Mr. Cornish deprecated the idea of buying the colored man's favor with tips and debasing gratuities in a campaign, but asserted that the only real friend was the constant friend. He read extracts from speeches made to various white audiences years before he became a candidate for office in which he had made constant plea in the negro's behalf. He said:

"I want no privileges of government that are not the privileges of all. I have been saying this for eighteen years and I feel that I am entitled to your support." Mr. Breen, next called upon, said that he had supported Mr. Mercer in previous campaigns with donations of money and with his voice when asked to, but that in return Mr. Mercer was now sending over the county contemptible cartoons showing his congressional figure off to the best advantage and picturing him (Breen) and other candidates as little curs barking at his heels.

Omnibus Line Proposed.

It is understood that the Burlington offito operate between the central portion of streets last night as they were stealing the city and the depot at Thirty-sixth and away from the scene of their house-break streets. This line has been contemplated for some time, but it looks now as Douglas street. One of the pair cacaped if something would be done, as bids have at the patrol box at Fourteenth and Dougbeen asked for. There is considerable las, but the other, giving his name as Charles Cavanaugh of Sioux Falls, S. Some of the city councilmen are diffident about granting the concessions desired by the railroads and the railroad officials are just as diffident, so it was given out yesterday that there would be no viaduct this year.

Hyannis Carnival.

Yesterday H. Cline of Hyannis was a visitor in the city. He said that all preparations had been made for a big time at Hyannis during the cowboy carnival. Mr. Cline said: "There will be roping, racing, shooting and other amusements. We expect a big crowd." In addition to the sports there will be a reproduction of the holdup of the Deadwood stage coach made famous by Buffalo Bill.

Now does any sensible man think that $2.75 per acre for farms in Mirage or Hayes townships represents onefourth, one-sixth or one-tenth even of the value of almost any farm in either of those townships? Is there a farmer in either of them or in any other township in the county who will come in and say that he hasn't been assessed high enough? Would any farmer in the county sell his farm for four, six or ten times per acre what it has been assessed for?

"The railroad assessment per mile has been fixed at $4,679. Now as compared with the assessment of farm lands in Kearney county, and of personal property too, isn't the thing about as near equitable as you could get it under the present laws? You couldn't buy the Bee property nor the railroad property, nor the property of the people of Kearney county at four, eix or ten times the assessed valuation of it, and all this stir of the Omaha Bee is simply a piece of buncombe on the part of Mr. Rosewater to pose before the people as their champion, when, as a matter of fact, it is simply done to further the political interests of the same Rosewater. There is absolutely nothing in it further than the cold-blooded, selfish ambition of the man, and the motive is so plain that the duliest man outside of an asylum for the weak minded ought to see and understand It."
