WILL APPEAR BEFORE THE GRAND JURY

Murrell Talks of His Flight and Says that the Gang Went Back on Him and Retused to Send Money.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 11 .- William Tamblyn, former member of the house of delegates. of bribery in connection with the passage of the city lighting bill in 1899, was brought ganization and discipline." back today from Cieveland, where he had been for two years.

He is one of the members of the alleged combine that J. K. Murrell laid bare in his confession to the grand jury after his return from Mexico. Tamblyn, in the custedy of Detective Williams, was taken to jail, pending an attempt to accure bail.

Before being placed in a cell l'amblyn asked to see Mr. Folk. His intention was to tell all he knew about the doing of the combine in the house of delegates; but he finally decided not to say anything at this time, for the circuit attorney told Tamblyn that if he desired to make any statements about matters that were being investigated he must do so voluntarily, without hope of clemency. Mr. Folk said that he had all age." the evidence needed to convict the members of the house combine.

No Confessions Needed Now.

In the talk with the Associated Press Circuit Attorney Folk said that almost every one of the indicted members of the RIDE WITH KAISER'S TROOPS house of delegates combine had offered to turn state's evidence, but he declined to accept more than two or three with a promise of clemency. Before J. K. Murrell's return and confession the members of the combine, Mr. Folk said, were so sure of their positions that offers of the authorities to take care of informers were spurned. Now the situation is different.

More Indictments Expected.

All day long rumors were rife that indictments would shortly be found against members of the council combine, but the grand jury adjourned until tomorrow without taking any such action. There was a flurry of excitement when the grand jury adjourned for lunch and four of the members of the city council were detained. It looked to every one as if they were to be held as prisoners, but their detention was explained when adjournment was taken for the night and they were released.

The district attorney stated their detention was merely for the purpose of having them at hand for the opening of the after- and the guns. Several horses fell deadnoon session of the grand jury. Mr. Folk said the grand jury would continue the investigation into the lighting scandal for several days to come.

The following members of the council that passed the measures in question were summoned to testify before the grand jury: F Charles E. Carroll, Henry Gauss, ir., Paulus Gast, Charles T. Thuner, Charles Wiggins, W. R. Hodges, August Hoffman, F. E. Meysenberg, Eben Richards and Louis

Schneil. Charles Kratz, a member of that body, is supposed to be in Mexico, where he fled after being indicted on the charge of bribery in connection with the Suburban Street railway legislation. It has been reported that Kratz had been seen in the city during the last day or two, but this could not be verified.

Robert E. McMath, former president of the Board of Public Improvements, has also been summoned to appear before the body and disclose such facts concerning the transactions as he has in his possession and which, it is claimed, will be of material benefit to the inquisitors in fastening the crime of boodling upon certain members of the combine.

Mr. McMath has already made some Kratz was a member of the combine at the time the bill was passed, October 27, 1899. The vote on the bill was as follows: Ayes, Carroll, Gast, Gauss, Hodges, Horton, Kratz, Thuner, Wiggins and President Meyer, mediation of the Dutch premier, Dr. Kuynays, Hoffman, Meysenberg and Schoell; absent, Richards.

Basis of Capitalization. According to this expert the new concern is to be capitalized at the rate of twentyfive times the last year's carnings of the constituent companies. For example, the Cudahy Packing company is said to have carned about $820,000 in 1901, which would make its share of the capital stock of the merger $21,000,000.
