers all expense. In order to get a pattern on-close 10 cents, give number and name of a Dally, b Daily except Sunday. a Sun- pattern wanted and bust measure.
