Move Your Office. While there are only about ten vacant rooms in the whole Bee Building, there are among them, some of the very choicest offices in the building and also some, which, while not so desirable, can be rented at a very low price. The rental price you must remember, includes light, water, heat and janitor service, as well as immunity from fire insurance because the building is absolutely fire-proof.

The Bee Building First Floor. SUITE 104: This is no finer office suite in Omaha than this one. It is located just on the right hand of the great marble stairway, and has unusually large windows looking upon the front entrance way of the building. It fronts on Farnam street. One room is 12x12 and the other 8x12. It has a burglar-proof vault, marble mantel piece, hardwood floors, and will be frescoed to suit tenant. Price $75.00.

The Bee Building Third Floor. ROOM 328: This is the only room on the second or third floor vacant, and is one of the choicest rooms in the building. It is 12x12, and can be divided to suit the tenant if a private office is desired. It is a decidedly handsome office, having entrance facing the court, and a large window looking out on Seventeenth street. It has a very large burglar-proof vault, hardwood floors and is just the kind of an office that is hard to obtain ordinarily. Price $50.00.

The Bee Building Fourth Floor. SUITE 214: This is a very large room, 17x18 feet. It faces west, but is very light and well ventilated. It is very seldom that office space is offered in the Bee Building. It could be used to advantage by some firm employing a large number of clerks, or requiring large floor space—a wholesale jeweler, or manufacturer's agent, who would like to be in a fireproof building, or it will be divided to suit the tenant. Price $50.00.

The Bee Building Fifth Floor. SUITE 210: This room is 12x12 feet and faces the court, is a light, pleasant room, and has a burglar-proof vault. Price $20.00.

The Bee Building Sixth Floor. SUITE 210: This consists of two rooms, both 12x14 feet. Each of them has a large burglar-proof vault, have been newly decorated and are rooms where any business or professional man may be comfortable. Price for the two $35.00.

Jake Washington, a well known colored character of the town, is behind the bars at the city jail. He was arrested Saturday night for assaulting his wife and creating a disturbance at his home. He succeeded in securing his wife and child and is said to have at once returned to his home and again given his wife and child a beating. He had refused him this time.

William Burns, a railroad grader, was found drunk and sleeping on the sidewalk. He was arrested and taken to jail. He had exchanged his old shoes for a comparatively new pair which he happened to see in a Broadway window. The shoes were found on Burns' feet and were quickly removed from him. In the meantime Burns' ancient footwear had disappeared.

The September session of the county supervisors will begin today and there are a number of important matters slated for action. The tax roll will be presented and terminated at this session and the board is expected to also take some action in regard to the proposition of the Harrison county authorities to construct several large drainage ditches which will tap this county. It is understood that the board is opposed to the proposition.

BISHOP HAMILTON ON WARS

Declares Them Worse Than Useless, as They Never Settle Anything.

Bishop J. W. Hamilton of San Francisco occupied the pulpit of the Broadway Methodist church yesterday. This is Bishop Hamilton's first appearance in town as a bishop and he is on his way to Jefferson, where he will preside at the general conference, which convenes there September 10. The bishop also delivered a short address at the evening service and this evening will lecture at the church. Bishop Hamilton's sermon in the morning was on "War" and he took as his text Psalm the xv; "He maketh war to cease unto the end of the earth; he breaketh the bow and cutteth the spear in sunder; he burneth the chariot in fire."

He said in opening that war was a weapon, a rude weapon of a rude people in a rude age and as such it will soon be abandoned. It was both a mode and measure of paganism. War, he said, never settled anything and never will. The whole course of human events substantiated these seemingly startling statements.

Of course it is a grand thing to die for your country, but who will die if there is no one left to rule the country or any country left for the people to enjoy. In this era more can be accomplished by diplomacy. War will not settle difficulties and differences that arise in the mind and heart, where all troubles originate. It is not the nature of physical force to settle troubles of a mental nature. It is said that the question of slavery was settled at Gettysburg, but I say no. Neither was the question settled at Appomattox. The question is not even settled today, as the countless inhuman crimes committed in every southern state almost every day will testify. This question was not a matter of people, but of a system.

