DIRECTORS NOW IN ANNUAL SESSION

Western Roads Facing Serious Problem in Matter of Transportation Vast Grain Crop-Wabash

Has Prosperous Month

The annual meeting of the directors of the Chicago Great Western was held yesterday in Chicago. More vital interests than have been considered at any meeting of the Stickney directorate in recent years, it is said, came before this meeting. Matters of future policy were to be acted upon and in this connection it was reported that President Stickney's oft-reported purpose of selling the road may come in for The strike of the 200 machinists on the serious consideration. It is no unpopular belief among railroad men that, despite the somewhat aggressive extension policy on which the Great Western has recently launched, its sagacious executive still has his eye upon a prospective purchaser, and It is held in some quarters that the building of the Fort Dodge & Omaha extension is really a part of the plan to place the road on the market to be sold to the highest bidder. The recent precipitation of freight rates on packing products, which created a real sensation in the transportation world of the west, is pointed to as

A day or two ago, just in time to give free and unrestricted circulation to the story before the meeting was held, it was given cut that the annual report to be presented by President Stickney to this meeting of the directors would show a most flattering condition of affairs. It was said this report would show that the road had enjoyed a year of most remarkable success, which gave it an excellent chance for the new year. Notwithstanding this statement, however, the earnings for the month of August of the Great Western show a decrease of $56,595 in gross and $62,882 in the net income as compared with the corresponding month last year.

All the western roads, especially the

"For some time the roads have been preparing for this increased traffic," he said. 'All the extra cars and engines and other facilities that can be mustered into service have been placed where they can be drafted when the time comes and it is doubtful if all the roads have as yet proven their ability to command all the cars necessary but I believe this will be done in time and that no actual dearth of cars will be experienced or at least no dearth serious

General Manager Cooper of the Northern Pacific admits that the master mechanic discharged this man, but in a lengthy reveal the anxiety of the strikers to have telegram to Vice President Wilson of the machinists, whose jurisdiction extends to that system, says that the chairman of the shop committee for the machinists was

Wilson has wired twice within the last forty-eight hours to the machinists ordering them back to work, and both commands have been disobeyed. The strikers declare they will not return to work until are at work for a settlement of the strike their man is reinstated. Admitting that the machinists are in the wrong, Wilson telegraphed the third time last night for them to return to work, and unless this Strikers are jubilant over the reports order is complied with by this morning he will make a trip to Livingston to give the matter personal attention.

SCHOOLS MAY BE CROWDED Only One Additional Room Added to

Accommodations During

Vacation Time.

When the public schools open Monday morning next it will be with practically the same accommodations as last year. There has been one room added to the Saratoga school during the vacation, giving wages lost in coming to Omaha to accept from forty to fifty pupils, which was badly needed, and it may be found necessary to provide additional room cutside for some

The aggregate enrollment of the schools last year was nearly 20,000 and it is but reasonable to presume that there will be more or less of an increase this year. Last tion as far back as Chicago, which they year none of the buildings had any surplus room and a number of them were even overcrowded. Such was the case at the Kellom and Long schools, and the Park Monmouth Park building was crowded at all times throughout the year and so were the Central and Leavenworth.
