

BURT WAIVES PRELIMINARY

Case of Alleged False Imprisonment Goes to District Court.

FOUR OF TEN COMPLAINTS FALL OUT

Remaining Six Promise to Stay Here for the Prosecution, Which Will Come at October Term of Court.

President Horace G. Burt of the Union Pacific appeared in Judge Berka's court yesterday with his attorney, John N. Baldwin, general counsel of the company; Edeon Rich and Charles L. Dundey, waived examination in the case against him for alleged false imprisonment of men imported by the railroad from Indianapolis to work in the local shops, gave bond for $1,000 and allowed his case to go over to the district court. This procedure was decided upon yesterday and published in The Bee.

As only six out of the ten men who filed the charges against President Burt were in court yesterday morning the other four complaints were annulled and the charges dismissed. This reduced the aggregate amount of bond. The men who appeared against Mr. Burt were: Ha Farrell, Malcolm Worthington, Ed Sargent, W. T. Shipley, James Sargent, Lewis Lord, and those who failed to appear were Lewis Gilliland, Oscar Dewitt, W. F. Kidd and Millar Burns. County Attorney Shields appeared for the state. The attorneys for President Burt submitted an urgent request that the complaining witnesses be placed under bond, but this was resisted by the county attorney, who held that it would be an imposition to compel these men, strangers, who claimed to have been lured away from their homes by false pretenses and then suffered for a long and unjust imprisonment at the hands of the Union Pacific, to give bond or, in default thereof, go to jail, which would be the logical sequence, and remain there until October, the earliest date of trial of these cases.

Rich and Dundey insist. "But these men have placed themselves in this position," insisted Mr. Rich and Mr. Dundey for the defense, "and they should be compelled to put up a small bond, at least. The charge they prefer is a serious one."

"I will not submit to any such proceedings and I don't believe the court will order it of its own volition," replied County Attorney Shields. "No, I can't order it unless the motion is made by the county attorney," interposed Judge Berka.

The parties to the prosecution interpret the action of the defense in waiving preliminary examination as a means of defeating the suit, on the supposition that the complaining witnesses will lose interest in the case or be forced for financial reasons to return to their homes before time to try the case in the district court, but they contend that this plan will not work out. The six men who appeared yesterday and their counsel in the matter express a determination to carry this case through. The men have secured work and expect to remain until the case is decided. W. W. Arnett, the Union Pacific employment agent who is said to have hired these men and who is charged jointly in the complaints with President Burt, arrived in the city yesterday with a squad of imported men from Buffalo, N. Y., and in the afternoon gave him up at the police station when he learned that the officers were looking for him with a warrant. Judge Berka admitted him to $1,000 bond and ordered him to appear in police court Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Arnett's departure from the city last week prevented him being served with the warrant for his arrest issued at the same time the Burt warrants were issued.

ILER WILL GET HIS SALARY

Mayor Moore Says He Appointed Former Police Captain Sidewalk Inspector.

Inquiry into the appointment of D. W. Iler, whose salary allowance for work as sidewalk inspector was stricken from the payroll ordinance at the meeting of the city council Tuesday evening, shows that there was nothing irregular about the manner in which he was employed. Mayor Moore explained yesterday afternoon the terms of the appointment. "Captain Iler will get his money," said the mayor, "but he will have to wait until the next payroll is passed to get it."

REAL ESTATE MEN'S MEETING

Association's Convention May Be Landed by Local Dealers.

At the meeting of the Real Estate Association yesterday the question of the convention of the Nebraska Real Estate Dealers' association was considered. On motion of F. D. Weed a committee, of which W. E. Green, in chairman, was appointed to report at the next meeting upon the prospect of holding that convention in Omaha in December. Twenty members of the state association were secured by the special committee having the honor in charge and the committee is now making a canvass of the city to prepare a real estate dealers' directory for the association year book.

A Rich Man Starving.

