

BOOST TEACHERS' SALARIES

Board Puts Them Back Practically Where They Were Last January.

SOME FORGOTTEN, OTHERS GO HIGHER

Captain Tompsett Resigns as Commandant of Cadets and Rescoe Homan is Elected to the Position.

By process of much parliamentary maneuvering at cross-purposes and discussion along lines previously covered, the Board of Education last evening arrived at the adoption of a resolution which in effect restores the salaries of the principals of nearly all of the schools and the grade teachers to their status before the sweeping reduction of last January, slightly increases those of the principals of the largest schools by making the maximum salary $150 instead of $140 per month and leaves the salaries of the superintendent, the teachers of the high schools and the special teachers as they were fixed by the latest revision of the rules.

The question of salaries came up on the report of the committee on salaries, recommending the adoption of Mr. Woods' resolution to restore all salaries to the amounts at which they were fixed before the January cut. J. J. Smith offered a substitute to this report providing for the amendment of rule 20 in such a manner as to fix the salary of the clerks in the superintendent's and secretary's offices at $50 per month and the clerk in the office of the principal of the high school at $70 per month, and the amendment of rule 137 in such a manner as to fix the salaries of the principals of one and two-room buildings at $80 per month, with an increase of $5 per month up to the eleven and twelve-room buildings, which are both fixed at $125 per month, and from that point on the increase of $5 for each additional room continues to the seventeen-room buildings, where the maximum salary of $150 is reached. The provision for the salaries of grade and kindergarten teachers was taken directly from the rules in force before the January cut, and in the substitute resolution no mention was made of the high school teachers or principal of that school or the superintendent or the special teachers. The motion to suspend the rules for the purpose of considering the substitute caused some debate as to the justice of increasing a portion of the salaries and omitting others, but finally prevailed by a vote of 10 to 3. President Barnard and Mr. Levy being absent. The substitute resolution was then adopted by the same vote.

GOVERNOR'S NIGHT AT THE DEN

Ak-Sar-Ben Receives Governor Savage and Staff Among Other Visitors.

"Governor's Night" brought to the den of Ak-Sar-Ben in addition to the governor, the following members of the staff, from out of the city: Colonel C. D. Evans, of Columbia, Mo.; Colonel C. J. Bills of Fairbury; Colonel S. M. Melick and Colonel C. W. Kreefer of Lincoln; Colonel J. H. Brown of Wakefield; Colonel C. F. Scharmann of North Platte; Colonel J. G. Martin and Colonel J. W. Watkins of South Omaha; Attorney General N. Prout; Secretary of State G. W. Marshall; A. D. Shilling of Lincoln; Dr. Kearns and H. C. Haverly of Hastings.

The chairman of the meeting announced that twenty persons are needed to complete the float and cavalry corps for the electrical pageant and that because of the short time it would be necessary to name names of volunteers early to Fred Metz, manager of that parade. He stated that the Elks had donated their club rooms as headquarters for the Deadwood visitors during the carnival, and that the Eagles had also put their rooms at the disposal of the Board of Governors for the same occasion. Addresses were made by the governor, and humorous recitations were given by Carl Ritter and Frank Dunlop. In the games Frank Ransom was pitted against F. N. Prout and the game was declared a draw. G. E. Shukert drew a plant in the final, but after the cards were dealt he threw up his hand, and the game was declared forfeited to Grant Williams. Those present from out of the city, in addition to the governor's party were:

From Nebraska—E. F. Blooded, H. A. Sanders, R. B. Coleman and P. P. Aspinwall of Millen; P. J. Austin and William Sherman of Grand Island; Frank Wilson, Edmond and George J. Bartlett of Lincoln; Ed Butler and William Matley of Andover; Henry Nelson, E. M. Collins and George W. E. Dorsey of Fremont; I. Shephard and W. V. Richardson of Grand Island; C. C. McIntyre of Hastings; H. E. Owen of Norfolk; R. E. Allen of Arnold; W. W. Watson of Indian; E. Kimball of Lincoln; George L. Platt of Beatrice; J. C. Benedict of Trenton; L. N. Buck of Napoleon; George W. Street of Bennington; H. E. Dalby of Herman; W. Hildreth of Bloomington; C. H. Lee of Bellevue; Herald Sutton of Springfield; Orin Fritchard of Meadow Grove; M. C. Miller of Seward; E. E. Jones of Minneapolis; Charles R. Fredericksen, G. E. R. Hixon, D. A. Hancock and E. F. Swinney of Kansas City; J. P. Sommerfeld of Savannah.

