Carnival, Golf and Ak-Mar-Ben Ball Afford Plenty of Employment.

SOCIETY IS BUSY AT LAST

NEW QUEEN WILL BE A PATRIOT SURE

Her Identity Not Disclosed, but Her Gown Has Been Made in Omaha Much to Some Local Satisfaction.

if anybody has been entertaining the no-Hon that Omaha's smart set is a conventional lot, with interest confined within the limits of their own exclusive doings, he night as well disabuse his mind of any such dea, for it is a mistake. Of all the crowd that "did" the sights within the carnival grounds there were none who entered into the spirit of the carnival with greater gest than the fashionables. Every evening has seen them in couples and in parties going the round of the booths and visiting the atractions of the Midway, partaking of all the free handouts and everything else available, very much after the manner of other people

The tournament of the Transmississippi Golf association at the Country club made that clubhouse the center of fashionable interest last week and, in spite of the dark days and the numerous attractions on in the city, society gathered there in force. Wednesday was given over to the women, it, as a matter of fact, the women have been very much in evidence out there all the time and have helped to make the success of the occasion. On Wednesday Mrs. Luther Kountze, Mrs. John McShane, Miss Dewey, Miss Webster, Mrs. Colpetzer, Mrs. Warren Rogers, Mrs. Charles Kountze, Miss Cotton, Miss Peck and Lies Doane served tea and did the honors. On Thursday Mrs. Gulou, Mrs. Lows, Mrs. Cowgill, Mrs. Joseph Barker, Miss Edith Smith, Miss Lewis and Miss Janet Rogers were the committee. On Friday Mrs. Sprague, Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. Love, Miss McShane, Miss Lomax, Mrs. Hull, Miss Crane, Miss Allen and Miss McShane constituted the receiving party. Yesterday afternoon all of the women were present and the club has not presented such a scene since in the summer. The dinner and dance were largely attended.

Evelyn, Dear: Now that the time is almost here the feminine pulse is all of a flutter, and in spite of all assertions to the contrary, we are simply dying to know who really is to be the queen. But, Evelyn, regardless of her identity, she is worthy the honor she is to bear, for-this is a secret that has leaked out somehow or other-her gown is not to be a Paris affair at all, but is being made right here at home, in Omaha, for the dear, loyal girl declares that nothing but home talent could do full justice to the coronation gown for our own Ak-Sar-Ben. Isn't she worthy the homage she is to have? I think her spirit is adorable-and then, it's such a comfort
