OMAHA TAKES FOURTH GAME

game from Indianapolis and now the series stands two for each team with the fifth and deciding contest to be played this afternoon at Vinton street park. From the spirited ball thus far put up by both nines and the anxiety of each to capture the malority of the second place in the American league contest. The home team batted Dunham hard and the latter was liberal in his free passes to first base. The game was called on account of darkness. Attendance, 2,969. Omaha walked away with yesterday's jority of the games there ought to be some fast work today.

Yesterday's game was Omaha's from the first. The locals started to make runs in the initial inning, when they piled up a pair one in the fourth when Pears was given his base on balls and sent across the plate by a single by Thomas and a sin from the field by Third Baseman Kuhn. The onelaught came in that terrible "Seventh." Pears again walked, Thomas again supported him with timely batting, this time with a two-bagger, Gonding flew out to O'Brien at short, Owen lined out a nice one to right for a base and Genius duplicated Carter shared in the fun with a single and then Wright drew a pass to first. Dolan went out from short to first and Stewart fanned, retiring the side with a quartette of runs for the inning. It was an exciting period and Pitcher Sudhoff was very much up in the air." He was entirely unable to stem the fierce tide which the locals were driving against him until fatal mischief had been done.

Indianapolis found in Owen a perfect enigma up to the sixth inning, when but three safe hits had been made off his puzwling delivery, but they managed to rap him for one in the sixth, one in the seventh and four in the eighth, making a total of nine hits, one more than Omaha. Their inability to bunch these pokes got them nothing.

Pears Gets in the Game.

Long Lean Pears in left field distinguished Limself yesterday as few men have ever done on this or any other diamond. In the eighth inning the Hoosiers awoke from their lethargy and started out on one of their characteristic batting campaigns. Coulter singled and O'Brien drove one into left for a pair of bases. With O'Brien on second, Kuhn laced out one into Pear's garden for a single and O'Brien started Bay, cf. was within a few feet of the plate when, the ball fell into Johnnie Gonding's hands and Mr. O'Brien was out. Pears had sent the sphere all the way from deep left on a bee line. By this time Kuhn had reached second and the identical operation was repeated when Woodruff drove the ball away out into left and Kuhn was making for home by leaps and bounds. With the same apparent ease and precision Pears

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 3.—(Special Telegram.)—Kid Nichols' Western league pennant winners turned the tables on the American Association club today in the second game of the post-season series by winning in a 13 to 5 score. A Great Strain.

No one disputes the fact that we are living in a "rapid" age; it is rush, rush, rush from morning until night, and competition is so fierce that the struggle does not cease until the machine is worn out. Women, too, even when surrounded by every comfort, become infected by the common spirit and what with their clubs and many social duties have no time to give thought to their physical well being until they are suddenly brought to a sharp realization of the fact that nothing in their lives is so important as attention to correct or rational living. It may surprise the readers to learn that women are more prone to piles than men and in most cases because it is difficult to impress upon them the importance of regular movements of the bowels; irregularity means straining at stool, and straining means piles, with the certainty (under the usual methods of treatment) that the aufferer will "have them always with her;" by "usual methods" is meant the application of salves and lotions, or (as a last resort) a surgical operation. If there is a complaint which entails more distress and suffering upon those afflicted than piles or hemorrhoids, it is not known to the writer; fortunately, however, these are learning that there is a remedy that effectually cures all forms of piles; It is known as the Pyramid Pile Cure, is in suppository form, is applied directly to the parts and does the work quickly and painlessly; it is sold by druggists for 50 cents a package, or will be mailed by the makers to any address upon receipt of Mrs. John H. Castona, 2942 Arch street, Chicago, says; "I must write you that I was cured of a very aggravated case of itching and bleeding piles by the use of the great remedy, Pyramid Pile Cure, even after several physicians had claimed there was no cure except by an operation. I am well now and owe all to this valuable remedy. I cannot say enough for it. Write the Pyramid Drug Co., Mr. call. Mich., for their little book on the cause and cure of piles.

pennant for Kansas City, for if Denver had not been drowned out at Broadway park, there is every reason to believe that the Grizzlies would have taken at least one of the two games that were never played. But, what's the use? The season's over and the pennant has gone to Kansas City, as popular a victory as could have been won.