From Illinois—J. H. Ganser and Robert Adams of Chicago; J. Roland of Paris and George W. Kirby of Galesburg. From Iowa—K. D. Clark of Carson, George Johnson and Frank Johnson of Atlantic; H. S. Tyler of Des Moines, B. C. Brookfield of Johnston. From Pennsylvania—J. R. Rush and W. H. Rush of Easton.

From Ohio—H. H. Summers of Portsmouth and Sam Weinfield of Lima. From Colorado—J. C. Birney and W. C. Creech of Denver. From Wyoming—Josiah Cook of Basin and Arthur Crow of Encampment. From Missouri—W. H. Lichtenstein and E. B. Logan of New York. From other States—C. R. Augembaugh of Baltimore, Md.; F. Bartlett of Boston, Mass.

Not Over-Well. There is an old allegorical picture of a girl seated at a grand piano, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases.

RIVELA CONTINUES SUCCESS

Musie of Royal Italian Band Still Charms the People of Omaha.

Probably owing to other Labor day attractions the attendance at the concert last night was not quite up to the average of the last few days. The principal numbers on the program were the great "Rienzi" overture of Wagner; "Historic d'un Pierrot," by Costa arranged by Signor Rivela; and the fourth act of Verdi's "Rigoletto." The oboe music incidental to the latter number was very well received, as was also the trumpet solo by Sig. de Mitus. By an accident the programs were not printed in time for the concert and newspapers had to be used.

A special event this week will be Shriners' night, when a large attendance is looked for. Mr. Joseph Barton will sing during the week. This afternoon's program follows:

- March—Fourth Infantry.....Ascolles Overture—Belle Galathea.....Suppe Trumpet Solo—Some Day.....Wellness Selection—Florodora.....Stuart Incidental solo by Signor Palma. II. March—North Coast Limited.....Rivela Prelude—Act I, Lohengrin.....Wagner Reminiscence of Scotland.....Godfrey Solos for all instruments. A valuable adjunct to a happy meal, Cook's Imperial Extra Dry Champagne, is unexcelled in America and abroad.

PUBLIC MAY TAKE A HAND

Citizens' Meeting Held to Be Held in Interest of Settling Strike

UNION PACIFIC AND MEN STAND FIRM

Neither Admits Hardship from Strike and Both Claim Power to Endure Struggle for Longer Time.

Another report is current that public influence will be exerted in the interest of a settlement of the Union Pacific strike. Some two weeks ago a report of this kind was circulated and the Real Estate exchange went to the extent of naming a committee which, it was said, would take steps looking to an adjustment of the differences between the railroad company and its men, but nothing came of this and apparently the matter was dropped. It was suggested in some quarters that this move on the part of the Real Estate exchange was more a "feeler" than anything else, launched for the purpose of ascertaining the possibility of settling the strike by such a process. Officials of the company and strike leaders were not interviewed by any of this committee.

The report which is now current is to the effect that a citizens' committee will be called this week for the purpose of publicly discussing the strike, its effects and ways and means of its termination. The continued idleness of several hundred men of this class producing an effect which extends through various channels and whose interests indirectly drawn into the affair are said to be animating the movement for a settlement.

There is reason to believe that a settlement of this strike will not be attained without a painstaking effort, for both sides to the controversy, the strikers and the Union Pacific, evidently are as determined and uncompromising now as they were when the strike began. Nothing has been done to facilitate closer relations between the contending factions or according to their claims, weaken their positions.

WAITING TO BE LED

Under such circumstances it is scarcely possible that either of the principals will take the initiative in any movement looking to an adjustment of the differences any time soon.

The railroad company still boldly declares its ability to withstand the strike for an indefinite period, pronouncing its motive power unaffected as yet, despite persistent claims of strikers to the contrary. On the other hand, strikers assert their determination and power to endure a winter's siege if necessary and even longer than that. A leader of the strike said a few days ago that the machinists, boiler-makers and blacksmiths were able and determined to stand out for their demands for a year if need be.

But in spite of their unyielding attitudes indications are not lacking of a disposition on the part of the railroad and the strikers to follow the leadership of some outside influence in settling the strike. Or in other words evidence has been given that a desire by both parties to have the matter brought to a close, if only it could be done without compromising either of them.