One of the richest men in the world is starting to die. The worry and anxiety necessary to look after his immense fortune has destroyed his digestion and the stomach cannot, therefore, properly assimilate nourishment. If your stomach is in a like condition you cannot take a better medicine than Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, because for fifty years it has been making weak stomachs strong and curing indigestion, dyspepsia, headache, constipation and biliousness. FIGHT ON CLASS OF SCALPING

Western Passenger Association Starts Crusade in Stockmen's Pass Traffic.

The Western Passenger association has started out on another crusade against scalping. This time directing its attack toward the traffic in stockmen's passes. The officials avow their determination to correct abuses in this line which they contend have reached such a limit as to seriously menace legitimate business.

This annoying industry is in Chicago, where scalpers have pitched their tents near the stock yards and catch the holders of the passes as soon as they land from the west. The practice has been for a long time for railroads to issue a certain number of passes to a stockman making a large shipment. These were to go to men employed by the stockman to care for their stock while on the road, work which could not well be done by trainmen. It is likewise an old custom for stockmen to hand these passes over to men looking for a chance to get east and who are willing to care for the stock as payment for their transportation. The passes are always, or nearly always, issued for round trips. This gives rise to the possibility of the ticket brokerage business in this class of "goods." The holder of this ticket reaches his eastern destination and has no further use for his transportation, consequently it goes at a very low figure.

It is not a foregone conclusion that the Western Passenger association will succeed in abolishing this traffic, or the conditions which make it possible, for previous efforts along the same line have been made without avail, but it is understood that a very determined fight will be made against the stockmen's ticket business.

Paul Morton's Statement.

Paul Morton, vice president of the Santa Fe, says in a report that the Pennsylvania has bought the Santa Fe. "I cannot say that the report is true nor can I say that it is not true. The Atchison is always for sale. The uniting of these two systems has been talked of for a long time, even before Mr. Gould began to make inroads into the Pennsylvania territory. If our road is to be sold, it is probable that this is a retaliatory move, if it is true. The Gould lines in the west and southwest have received a considerable amount of business from the Pennsylvania and it would be surprising if they were making some other arrangements for business beyond the Mississippi. If our road is to be acquired by another road I would not ask for any better than the Pennsylvania."

Prof. Taylor in Omaha.

Prof. F. W. Taylor, who has charge of the horticultural and agricultural buildings for the St. Louis world's fair, was a visitor at Burlington headquarters yesterday. Prof. Taylor had charge of similar interests for the Transmississippi exposition in Omaha. He says his buildings at St. Louis have been delayed owing to some legal controversy over the sites, but that other structures are being erected with great facility and everything in connection with the Louisiana Purchase exposition is being completed. Prof. Taylor was enroute to Denver.

Tramway Pay to Ride.

The Union Pacific has ceased issuing passes to trainmen traveling along its central branch and hence the Santa Fe, Rock Island and Missouri Pacific are carrying about all the tourist trainmen who have occasion to pass through Kansas west. This action on the part of the Union Pacific is said to be due to trouble which arose over the discharge of a conductor for carrying trainmen without tickets and his subsequent reinstatement at the demand of the Brotherhood.

Change in Burlington Time.

The Burlington has changed its time schedule so as to make the departing of its St. Louis and Kansas City express from Denver 3:30 instead of 3 p. m., as heretofore. This change becomes effective on Wednesday, September 10. The train, of course, does not pass through Omaha.

PLAN OF CARNIVAL GROUNDS

New Arrangement Places the Band at Douglas and Twentieth Streets.

The contract for the construction of the booths and fences at the Ak-Sar-Ben carnival grounds was let yesterday to Lee Green, contractor, on the terms of the contract union labor exclusively to be used in the work, which is to be completed in ample time for the opening of the grounds September 24.

There has been a change in the arrangement of the grounds since the plan was published a week ago. The main entrance has been brought back to its old place at Seventeenth and Douglas streets. The band will be stationed at Twentieth and Douglas streets, Douglas street from Nineteenth to Twentieth being fenced in along the sidewalk. The bandstand, which will be constructed with special reference to acoustic effects, will be built on Twentieth street. In front of this stand there will be arranged 2,000 chairs.

