OMAHA WINS DOUBLE-HEADER

Rourke's Rangers Settle Saints' First Divisies Aspirations Effectively.

GOOD BALL PLAYING IN ALL DEPARTMENTS

Batting, Base Running and Fielding of the Home Team Proves the Highest of the Art and Wins Both Games.

Four thousand fans evinced visible relief DES MOINES, Sept. 13.—Kansas City and a certain exhilaration when Omaha won both games of the double-header with St.—Moines today, batting out an easy victory.

Attendance, 700. Score: Joseph Saturday afternoon. The crowd was on a strain, for the people realized that Hansas City ... 2 3 0 1 2 0 0 0 1 -9 10 1 Des Moines ... 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 -1 10 further defeats just now meant that the further defeats just now meant that the Batteries: Kansas City, Weimer and Rangers were surely on the toboggan. But Wilson; Des Moines, Willis, Feeney and their confidence was not further shakes. By their confidence was not further shaken. By playing base ball that was just enough su-diamond for both clubs was on his toes. All were fielding brilliantly and with speed, and Milwaukee were fielding brilliantly and with speed, and there was not a loafer in sight. Each gave three bases on balls and made one wild pitch. The hits were eleven off Alloway and twelve off Chinn. The Saint struck out five men, signed the fact the locals stole bases so recklessly. Hits were bunched on both pitchers, probably a little heavier on China so with the state of th so, with six stolen bases to their credit, the Omahans made hits good for runs all the

Another cause for the discrepancey in the score was that Chinn bunched his bases on balls in the second, passing Stewart and Dolan to first. With the two on bases Thomas singled himself to first and filled the bags. and then Gonding brought in all three with a three-sacker to middle field fence, the grand hit of the day. He scored later on Genins' single.

First Game's Score.

St. Joseph scored with a base on balls, a wild pitch, a single and a double in the second, and took two more in the eighth on a double and two singles. The score:

Foreman Pitches Nicely. Foreman Pitches Nicely.

'Monk" Foreman made his debut with the Rangers in the second game, and in all save one inning he more than made good. That was the fifth, when two three-baggers and a single netted St. Joseph two runs. Omaha had only one, and it seemed from the close way both teams were playing that the extra tally might win the game for the visitors. After that "Monk" was water tight and along in the sixth Glade gave the chance to beat that pair. With two men out Stone singled and then Glade hit Dolan and Stewart in With the bases full Thomas came up and responded in grand style with a long single to left, scoring Stone and Dolan.

No more tallies were necessary, as all the visitors could do with "Monk" was two scattered singles in the next four innings after that fifth. The locals had scored one in the third by Wright batting in Carter, who took first on a gift, with a two-bagger. Features of the second game were the brilliant fielding of Omaha's diamond guardsmen. Two double plays were model specimens, one ending the game. In the first affair Roth accomplished four hits, two of them doubles, out of four times at bat. Then Stone's catch of Hall's fly against left field fence in the sixth was truly remark-

Today comes another double-header, the first game beginning at 2:30. Owen and Brown perform in the box for Omaha: Parvin and Maupin for the Saints. The score: Score second game: OMAHA.

Fans.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 13.—St. Louis' pennent aspirations were dashed today, when Cieveland took two games. Powell was hit hard in the first game, while Bernhard was a puzzle. The second was a remarkable pitcher's battle between Sudhoff and Joss and went ten innings. St. Louis scored in the first inning on a base on balls and Bradley's wild throw. Wallace's errors gave Cleveland its first run in the fourth and in the tenth Hickman hit over the fence for a home run. Then followed the greatest demonstration ever witnessed at the local ball park, Hickman being surrounded by a cheering crowd of 3,000 and carried off the field. Joss held St. Louis down to one hit for nine innings. Sudhoff getting a scratch single in the tenth. Of Cleveland's four hits off Sudhoff, two were scratches. Attendance, 6,252. Score, first game:

LAST GAME AN EXCITING CONTEST The Loser Flubs His Drive and is Hopslessly Bunkered at the Twenty-Fourth

CHICAGO, Sept. 13 .- H. Chandler Egan of the Exmoor Country club, won the title of amateur golf champion of the Western Golf association today on the Chicago Golf club line, by defeating his cousin, Walter E. Egan of Lake Geneva; one up in three holes. Never since the championship was instituted by the association four years ago have the finals been marked by such brilliant golf as was seen today.

