Regulars and Guardsmen Join in Solution of Military Problems.

GREAT SECRECY SURROUNDS MOVEMENTS

Every Phase of the Life of the Soldier in Active Warfare Will Be Reproduced at the Maneavers.

From Fort Crook and Fort Leavenworth troops are moving upon Fort Riley, and by September 20 they will have arrived and pitched their tents upon the military reservation in readiness for the first massed maneuver of troops in the Department of the Missouri. It is expected that in some form or other this problem will be presented, as for the first time in the history of the army maneuvers there will be present a pontoon bridge train. This train carries with it everything necessary for the construction of a bridge of sufficient size and strength to move a brigade, and it will, it is believed, be certain of an opportunity to display its skill and learn something of bridge building under fire. The defense of the ford or crossing will be entrusted to another detachment of troops, and the action of these opposing forces will be left to the discretion of the commanders.

Each branch of the service present will be given drills in work of its particular line. # DON'T GET IN A SWEAT

Perspiration-"sweat" is what the Bible and we common people call it-is a way nature has of driving out of the body refuse that has no business there. We sweat more in summer, because, in the overheated bowels, undigested food ferments more quickly than in winter and produces irritating acids and gases. The bowels, overworked, try to relieve themselves by violent convulsions, causing terrible gripes and colics, and diarrhoeal discharges so acid as to make you sore, and leaving the intestines weak and worn out. Nature assists body-cleaning by sending the filth out through the pores of the skin. It is not safe to stop perspiring altogether but most of the impure matter should be sent out by natural movements of the bowels, and the offensive, ill-smelling, linen-staining sweat done away with. Keep your bowels strong all summer with the pleasant, candy cathartic CASCARETS, that clean the system and don't allow the excrement to be sweated out through the pores. Take a tablet every night, before going to bed.