The Midway will occupy the space north of Douglas street between Eighteenth and Nineteenth, and entrance to these grounds will be at Eighteenth and Nineteenth streets. Before each entrance to the Midway will be stands for free attractions. The open space south of Douglas street and one-half block east of Eighteenth street has been set aside for concessions of other than Midway character. The industrial booths of local merchants and manufacturers will extend from the north side of the main entrance on Douglas street, occupying both sides of Eighteenth street north of Douglas to the main entrance of the Midway and both sides of Douglas street from Eighteenth street to Nineteenth. They will also be found on both sides of Nineteenth street south of Douglas street and on the west side of Eighteenth street, south of Douglas street.

READY FOR THE CONSTRUCTION

Work on West Wing of Federal Building Retrogrades, Says Murdock.

Superintendent of Construction Murdock of the postoffice building has returned from a vacation in the west. He says that the work on the new west side has now progressed back to the beginning, so that everything is ready to begin with the actual construction. This fact progresses on this job has been retarded, as all the iron work and the foundation work required replacing before the four-story structure now planned could be begun. It was at first intended to have but one story and the preliminary masonry and iron work for such a piece of architecture had been completed when the additional stories were secured. That meant that everything must come out, as heavier foundations and iron work were required.

HEAVY RUN OF BURGLARIES

Professional House Breakers and Other Thieves Show Unusual Activity.

NEW POLICE BOARD MAY BE RESPONSIBLE

Report that Omaha Police Department is Undergoing General Change Includes Professional Crooks to Come This Way.

A greater amount of house breaking has been done during the last week, evidently by professional burglars, than has been done in the same length of time during the last four years, and the police have been unable to secure the slightest clue as to the identity of the criminals. Chief Police Donahue believes the work is being done by professionals and is the result of the change of the police board.

"The impression is out over the country," said the chief, "that when the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners changed it meant that the entire police department would be changed. I am of the opinion that professional thieves and house breakers, believing that they would have to deal with new officers, have flocked to Omaha, thinking their work would be easy. For some months there has been a great amount of burglaries pulled off in nearly every city in the country and I am not much surprised that the work has begun here."

The burglar reports have been constantly on the increase since the new board entered upon its duties and Tuesday night was the most prolific of all.

Find Jewelry in Plenty.

At the residence of Mrs. Anna J. Hustis, 1821 Binney street, the burglars secured the most booty. Here entrance was gained by raising a window to the parlor. The house was ransacked and $40 in cash and $900 worth of jewelry stolen. It included a gold watch, three diamond rings, a pair of diamond earrings, a pearl sunburst and a silver knife.

Joseph Adams, 1803 Locust street, heard a noise in his bedroom and saw a man searching his clothing. He jumped from his bed and the burglar ran. Adams then secured a revolver and took two shots at the man as he disappeared through a window in the rear of the house.

At the residence of W. H. Gould, two doors west of Adams' street, entered and ransacked a rear window and $2.50 and a pair of gold baby pins taken. Nothing else was disturbed.

Evidently members of the gang operating in this neighborhood went to the residence of J. B. Wilkinson, 181st Locust street, entered, but secured no booty. An attempt was made to enter the home of Mrs. A. C. Powell, a block west of the residence of Mr. Wilkinson, but here the robbers were unsuccessful. Yesterday Mrs. Powell discovered that the screen over a rear window had been almost off. Several other residences in this vicinity were visited, but entrance was not gained to any of them.

Held Up on Street.

Harry Stearns, a conductor in the employ of the street railway company, was the only man reported to have been held up. Mr. Stearns was going to his home, 835 South Seventeenth street, at 1:45 hour, and when within a short distance of his residence was met by a tall man who wore a mask over his face. The man commanded Stearns to hold up his hands, at the same time displaying a revolver. Instead of complying with the demand Stearns seized and ran for his door. The burglar did not follow him. Stearns did not get a description of the man.

