Matters in connection with the entry of the Great Western railroad into Council Bluffe occupied much of the attention of the city council last night. On behalf of the railroad an ordinance was introduced fixing the grade for the crossings of the company's tracks over twenty-seven streets and avenues within the city limits. The and avenues within the city limits. The ordinance was passed after it had been amended to provide for the construction by the railroad of an overhead crossing or bridge at the Garfield avenue crossing, to be sixteen feet wide and twenty-two feet above the tracks. Garfield avenue runs from Woodbury avenue south to South avenue.

Under the ordinance granting the Great Western a right-of-way through Council Bluffs the railroad was required to plant a hedge of shrubbery on the east side of South avenue between its tracks and the

DES MOINES, Sept. 22 - (Special.) - The political situation does not become any clearer on the approach of the date for the Third district convention. Developments indicate that the fight will be between C. E. Ransier of Buchanan, C. E. Albrook of Hardin and Burton E. Sweet of Brenner. Both of the Blackhawk county candidates realized as soon as the convention was called and the old delegates named to make the nomination that he stood no show with them. Charles E. Pickett received information that he could not have the support of the Dubuque delegation and he withdrew. The belief here is that Albrook or Sweet will be nominated. Albrook has been an active worker for Henderson in the west end of the district for many years and is regarded as very close to the leading republicans who will make the nomination. KING ACTS LIKE A BRUTE

PRINCESS NOTIFIED WHILE PRAYING

King Leopold Revives Quarrel with Countess of Lonyay Over the Bier of the Dead Queen Marie Henrietta.

BRUSSELS, Belgium, Sept. 22.-The scandal arising from the revival of the family quarrel between King Leopold and his daughter, the Princess Stephanie (countess of Lonyay), beside the bier of the late queen, Marie Henriette, at Spa yesterday, is agitating all classes. Popular sympathy on all sides is exressed for the princess, who, although deeply affected by the incident, makes no complaint. The princess, herself, has given out a simple statement of the facts, as follows:

The precise facts are these: I was praying at the bier of the queen when someone came, about 4 o'clock, to tell me the king would not receive me. I immediately left the death chamber. I had no interview with his majesty.

I was at Cromer, England, when I learned of the death of the queen. Like a loving daughter and a patriot, I hurried to Spato render the last honors to my mother.

As the king has caused an intimation to be conveyed to me that he does not desire my presence, I am going to Calais, where my husband will meet me. Thence I shall probably return to England. There was no scene between the king and myself at Spa.

Applaud the Princess.

It was hoped by the public, who applauded Princess Stephanie's match with Count Lonyay, that the death of the queen would lead to healing the rupture, but the incident at Spa is taken to indicate that the king is as irreconcilable as ever to what he has openly designated as a misalliance, even after the approval of the Austrian emperor, Francis Joseph.

The princess will not be present at her mother's funeral. During the whole railroad journey from Spa to this city the princess was shaken with sobs, and arrived here greatly prostrated. This morning she attended a special requiem mass ordered by herself. On leaving the church she was sympathetically greeted by the assembled crowd.

Princess Stephanie started for Calais this afternoon. She was accorded a most enthusiastic greeting by large crowds of people at the railroad station, while cries of "Viva le comtesse" were raised, to which she replied: "I thank you with all my heart.' Then, apparently quite overcome by the popular demonstration, the princess burst into tears. After the requiem mass the cortege proceeded to the railroad station. The king, Prince Albert, the Princees Clementine and and the ministers accompanied the body to the train.
