LAST ONE GOES TO SAINTS McKibben Winds Up His Season in Omaha with a Victory.

INFIELD ERRORS ACCOUNT FOR THE RUNS Both Teams Offend Against the Traditions of Good Base Ball by Erratic Work at Critical

Moments

A thousand people gathered at Vinton street park yesterday to see Omaha take the last game of the series from St. Joseph but it wasn't done. Instead, Dolan's error in the seventh let in two runs that tied the score, and a little tired feeling on the part of Thomas in the eighth permitted the visitors to win by 5 to 4. Let it be said in was none of Alloway's fault, for he pitched well enough to win

The game was all Omaha's till that seventh, despite the fact that the boys were playing distinctly "day after" ball. Every run the Saints made but one was secured through luscious local infield errors, bu McKibben's men were also dopey and let Omaha have two the very same way. Then Stewart and his band proved agile enough with the stick to earn a couple more, and that should have meant an easy victory.

The Saints started the scoring by taking one in the second, Rohe pushing the bal to Genine, who threw it somewhere out it right field, allowing Rohe to go to third. Hall's single scored him. Omaha came right back with two in the same inning Dolan singled, Stewart took first an Maher' error, and Gonding's double did the rest In the fourth the Rangers did it again Gonding going clear around the bags on t little infield slam, Brashear and Hall mak ing divers errors in an attempt to stop Johnny at different corners of the diamond In the fifth the Saints waked up and Chinn tripled, scoring immediately afterwards on passed ball. The locals offset that score ' in their half by landing Wright, who had taken his base on fielder's choice, and who tallied on Stone's three-bagger. So th score was 4 to 2, and there didn't seem to be a show for the strangers.

Some Sickly Base Ball.

The seventh and eighth upturned everything. Maher started the seventh with a double, and Chinn took first on Wright's OFFOT. Reynolds went out, and Brashcar hit easy to Dolan, but the shortstop failed to connect, and the two on bases scored. In the eighth Rohe singled. Garvin sacrificed him, to second, and Hall singled to shallow middle. It was a sharp hit ball, and Thomas had it before Rohe was well away from third. But after some study Tommy concluded it was too much of an effort to throw home, so held the ball, Rohe tallying. All in all, the bright feature of the play was the work of Garvin at catch. He was a busy star all the afternoon, capturing potable fouls. Hall and Reynolds also did one job of fast fielding each in the third. It was ladies' day, and the generous cor-diality of the sex was well illustrated in the grandstand. Two women from St. Joseph were there clapping their defenders' successes. Every time they started to cheer some 500 other women hissed them clear under their cushions.

There is no game today, as the Peoria team does not arive in time to play. Tomorrow begins a series of three double-headers with the Distillers, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Score:

NEW TORK, Sept. 15.-Brooklyn beat New York today in the first game of the scries. The visitors hit Mathewson freely, but the poor fielding support given him was really the cause of defeat. Newton was locky, as he began wildly, giving three bases on bails in the first inning. It was not until the close of the game that the local players found him. Attendance, 2.000. aMahan, p. Betting men seemed to appreciate that it was the first hard fight which Tommy Ryan had engaged in slace he assumed the title defaulted by Bob Pitzsimmons. The fact that they were against a lusty young fol-low, famed for his endurance and hitting power, made friends of Ryan very cau-tious in their speculation. They began by asking even money. The Carter men de-manded 2 to 1. When the Ryan men locened up to 10 to 7 there was a lot of money bet and both aides were busy with their greenbacks when it came time for the men to enter the ring. Ryan evidently had been disappointed in the weight. The articles called for 155 pounds at 4 p. m. Carter tipped the scales with not an ounce, to spare, but trained to greyhound perfection, and Ryan looked taskance at his spiendid form. Ryan made the weight with all his clothes on. the 144-pound championship. From the be-ginning of the bour the American forced the fighting and rushed his opponent. Until the sixth round Connolly appeared to be a sure winner, but in that round the English-man nearly succeeded in knocking the American out. After this round and for the rest of the fight Woodley took the lead and won easily. The bout was one of the hercest ever seen in the Wonderland club.

RINGSIDE, Fort ERIE, Ont., Sept. 15.-Tommy Ryan may be the veteran of the middleweights in the prize ring, but he is still far from a back number. Tonight, in the arena of the Fort Erie club, in a vicous, bruising fight, he knocked out "Kid" Carter of Brooklyn in the last minute of the sixth round. The knockout was clean and

Gets that Loser Doesn't. LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 15.-In his charge to the grand jury today Judge Bar-ker, of the criminal division of the Jeffer-son circuit court referred to the McGov-ern-Corbett contest scheduled to take place in this city, September 22. After quoting the Kentucky law in the case and defining a prize fight as any fight for a prize, whether a title, bet, wager or stake, he stated that the statute does not 'probibil sparring exhibitions.' unless the winner takes something he would not have se-cured had he lost. Continuing, the judge said: "I have nothing to do with the polley of this law. We have nothing to do with the question as to whether prize fights ought or ought not to be given. We have simply to do with the enforcement of this law just as we find it on the statute boes. "I wish to reiterate that any fight at which the winner gets something he would not have gotten had he been the loser. for a championship or a belt, or money or anything in my opinion, is a prize fight, or this particuari prize fight, or fight or what the mayor has said that there should be no violation of the law. "A there frankfort and will file tomer. Sturdy and heavy in his hitting, proud of his endurance, full of energy, confident and ambitious, Carter was no mean opponent. In fact, he hustled Ryan throughout the fight, forcing him from corner to corner with wicked lunges which effectually destroyed any effort on Ryan's part to box prettily. Forced to fight, Ryan finally went at the game as few can. He stung and stabbed Carter until he had him bleeding and be wildered and then several well placed rightarm jolts on the jaw tumbled the husky young fellow a bleeding mass of senseless

Attorney General Pratt arrived here to-night from Frankfort and will file tomor-row an injunction suit in accordance with Governor Beckham's instructions, to de-termine the status of the contest. A half dozen leading lawyers in Louis-ville will be associated with the attorney for the commonwealth. The case will be heard at Louisville Wedneeday. Carter fought gamely and tried hard, but he suffered about all the visible punishment that was noted during the bout. Such men as McCoy, Jack O'Brien and others looked work tonight. Meeting. NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The inaugural meeting of the Empire City Trotting club began today at its fine track under favor-able auspices. The weather was perfect and the track fast. The best feature of the day was the Bronx stake of $5,000 for the 2:49 pace, for which Dan R was the favorite in the pools at 100 to 30 for the field. Twinkle had the pole and at once led off and the favorite, who broke at the quarter, was simply driven to save his distance. Twinkle won casily, with Pr.nce Direct second, a length back. The betting was now 100 to 50 on Dan R and again Twinkle led off to the haif, where the favorite came up with a rush and led around the turn and in a bot finish won by a length, with Twinkle sec-ond. In the third heat Dan R broke badiy and looked as if he was out of it, but he gradually crept upon his field and in a most electrifying rush down the home stretch he beat out Prince Direct by haif a head. He won the final heat with quite a bit to spare. — For the New York 2:11 trot the California slowed up a bit Ryan jabbed him unmercifully, reducing him to a plight where, if the race continued, the knockout seemed The crowd which began to gather early soon gave promise of a packed house that was to follow.