With the passing of summer and the approach of winter anxiety for a settlement of the strike, in other than strike circles, is increasing. Not that it was before a control and that assignment was afterward approved by the new board and young Winship put on the regular roll. No charges were preferred, but dismissal was made on the ground of irregular appointment. Winship is also a member of the Painters' union but neither his service in the army nor his membership in organized labor was of any avail against the Mercers, who wanted jobs for their own followers.

GASOLINE FIRE IN STORE

Explosion in Fuller Pharmacy Causes Loss to Goods and Building.

Fire which originated from the explosion of gasoline in the front end of the Fuller pharmacy at Fourteenth and Douglas streets at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, burned the shelving on the east side of the building almost half the length of the store, broke out the plate glass windows on the east and front, burned the paper from the ceiling and did considerable damage to the stock.

The gasoline was in a gallon can and was under the front counter. The cause of the explosion is conjectural, it being presumed that some one dropped a match near the gas, and the vapor ignited. When this can exploded the blast spread to three smaller cans, which also exploded. In an instant the entire front of the store was a mass of flames and the building filled with smoke. The employees of the store made a hasty exit through the rear door, it being impossible to pass out the front door.

By the time the fire department arrived the flames had spread to an awning in front of the store and menaced a fruit stand owned by John Mornell on the east side of the store. Mornell and a crowd of newsboys headed off any damage in this direction by throwing oranges, apples, bananas and everything contained in his stock into the street. The department quickly extinguished the flames. The loss on the building is estimated at about $200 and that on the stock will be about the same, though the management was unable to ascertain accurately. Both losses are covered by insurance.

While the department was at this fire an alarm came in from Twenty-fifth avenue and Leavenworth street. This was the residence occupied by N. P. Paulsen, 904 South Twenty-fifth avenue. The fire originated in a clothes closet. No one was home at the time and it was supposed to have been the result of mice and matches. The loss was nominal.

LEADERS IN ROYAL ARCANUM

Supreme Regent Langfit and Supreme Secretary Robson in Omaha.

GIVEN WELCOME BY GRAND COUNCIL

Arcaunites Feel Elated Over Election of Their Supreme Regent to the Presidency of National Fraternal Congress.

James A. Langfit, supreme regent, and W. O. Robson, supreme secretary of the Royal Arcanum, enroute to their homes in the east from a meeting of the National Fraternal congress at Denver, stopped over to Omaha last night and were given the glad hand by the grand council of Nebraska, Royal Arcanum, and will go on their way today with the knowledge that the members of the order in Nebraska were glad to meet them. Mr. Langfit goes to Pittsburgh, Pa., and Mr. Robson to Boston.

The supreme officers arrived late yesterday afternoon an hour behind schedule time and were at once taken in charge by William M. Giller and Edwin R. Perfect of the grand council and entertained at dinner. In the evening a welcome was tendered them at the First Congregational church, at which Mr. Langfit and Mr. Robson delivered addresses which were listened to by a large audience of the members of the order and their friends. William M. Giller presided and in introducing the supreme regent said he was a man in whom the entire membership of the Royal Arcanum had the utmost confidence and for whom they had the kindest regards.

"Not only do the members of this lodge admire and love Mr. Langfit and have confidence in him, but the members of all fraternal organizations in America have confidence in him," said Mr. Giller. "He has just been elected president of the National Fraternal congress, which is not only a great honor to him, but to the Royal Arcanum as well. His election means that the Royal Arcanum is at the front and head of all fraternal organizations."

Langfit Speaks Briefly

Mr. Langfit made a short address, in which he assured his hearers that his election by the Fraternal congress to be its president was because he was at the head of the Royal Arcanum. He thanked the grand council of Nebraska for its royal welcome and assured those present that the reports he had heard in Pittsburg about the women of Omaha being handsome and the men homely was untrue in the last part, though true in the first. He then gave a brief history of the order, of the good it had accomplished and the progress it had made.

Mr. Robson devoted his time to a talk on the order. He told that it had among its membership the conservative business men of every community. "I see a great likeness in the appearance of members of the Royal Arcanum in every state in the union," he said, "they all have the satisfied, contented look that reads Royal Arcanum as plain as print. The organization has passed the experimental stage and is no longer on the defensive. We no longer have to answer criticisms as we did a few years ago. We have overcome more obstacles than any other organization." Mr. Robson closed with many compliments to the western members.

During the evening Mr. William Manchester and Miss Belle Thummler gave several instrumental and vocal selections. At the conclusion of the concert, those present were introduced to the visiting officers.