Charlie Nichols worked hard and kept his team well at the top all through the season, took his share of hard luck and finally landed where he wanted to. His pluck and ability were good backing for his ambition and not a man around the whole circuit will grudge him his success. That meeting of the magnates down at St. Joseph must have had a fine time setting the yeast on the attendance figures they gave out. No affidavits will be asked for the 137,000 accredited to Denver and the 132,000 to Omaha may not be under the mark, but when the people are asked to believe that Kansas City and Milwaukee had an average of nearly 1,000 paid admissions to the game it is pressing us little too far. If those figures were cu in two the public would be more likely to swallow them. And at that the Western is justified in putting the Kansas City attendance down at 52,000 when the American claimed 87,000 for the same town. One statement is as easy to believe as the other. It is hardly to be expected that th magnates would furnish exact or even ap proximate figures on the amount of business the different clube did during the sea son, and they must not be disappointed

the public declines to accept as accurate

the figures they do give out. It would have | A certain ours for piles and skin diseases-

It was announced at St. Joseph that the Western circuit would remain intact next season, and in the same breath we were told that Thomas Jefferson Hickey is to be ousted by the American as the first step toward peace. It's a cinch that one of these statements is wrong. If the Western circuit remains intact there'll be no peace, and if peace is made there'll be a readjustment of the circuit. Omaha fans will all hope for peace, for a readjustment of the circuits and the abolition of the doublesender clubs at Milwaukee and Kansas City will certainly land Omaha in a class just a little bit better than that attainable by Colorado Springs and Peoria. Those towns are good ball towns in their class, but they were out of their element during 1902. Ditto Des Moines and St. Joseph. For three years now The Bee has been making a plea for Omaha's right to be in faster company in of existing differences between the magnates will make this possible and Omaha will get away from the company in which it has been held for the last three years. That this is a first-class base ball town has been amply proven-in fact, this never was in dispute. Both Hickey and Tebeau wanted Omaha in their American association, not only to break up the Western, but to get a good town. It was due solely to personal differences between them and the Rourke brothers that Omaha did not go into the American association. The Rourkes are very popular in Omaha, despite the assertions of the Home Roasters' club, and have done much for the game in this city. During the last two years they have maintained a good team and have conducted the game on a high standard, and have won the confidence of the public. Any change in the circuit which would involve the retirement of the Rourke brothers would be the cause of much regret here. But if they could take the team bodily over into the American association camp, the move would meet the approbation of as loyal a lot of fans as ever paid their money to see a game. It is doubtful, too, if a league made up with Peoria, Colorado Springs, St. Joseph and Des Moines can maintain the interest here at the high pitch attained last Post-mortem examinations are, as a rule gruesome affairs, but there was some little grim humor in the autopsy held on the lately defunct Grizzlies by the wise ones of Denver. Parke Wilson came in for most of the blame, because he failed to show the generalship of Ace Stewart and Hugh Duffy, but he wasn't alone in his misery. Each and everyone of that wonderful aggregation of stars fell to the grade of two-spots inside of twenty-four hours All the shortcomings discovered by unbiased critics were made apparent to the hitherto purblind Denver fans, and in addition along defects which none had suspected were uncovered and expatriated on. It was a bitter disappointment, but the outcome verified the Bee's judgment passed on the Denver team some weeks ago. They proved rank quitters. When it came to the showdown they lost their nerve, and the last three games went to their opponents just because the Grizzlies were all in. In the first Kansas City game Emil Frisk, the slugger of the league, went to bat in the ninth inning and struck out, with three men on bases and two out, and two runs needed to win. With five men hitting over .300 and with a team fielding average above .900, the Grizzlies finished fourth, because they couldn't play team ball. Jim Edgerton, the sweet singer of the Rocky Mountain News, was a loyal supporter of the team, and when it failed to land his soul broke forth in song, offering the following

'Tis only a rag anyhow. We had the whole push going south for a while;

The heart of the Grizziy was glad;
Till one measly weather man drowned out our smile
And put all our hopes to the bad.
We made them aware of our presence on

We scared them a plenty, but now The flag has escaped us, and what is it worth? 'Tis only a rag anyhow.

We've plenty of company in our demise;
We are not the only bunch broke;
The Brewers likewise and the Rourkes missed the prize.
The Willies and other small folk.
It was a hot finish we made for the gang;
We had them all guessing; and now
We'il let that small remnant of dry goods 'Tis only a rag anyhow.

If he had not died just when he did, Kansas City would have had to play those two games at Colorado Springs, and the prospects are that the money bunkers would have taken one of them. Hickey league exponents to the number of about fourteen who came to Omaha last Wednesday expecting to exhibit their sucress one to make the products of the plains in no undecided manner have been the recipients of a little surprise party. Captain Fox and his band of Hoosters had no other idea than to win at least four of the five, and their success on the first day's meet strengthened this expectation. But now they see themselves facing the decisive game of the series, and begin to realize what they are up against. Two games each have been played under the rules of the Western. The rules today will be decided by a toss up.

Will the visitors go back to Indiana with flags at half-mast or floating high? Captain Stewart says the former, and a team of Omahans echoes the sentiment. This afternoon at 3:30 comes the rubber, and it will be a flerce one.

