THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1902.

ALL TOWNS GETTING READY Nebraska Makes Big Plans for the Reception of President Reosevelt. VARIOUS MAYORS ACT AS CHAIRMEN Details of Arrangements Must Be Forwarded by Next Week to Secretary Cortelyou at City of Washington. President Roosevelt's trip through Nebranka which are received by Senator Millard show that the local committees are beginning to prepare for the reception to the chief executive of the country. 10c 1b. At Hastings the arrangements are under the personal supervision of Senator Dietrich. At Lincoln Congressman Burkett has charge of the local arrangements, so that reports from these towns have not yet been received.

Secretary Cortelyou writes Senator Millard saying that all programs prepared by local committees must be in his hands before the party starts on its western trip, so that a complete schedule can be arranged. It is therefore expected that the details for the receptions at Hastings and Lincoln will be sent to Omaha and Washington the first of next week.

Senator Millard requested the mayor of each city where the train would stop to act as the chairman of the local committee, which request has been complied with. From Kearney Mayor William H. Roe writes that the local committee will consist of K. O. Holmes, postmaster; Norris Brown, assistant attorney general, and J. F. Crocker,

The program has been arranged at this The committee will meet the train at the Union Pacific depot with carriages and the party will be taken to an improvised platform, where Mr. Brown will deliver an address of welcome to be limited to two minutes. It is expected that the president will respond and the party will then return to the train. Preparations have been made to have the streets through which the party will drive decorated and the local company of the state guard will

writes that his reception committee consists of Charles F. Bentley, Judge T. O. C. Harrison and Charles G. Ryan. A meeting was held yesterday to determine upon a program for the reception and as soon as completed an outline will be sant the senator to be transmitted to Secretary Cortelyou

At Fremont Mayor Wellace Wilson has selected as the members of the local committee R. B. Schneider, member of the republican national committee. George L. Loomis and D. L. Richards.

Its elegance from an expert planist's standpoint leaves no room for criticism. Its tonal effects are electifying, its durability unquestioned, combined with its beautiful case designs places it the peer of pianos. These instruments of today will outlive the century.
