MAY SETTLE OUT OF COURT Burlington and Northwestern Trying to Agree on Jobbing Dis-

The Burlington and Northwestern railroad companies are trying to settle out of court the differences between them relative to the occupancy of Eighth and Harney streets. Since the injunctions secured by the former company were dissolved the latter has been using part of the lipes laid a 2:45 pm before the injunctions were issued, but the extreme eastern end has not been used, and while there is no injunction to prevent its use it is understood that it will be permitted to lie idle pending the negotiations It is said that the negotiations will not be confined entirely to the portion of the