Only four races were finished. The $10,000 prize stake for 2-year-old trotters and the $2,000 stake for 2-year-old trotters will be contested as early next week as practicable.

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

Do You Know? contagious diseases, and also the theory and practice of hygiene and sanitation. Sanitary science "includes the consideration of all that can be done for the prevention of disease and the promotion of health." The above description by an eminent medical authority fully explains itself. All that can be done, it says: This, in individual cases, means all that the person knows to do. Now, if the person does not know, he must pay the penalty of his ignorance. Baldness is a contagious disease, caused by a microbe. Prof. Upna, of Hamburg, Germany, recently discovered that dandruff, itching scalp, falling hair, and final baldness are produced by a germ or microble that passes from one head to another, where it burrows into the scalp, and by multiplying and extending deeper and deeper into the hair follicles, saps the life of the hair root and produces baldness. It takes years to produce complete baldness, for the action of the dandruff microbe is not constant in every case. It is governed by predisposition, by the state of health, by environment, but particularly by the endeaver made to combat its growth and multiplication, at the time dandruff makes its first appearance; for, until dandruff appears there is no means of knowing whether the dandruff microbe has planted itself in the scalp or not.

The new antiseptic scalp germicide, Newbro's Herpicide, is past the experimental stage. It was made to destroy the germ that causes dandruff and falling hair, and by coaxing energy back into the impoverished bulbs, it enables the hair to grow naturally and luxuriantly. Thousands of letters from physicians, clergymen, and laymen tell the same story of its wonderful success. Stephen Fischer, of Dickinson, N. D., recently wrote as follows: "About a year ago my hair began to fall out in great quantities. My scalp was covered with dandruff so that every time I combed my hair the dandruff came down like snow. I tried all kinds of so-called hair vigors and hair tonics, but without deriving any benefit until I began using your Herpicide. I had scarcely used one bottle of your preparation when the dandruff disappeared and the hair stopped falling out, and later a bran new growth of hair made its appearance. I am well pleased with Newbro's Herpicide, and the praise that I have for it cannot be overestimated.

AN IDEAL HAIR DRESSING

It is fortunate for those who understand the new rules for scalp cleanliness that the antiseptic qualities of Newbro's Herpicide make it the most delightful and refreshing hair dressing imaginable. Before our remedy was so widely known we received the following letter from G. S. Long, No. 622 Sala Ave., Rochester, N. Y.: "I made the acquaintance of Herpicide in Yukahoma, Japan, bought a bottle in San Francisco, was made comfortable and happy with its use, and I recommend it to all my friends, but now my local druggist seems to know nothing about it. What am I to do?" Chronic baldness is incurable, but as long as there is hair there is hope, and a course with Newbrow's Herpicide may bring results that will surprise you. It has cured many cases of primary baldness. A COMMERCIAL TRAVELER IS PLEASED WITH A TESTIMONIAL LIKE THIS IS CERTAINLY CONVINCING, NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE. It is a pleasure for me to state that your remedy has more than borne out your claims. It is the best hair and scalp tonic that it has been my good fortune to use. I preparation, and I wish to state that I shall always have a bottle of the same in my grip.

I find I get results from Newbro's Herpicide I never got before from a hair tonic. Since using it I am never bothered with hair coming out or gathering of dandruff. On my territory are many barbers who feel grateful to me for having called their attention to your preparation. I can frankly say that it is a hummer for what is claimed for it. (Signed.) I have given Newbro's Herpicide a fair trial and am convinced that it has all the merit you claim for it. I shall continue using it and have, and do, recommend it to my friends, some of whom are very enthusiastic in its praise. I have used many different kinds of hair tonics and so-called dandruff cures, but Newbro's Herpicide is the only one which has proven entirely satisfactory. (Signed.) WALTER A. MEIER, Monroe, Mich.

On July 8th I got a bottle of your Herpicide and since that time have used it with marked results. I was troubled with intense itching of the scalp and a great deal of dandruff, but feel under obligations to Mr. Pearce for telling me of your since using your preparation both symptoms have disappeared, and I can highly recommend it. I will also prescribe it in each and every case where I think it can be used successfully. (Signed) C. A. JOHNSON, M. D., 903 Broadway, Kansas City, Mo.

I have used your preparation and find it the most elegant and effective hair tonic and dressing on the market. I shall take pleasure in prescribing when occasion arises.

I was so well pleased with the first bottle of Newbro's Herpicide that I have purchased another bottle, and since be ginning its use I haven't been bothered with dandruff nor itching of the scalp, and it is the only preparation that I have found so far that removes the unpleasant effects of dandruff. Whether or not, it will effect a permanent cure I am unable to say, but I do know that it is one of the nicest preparations for hair dressing and its pleasant effect upon the scalp I have used.
