The flooring of the Q street viaduct is in bad shape again. This bridge is now in charge of the railroad companies, which

use the crossing under it, and the city council will be called upon soon to request

the Union Stock Yards company and the SHAMROCK TO BE A CUTTER Sir Thomas Lipton Denies that the New Challenger Will Be a Schooner.

LONDON, Sept. 2.—The idea mooted in New York that Shamrock III will be a schooner is denied. It will be a schooner is denied. It will be a schooner is denied. It will be a steel cutter similar to the former racers in type and appearance. Sir Thomas Lipton takes exception to the suggestion that he compels American designers to continue the production of freak boats. He admits that there is considerable of the freak in a racer for the America's cup, but contains that there is considerable of the freak in a racer for the America's cup, but contains that this is entirely due to the conditions imposed by the rules governing cup contests. Sir Thomas says Messrs. File and Watson would be glad to have the chance of turning out a rational boat, but under the present conditions it would have no chance. Sir Thomas Lipton, accompanied by Captain Wringe and Mr. Fife, the yacht designer, visited the Denny's yard at Dumbarton, Scotland, this afterneon and had a long interview with the heads of the firm, fixing the details regarding the building of Shamrock III. A long time was spent in the shed under which the last cup challenger was built and which is carefully guarded from nutsiders. Work is now progressing therein and it was apparently very interesting to the Lipton party. Sir Thomas and his companions went to Greenock also and inspected the work being done on Shamrock I, with the view of keeping it in readiness for use as a trial horse. and inspected the work being done on Shamrock I, with the view of keeping it in readiness for use as a trial horse.

BOSTON, Sept. 2.—The Herald will say tomorrow that in view of the fact that a challenge for the America's cup for next year is practically assured and a challenger is to be built by Sir Thomas Lipton on the other side, there is a movement on foot for a Boston cup defender to be designed by W. Sterling Burgess.

A number of prominent yachtsmen have interested themselves and it looks as if enough money would be forthcoming to place a Eurgezs boat in the field against the creation of the Herrschoffs or other designer. All of young Burgess' boats have been fast this season and show an advantage over his older boats and cracks of last year. He has already made the plans of a ninety-footer to be built for cup defense.

Move Your Office.

While there are only about ten vacant rooms in the whole Bee Building. there are among them, some of the very choicest offices in the building and also some, which, while not so desirable, can be rented at a very low price.

The rental price you must remember, includes light, water, beat and janitor service as well as immunity from fire insurance because the building is absolutely fire-proof.