Chandler Egan had won the gold medal from a big field of starters in the qualifying round with a record-breaking total of 163 strokes for the most difficult golf course in the United States and was picked as a likely winner from his cousin, who is three years older than the Exmoor boy. But Walter fought every foot of the contest with Chandler bringing matters all square at the thirty-sixth hole mark, with a irresistable desire to play an iron shot safe from the bunker guarding the first green (thirty-seventh hole) instead of trusting to a brassey that would carry to the green and the resulting bad lie in the mud in the north corner of the bunker, spoiled Walter Egan's last chance to take the match from Chandler, and for the second time in the western championship Walter had to be content with the runner up trophy.

Three Medals Already.

As he was runner up last year in the National gold championship he now possesses three eilver medals emblematic of his trip of galant contests. Walter enloyed the distinction of being up on his cousin but once during the long match, the ninth and tenth holes. Eight times was Walter two down, and twice during the day was he three holes to the bad.

At the conclusion of the morning play he was two up. Slicing on account of a cold northwest wind that swept the course was the chief feature of the morning mistakes made by the rivals. For the first nine holes in the afternoon play wretched golf was exhibited by both players in the long game on the greens Chandler had to give up the twenty-second hole after flubbing his drive to the bunker and sending his ball deep into a gopher hole in a desperate stroke to get out.

Hopelessly Bunkered.

Hopelessly bunkered at the twenty-fourth hole he also gave up that hole. His cousin failed to take advantage of the poor stroke of playing. This partly accounts for Chandof playing. This partly accounts for Chandler's failure to gain a decided advantage at the turn for the last quarter of the race. The cards follow:

Most important of the exhibitions scheduled will doubtless be the two games just arranged for October 18 and 19 here between the picked teams from the American and National leagues. Most interesting among the games in which the Omaha team will participate is the series arranged with the Indianapolis team of the American association. This will be five games, commencing immediately at the close of the season. The first game will be on September 28.
Omaha's recent closing experience with the Kansas City Western league team was not satisfying to local fans, as the visitors took two games of the three it will gladden everyone to learn, therefore, that the Cowboys are coming to Omaha for four more games, beginring October 2.
Another important series is not yet framed up absolutely, that with the Chicago National league team. This may yet the sarranged, as negotiations are now pending. The team also contemplates a little trip to Sloux City, but that is not assured.

won 6-4, 6-2. The first set was warmly fought and locked like Vantamp's for a time.

With very little rest Caldwell met Pollard in the final round, Pollard at scratch, Caldwell owing 3-6 of 15. This made him owe Pollard 15, or one point, each alternate game. The match proved an exciting one for a time. Both men were in fine form and settled down to tast tennis from the start. The first set quickly ran to 4-2 in Pollard's favor. Then Caldwell took a brace and by a commendable rally pulled out the set 6-4, taking four straight games.

Pollard's tarted out fiercely to take the second set and won it all the way, the scond set and won it all the way, the socre being 6-2. He seemed invincible, but the sweeping victory cost him his endurance. The next set found him tired and Caldwell took it as he pleased, 6-1. The same score prevailed in the final set, giving Caldwell his necessary three out of five to win the final round.

First prize is a tennis racquet and case of high grade. Pollard gets a heavy sweater in the Field club colors. The tennismen at the club are highly pleased with the success experienced in this, their last tourney for 1902. Not a single default was registered in the five days' play.
