

THEY WEAR GOLD MEDALS NOW

Members of Transmississippi Exposition Executive Board Decorated.

GIFTS ARE FROM BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Presentation is Made After a Dinner in Committee's Honor at the Millard Hotel, with Seven Members Present.

The last act in the drama of the Transmississippi exposition occurred yesterday afternoon at the Millard hotel, when, at a dinner in their honor, the members of the executive committee were presented with the handsome gold medals voted by the Board of Directors last June.

"Gloria actones cruxi" was the motto inscribed on the medals, and speeches which preceded the presentation all rang with the same theme, "Gloria has crowned your conduct."

The directors who were responsible for the medals were represented by the committee appointed by them to carry out the plan. These were G. M. Hitchcock, John C. Wharton and J. A. Wakefield, secretary of the Board of Directors.

Mr. Wharton then presented the medals, pronouncing this act with a speech in which he heartily seconded the plaudits and the praise of Mr. Hitchcock. He thought the occasion a particularly happy dissolution of a great enterprise, as the ending was a success.

THOSE HONORED.

Those who received medals were: G. W. Wattles, president; Z. T. Lindsey, chairman of the executive committee; Edward Rosewater, manager of the bureau of publicity and promotion; F. P. Kirkendall, manager of buildings and grounds; E. E. Bruce, manager of exhibits; A. L. Reed, manager of concessions and privileges; W. N. Babcock, manager of transportation.

The medals bore on the front face a statue of winged Victory, with a horseshoe and a scroll on which was the Latin inscription. At the top of the scroll was the word "Omaha," below "The Transmississippi Exposition."

On the reverse side of all seven medals is inscribed "Unanimously voted by the board of directors in appreciation of the honesty and self-sacrifice of your services to the exposition." Each medal is pendant from a ribbon bearing the name of the recipient and his title.

EFFECT OF GOOD ADVERTISING

Christian Church Convention Committee is Reaping Good Results from Its Work.

The effect of the advertising done by the general committee of the Christian church convention is being felt in all parts of the country. The national secretaries of the different boards who visited the city after the Minneapolis convention and learned that the auditorium would not be completed in time for the convention were then only half satisfied with the local situation, but since then they have changed their minds.

The committee is now preparing to increase its working capital by a plan adopted in other cities for the same purpose. A certificate setting forth the fact that the holder has paid $1 to the convention expenses has been prepared and will be issued upon the receipt of that amount of money.

The official badges have been approved by the executive committee. Each member of the committee will wear a white linen cap with patent leather visor and black rim around which in red lettering will appear the words "Christian Church Convention."

Each delegate and committeeman will be given an official button bearing the convention design, "The Gate City," while hanging from the button will be a ribbon properly designating the wearer.

Judge Sibaugh and C. S. Paine left last evening for Topeka. On their way to the Kansas state convention of the church they will stop at Kansas City and confer with leaders of the church in that place as to what it will do toward sending a delegation to the convention.

TO ATTEND PRISON CONGRESS

Sheriff and Mrs. John Power Start for National Convention at Philadelphia.

Sheriff and Mrs. John Power left last night to attend the national prison congress in Philadelphia, to which they are delegates appointed by the governor. The congress will be in session September 13-17, but Mr. and Mrs. Power will be absent about three weeks, as they intend to visit Washington and adjacent eastern cities.

ASTHMA CAN BE CURED

The statement of Mr. J. P. Homan, 20 E. Adams St., Chicago, proves that the worst cases of Asthma in the world are not only relieved, but are readily cured by Dr. Schiffmann's Asthma Cure. He says: "Asthma kept me in terrible misery for ten years until I used your Asthma Cure. After the first trial I was a changed man. I went to sleep that night and awoke next day much relieved and I have gotten entirely over the Asthma. It is now nine years since I was cured."

Sold by all druggists at 50c and $1.00. Send 25c stamp to Dr. R. Schiffmann, Box 204 St. Paul, Minn., for a free trial package.

ANOTHER EARLY SETTLER GONE

Philo Rumsey, One of Omaha's Oldest Citizens, Dies at Age of Ninety-One.

Philo Rumsey, who was one of the early residents of Omaha and had reached the age of 91 years, died Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock at his home, 2104 California street, from erysipelas. Mr. Rumsey had been ill only three days, and prior to that time had been physically vigorous and in full possession of his mental faculties, in spite of his advanced age.

There survive him beside his wife, who is now 81 years of age, two children, James Rumsey, of this city, and Mrs. William Loring of Boston. An elder son, Henry B. Rumsey, lieutenant commander in the United States navy, lost his life in the Richmond hotel fire at Buffalo in 1887 while trying to save the life of a child.

Philo Rumsey was born in Rutland, Vt., March 17, 1811, and was a descendant of one of the Pilgrim families. His father died during his infancy, and at that time his mother removed to Fiqua, O. At the age of 19 Philo removed to St. Louis, where he learned the trade of a tailor, and three years later he went to Fort Wayne. He was married in 1838 to Rebecca Rockhill.

Mr. Rumsey first came to Omaha in 1858 and became proprietor of the Cozema hotel at the corner of Ninth and Harney streets. Mr. Rumsey removed to Santa Fe, N. M., in 1881, and opened the Palace hotel, but twelve years later returned to Omaha to make his permanent home here.

The remains were taken to Fort Wayne last evening in charge of Mrs. Loring and James Rumsey.

OSTRANDER CASE IS MIXED

Brother and Sisters of Deceased Now Make Appearance in County Court.