Several minor thefts were also reported yesterday. Mrs. Oldman, 2017 Leavenworth street, left a feather mattress and a couple of pillows on a line in her yard, and in the morning they were gone, and Mrs. Oldman does not believe they flew away. J. F. Rutherford, while at work at 3213 Leavenworth street, left his vest, in the pocket of which was a silver watch, hanging near the building. When he put it on in the afternoon the watch was gone. George L. Kerns and B. C. Cadwallender cycled a couple of bicycles from the Nebraska Cycles company, rode to the medicine show at Seventeenth and Vinton streets and other parties rode the wheels away.

High SCHOOL EXAMINATIONS Will Be Held in East Building Thursday and Friday Forenoon.

In preparation for the opening of the city schools on Monday next, examinations for admission to the high school will be held in room 101 of the east high school building Thursday and Friday, beginning at 8 a. m. All of those pupils who desire to enter the school and do not hold cards of promotion from eighth B classes of the city schools or from other schools of accepted standing, are required to take these examinations.

Such pupils as desire to enter the high school and have not heretofore registered for admission are requested by the principal to do so before Saturday noon, but those who have filled out blanks requesting admission for the first term and those from eighth B classes who are in cards for selection of course, are regarded as having registered. The pupils who do not register this week will probably be unable to enter classes for several days.

VETERANS TO TRAVEL ALONE No Parties Being Formed Here to Go to Encampments of Grand Army.

From appearances, there will be no combined effort in Omaha to send special cars to either the state reunion of the Grand Army of the Republic at Hastings or the national reunion, which takes place at Washington. The former meets next week and while a number of members from this city will attend, they will go alone or in informal parties. A large number will probably go to Washington, but as they desire to visit other places before they return they will go separately. The matter has been discussed informally at recent meetings of the various posts and this course has been practically decided upon.

CITY ATTORNEY KEEPS BUSY

Preparing for Trial of Important Suits Against City in District Court.

City Attorney Connel has in preparation for the coming term of the district court briefs in eight suits against the city. Prominent among the cases are the damage suit of Thomas Murray, who seeks to recover $15,000 for the tearing down of certain buildings; the action of the St. Paul Plow company in resistance of personal property taxes; the claim of J. A. Fitzpatrick for plumbing work in the jail and the mandamus suit of former Judge Gordon to compel the mayor to sign warrants for salary amounting to $1,600, which he alleges to be due him for a portion of the year 1901.

FORGOT WHERE HE CAME FROM

Iowa Druggist Imbibes Too Freely and Imagines Himself from Chicago.

H. H. Woolman of Tabor, Ia., experienced a lapse of memory Tuesday night, brought about by an overindulgence in the cup that cheers, that for some hours caused the police considerable trouble in getting him properly booked. Woolman was arrested for being drunk and at the station insisted that he was from Chicago. He said that he had been drinking there and did not know how he came to be in Omaha. The first intimation he had, he said, that he was not in Chicago was when he waked and found that he was on a train. As he was well dressed and appeared to be a man of means, the police thought that he had been drugged and robbed. By yesterday morning Woolman had sufficiently recovered from his spree to know that he came from Tabor, Ia., where he owns a drug store, and that he started out Tuesday night to see the town. He was discharged in police court.

WILL PUSH THE TICKET SALE

City Officials Take Action to Get Big Crowd for Ball Game.

At a joint meeting of the committee on base ball of the city council and Board of Education yesterday it was decided to offer the following gifts to stimulate the sale of tickets: To the newboy or messenger boy selling the largest number of tickets, a suit of clothes; to the high school girl, a gymnasium suit; to the teacher, a silk sunshade; to the school selling the most tickets, a fine picture; and to the individual selling the 2-ot tickets, an elegant carrying set, costing $12. It was also decided to place tickets for sale in all the downtown stores and to allow a commission of 20 per cent for selling them. Any person desiring to sell tickets on 20 per cent commission can obtain tickets of City Clerk Elbourne or of the secretary of the Board of Education.