ALL READY FOR THE ELKS FAIR

Final Touches Have Been Put on the Booths and Other Structures.

"Everything will be positively ready for the opening of the Elks' street fair and carnival this afternoon at 1 o'clock, as announced," stated Manager Troutman yesterday.

The general appearance of the enclosure last evening supported this assertion. The finishing touches to the booths were given yesterday and the streets enclosed were thronged all the afternoon and evening by crowds.

DeKreke Bros., with their troupes of eight people, arrived yesterday morning from St. Joseph, where they showed at the Elks' fair, and their arrival at once gave the streets the appearance of the midway, with their camels and swarthy-visaged natives from the east.

The DeKreke Bros. will be on the Streets of India and the Streets of Cairo. The show in the Streets of India will be given twice daily, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and at 9 o'clock at night. The show occupies from one hour to an hour and a half.

The Streets of Cairo will be open all day long. The shows are located on Seventh street and First avenue.

The Electric theater will be located on Sixth street, as will the Rag Time Opera company. The Ferris wheel will be in Bayliss park, facing First avenue.

The management has provided a number of free shows. In addition to Covalt's band, which will give two concerts in the afternoon and two in the evening, there will be the Cycle Whip by the Wilson brothers, Prof. Clarke's performing dogs, Shields brothers, the comedy and trick bicycle riders, and Frisco and Faust in the ladder and slack wire act. All of the free shows will be given in Bayliss park.

The daily program for the free shows will be as follows:

Afternoon. 12:30-2:00—Concert by Covalt's band. 2:00-2:30—Clayton's performing dogs. 2:30-3:00—Comedy and trick bicycle riding. 3:00-3:30—Clayton's performing dogs. 3:30-4:00—Ladder and slack wire act. Frisco and Faust. Evening. 7:00-7:30—Concert by Covalt's band. 7:30-8:00—Cycle whip, Wilson Bros. 8:00-8:30—Ladder and slack wire act. Frisco and Faust. 8:30-9:00—Clayton's performing dogs. 9:00-9:30—Comedy and trick bicycle riding. Shields Bros.

The executive committee has secured a second band of fifteen pieces, which will play around the streets of the fair and furnish music during the free shows.

The German village, which promises to be a popular resort, is located on the extensive lawn at the rear of the clubhouse under two large tents. Here the hungry visitor will be enabled to satisfy the cravings of his or her appetite with all kinds of edibles and liquids, after the most approved German fashion.

All that is needed to make the carnival success for every standpoint will be favorable and this is hoped for by all.

Members of the Elks' lodge will act as ticket takers at all the shows, a fresh detail being assigned for each day. The ticket takers today will be: Main entrance, afternoon—Harry H. Hartshorn, Louis Zornshuler, Fritz Bernhardt; evening, Harry Haworth, J. W. Jacobs, C. R. Cornellus. Ferris Wheel—Afternoon, Hubert Tinley; evening, O. E. Allis. Streets of Cairo—Afternoon, V. E. Elliott, J. J. Hess; evening, T. G. Green, M. G. May. Streets of India—Afternoon, I. H. Freeman; evening, I. T. Shuway. Electric Theater—Afternoon, A. Graham; evening, J. A. Clark. Rag Time Opera—Afternoon, Palster Knox; evening, E. T. Medlar.

Elopers Brought Back.

CRESTON, Ia., Aug. 31.—(Special.)—Frank Perkins and Mrs. Dell Vandewater of Greenfield were in Creston yesterday, in charge of Sheriff C. L. Swinhart, who had captured them at Youngstown, Ill., and was taking them back to answer to the charge of elopement and adultery. Mrs. Vandewater, who is but 17 years of age, and Perkins had been lovers before their marriage to Vandewater only a few months ago, but on continued opposition of her parents the attachment was apparently broken off and she married Vandewater.

It seems, however, that she still kept up communication with Perkins, and the other day while her husband was away from home she took occasion to elope with him and left for Youngstown, Ill., where they were captured.
