LOOKS VERY SNAKY FOR AWHILE

Horse with the Serpentine Name Has the Prince in the Tolls Once and Nearly Captures the Special Purse. HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 5 .- The grand day, the postponed events of Thursday besix races. The feature of the day was the special race between Prince Alert and Anaconda for a purse of $3,000, winner taking all. It was contested in three heats, Prince Alert winning the first and third heats and money. In the first heat Anaconda was headed all the way around the ring, Dickerson making a bid for the heat in the last quarter, but without avail. The second heat was a big surprise to the betting fraternity. The horses got away after scoring twice and when half way up the stretch Dickerson began driving with Anaconda and he quickly passed Prince Alert, winning by over a length. This performance won rounds of applause, Upon request of Mr. Demarest Curry was placed behind Prince Alert in Curry was placed behind Prince Alert in the third heat. Soon after the horses got away, Anaconda went to the front and maintained this position all the way around, until the stretch was reached, when Prince Alert let out a kink and came up even. Then for a time the horses traveled as if being driven as a pair. Inch by inch Prince Alert gained on his plucky rival and when the wire was reached Anaconda's nose was lapping Prince Alert's sulky. This race was one of the best of the week. Prince Alert was the favorite in the betting.

In the 2:16 pace Dandy Chimes was the favorite and took the first two heats in easy fashion. The third heat proved one of the best events of the afternoon. Miss Willamont and Schley Pointer set out to do Chimes, and they did it in great style, Schley Pointer finishing first and Dandy Chimes third. At the start of the fourth heat Chimes went to pieces and fell to the Minneapolis Sweden Play Ball to Beat rear, Schley Pointer leading clear to the wire. In the fifth beat Geers made a try for the heat in the stretch, but his horse was all out, Schley Pointer finishing first, Buckthorn second and Dandy Chimes third. The 2:19 pace was taken easily by Bedworth, Jr., in three straight heats. This feat was repeated by Major Delmar in the 2:09 event. In this latter race the winner of each heat received $325, second $100 and third $75. There were only three starters in the 2:22 trot, Wilton Boy taking the race in three straight heats. Prince Direct had a picnic in the 2:13 pace, winning all three heats with comparative case. In the final he actually ran away from the field. Results:

The skirmish team match was the most spectacular event of the meet and vias watched with interest by a large number of spectators. Each team captain disected the firing of his team, under the supervision of a range officer. The targets used were silhouette, arranged by placing a kneeling figure on the right fiank of the line of figures, followed by a standing and then a lying figure, repeating this arrangement until there were as many groups as there were competitors in the team. The figures were at equal intervals, that between the centers of any two consecutive standing were competitors in the team. The figures were at equal intervals, that between the centers of any two consecutive standing figures being three yards, adjacent figures one yard between centers. Each competitor fired fifteen shots 600 yards to 200 yards, and back, there being seven halts. The advance of each team was at quick time until a distance of about 500 yards from the targets was reached when a halt was ordered and one volley fired. For this volley the competitors took the kneeling position. For the firing the rifles were loaded from the belt and not until the halt had been ordered. The advance was then resumed, first at quick and then at double time, until a distance of about 400 yards from the targets had been reached, when a halt had to be ordered and two volleys fired, as before, the competitors for this volley taking the prone position. In a similar manner the advance was continued, three volleys being fired at alout 300 yards and three volleys at about 200 yards, the prone position. The retreat was then ordered, and conducted in the same order of advance. Each team continued on to the 600 yards firing point and assembled. The targets were next examined and the hits recorded. The aggregate value of all hits in all the figures was the score for the team. The allowance was fifteen minutes from the time a team left the 600 yards firing point until the return to that point.