Another fruitless effort was made in county court yesterday to adjust the affairs of the late W. B. Ostrander in a way that should be satisfactory to the various persons claiming interest in the estate. The court was ready to give the matter a hearing and it was intimated that the attorney for Minnie Abshire, who claimed to have been Mr. Ostrander's common law wife at the time of his death, and the attorney for his son, W. E. Ostrander, had arranged a satisfactory compromise, but before the terms were made known the attorney for the deceased's brother, Stewart Ostrander of Cedar Rapids, Ia., and sisters, Mrs. D. J. Cummings of the same city, and Mrs. S. W. Reese of Westfield, N. J., entered objection to any arrangement that contemplated the appointment of the son as administrator of the estate and hinted also of attacking the legitimacy of both the wife's relation and the son's. The attorney for the widow urged that of the $20,000 estate the Fifteenth street saloon is a very important part and that each day it is allowed to remain closed is a loss in revenue. Finally the court put the hearing over until 2 o'clock Thursday and in the meantime the attorney for the absent brother and sisters is to communicate with their attorneys at Cedar Rapids and ascertain what stand they desire to take.

HIS STAR SHINES NO MORE

Hogans Detective Falls in His Game and Then Goes to Jail.

F. Matschuk, a member of the National Detective agency, began yesterday on a thirty day sentence in the city jail because his star did not give him sufficient authority to do various things he did. Matschuk was ambitious to be a detective and to gratify that desire purchased a membership in the National agency. As soon as his star arrived he pinned it on his vest and hid forth. After being seen in various parts of the city wearing the star, he finally settled on Howard street, near Thirteenth, for his particular beat.

He accosted Mamie Corrigan, 424 South Thirteenth street, and immediately placed her under arrest. He offered to release her for a consideration. When she refused the two had a fight, in which the clothes of the woman were almost torn off her. He then allowed her to go. He then pretended to arrest several other women and attempted to secure money from them. He was finally lodged in jail.

STORIES OF CORN ARE RIPE

One of the First of the Season is Plucked by Platts-month Man.

Order Clerk Murphy of the adjacent general's department, headquarters of the Department of the Missouri, tells a good corn story. He said he:

"When I reached my home at Platts-month last evening I went for a drive into the country and stopped at several places to examine the condition of the corn. It was something wonderful. In one field I saw that my eyes walked ten feet and grabbed at random for a corn stalk. I cut this, and it was fourteen feet and a half long from the ground up, while on it were three well developed ears of corn."

DIED.

BAKER—Washington Irving, September 9, 1902, aged 90 years. Burial services at the home, 318 North Seventeenth street, Thursday, September 11, at 2 p. m. Interment in Prospect Hill cemetery.

TELLS OF TORRENS SYSTEM

H. H. Hanks of Nebraska City Explains Its Features to Real Estate Men.

H. H. Hanks of Nebraska City spoke at the meeting of the Real Estate exchange yesterday, his subject being the "Torrens System of Land Transfers." Mr. Hanks is a member of the legislature and at the last session took considerable interest in a bill introduced for the purpose of applying the Torrens system to Nebraska. As a result of the introduction of the bill a commission was appointed to investigate the matter and report.

This report has been filed. Two of the members of the commission, which was appointed by the supreme court, favor the system and the third opposes it. Mr. Hanks desires to have someone cause the report of the commission to be circulated, as he is an active champion of the system and believes that investigation will result in the adoption of the plan in this state.

A committee consisting of W. B. Urd, H. F. Dalley, G. S. Benawa, F. H. Broadwell and G. G. Wallace was appointed to prepare for the entertainment of the members of the Nebraska Real Estate Dealers' association, which will hold its convention in this city December 17, 18 and 19.

The committee appointed to solicit funds to make necessary improvements in the Coliseum for the Christian church convention reported that it has been preparing plans for work, but had so far accomplished nothing.

The tax committee was instructed to file a written report of its work with the secretary by the next meeting, together with any recommendations the members of that committee may desire to make in regard to the cash on hand. BURGLARS WORK DOWN TOWN

They Enter Two Stores in the Very Center of Business District.

One of the boldest of the many recent burglaries pulled off during the last two weeks occurred Tuesday night at the tailor shop of James A. Rylen, 320 South Fifteenth street. Ten pants patterns, five suit patterns, a made-up suit and an overcoat, all valued at $200, were secured by the robbers, and the thieves have no clue to the perpetrators. The burglars broke a hole in the glass of the front door, reached through and unfastened the lock. They then entered the place, picked out the best of the goods, and made their escape.

The shoe store of A. W. Bowman, 417 North Sixteenth street, was entered during the night and three pairs of shoes, valued at $11.50, were stolen. Entrance was gained here by forcing the lock of a rear window.

J. Sunderland reported to the police that some one stole a wagon and pillow from in front of his blacksmith shop at Twentieth and Hickory streets.

CHRONIC DIARRHOEA

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"My father had for years been troubled with chronic diarrhoea and tried every means possible to effect a cure, but all to no avail," says John H. Zirkle of Philippi, Va. "He saw Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy advertised in the Republican and decided to try it. The result is one bottle of it cured him and he has not suffered with this disease for over eighteen months. Before taking this remedy he was a constant sufferer. He is now sound and well and, although 60 years of age, can do as much work as a young man. These facts and the facts that are now before you if you desire." Mr. Zirkle and his brother publish the Philippi Republican.

NOTICE TO DEPOSITORS.

As it was not generally understood that deposits made on or before the 10th of the month would draw interest for the entire month, it has been decided to extend the time to and including Monday, September 15, for this month only.
