

DOUBLE UPON CHARITY WORK

Some People Pay Twice as Often to Accomplish Same Result.

PLICATION FROM LACK OF METHOD

Some of Central Organization Shown Experience of Workers in Field of Aid to the Indigent.

With the price of fuel soaring upward... the price of fuel soaring upward... the price of fuel soaring upward...

End of Associated Charities. With the organization of the many other institutions for the support of which the public has been called upon...

Community Pays Twice. While the efficiency and desirability of these institutions are not to be questioned... the fact remains that they are taxing the community for separate maintenance...

Probably nothing appeals to public sympathy like the little children of the poor... and few institutions receive the support which the little children of the poor...

Several years ago the Nebraska Children's Home Finding society was organized for the work of taking destitute children or those without proper guardianship...

There are even now several families who drive away from the city school, even in the most severe weather...

Work the Real Test. Of all the means that have been employed for testing the men who apply for jobs in the wood yard is the best...

Home for Old Men. Omaha has still another organization whose articles of incorporation provide for the care of destitute children...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Apoplexy caused more deaths in New York City in 1901 than were occasioned by Smallpox, Typhoid Fever, Malarial Fever, and Scarlet Fever combined.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York will not insure those who have apoplectic symptoms.

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

BANK WRECKING AND SALVING

Duties and Responsibilities of the Man Who Manages Insolvent Banks.

SOLEMN NOTES ON FINANCIAL FUROR

Operations of the Director and the Undertaker Who Camp on the Trail of Napoleonic Finance Sources of Disaster.

Hon. Charles G. Dawes, former comptroller of the currency, writes to the Philadelphia Saturday Evening Post, as follows: National banks in the United States are managed, as a rule, with marked ability, conservatism and integrity...

It is, so to speak, the financial switchboard of the entire business community. All the live commercial wires center at the bank. There is scarcely a monetary transaction of any moment in any community which does not in some manner record itself at the bank...

There is seldom a time when the comptroller has not under his management several insolvent banks in various stages of liquidation. In order to avoid great sacrifice, frequently this official has an opportunity to demonstrate his ability as a railroad manager...

To all practical purposes the comptroller of the currency finds himself in the position of the private capitalist who has scattered his investments in a wide variety of enterprises. His lieutenants are the receivers who are appointed directly to administer the affairs of each insolvent bank...

There are even now several families who drive away from the city school, even in the most severe weather. In fact, the more bitter the day the more active are the children, their pitiful stories, together with their scanty apparel, rarely failing to obtain the desired clothing, which they take home to their parents, who are second-hand clothing dealers.

Of all the means that have been employed for testing the men who apply for jobs in the wood yard is the best. If a man is really in need and willing to work he may chop or saw wood, for which he is paid, and he is privileged to cut as much of it as he likes.

Omaha has still another organization whose articles of incorporation provide for the care of destitute children. This is the Woman's Christian association, and until within the present year it has cared for a number, but recently this work has been left to the other organizations for that purpose and all its effort concentrated upon the Old Ladies' home...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges that at Christmas, Thanksgiving and on other holidays distribute supplies among the poor.

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

BANK WRECKING AND SALVING

Duties and Responsibilities of the Man Who Manages Insolvent Banks.

SOLEMN NOTES ON FINANCIAL FUROR

Operations of the Director and the Undertaker Who Camp on the Trail of Napoleonic Finance Sources of Disaster.

Hon. Charles G. Dawes, former comptroller of the currency, writes to the Philadelphia Saturday Evening Post, as follows: National banks in the United States are managed, as a rule, with marked ability, conservatism and integrity...

It is, so to speak, the financial switchboard of the entire business community. All the live commercial wires center at the bank. There is scarcely a monetary transaction of any moment in any community which does not in some manner record itself at the bank...

There is seldom a time when the comptroller has not under his management several insolvent banks in various stages of liquidation. In order to avoid great sacrifice, frequently this official has an opportunity to demonstrate his ability as a railroad manager...

To all practical purposes the comptroller of the currency finds himself in the position of the private capitalist who has scattered his investments in a wide variety of enterprises. His lieutenants are the receivers who are appointed directly to administer the affairs of each insolvent bank...

There are even now several families who drive away from the city school, even in the most severe weather. In fact, the more bitter the day the more active are the children, their pitiful stories, together with their scanty apparel, rarely failing to obtain the desired clothing, which they take home to their parents, who are second-hand clothing dealers.

Of all the means that have been employed for testing the men who apply for jobs in the wood yard is the best. If a man is really in need and willing to work he may chop or saw wood, for which he is paid, and he is privileged to cut as much of it as he likes.

Omaha has still another organization whose articles of incorporation provide for the care of destitute children. This is the Woman's Christian association, and until within the present year it has cared for a number, but recently this work has been left to the other organizations for that purpose and all its effort concentrated upon the Old Ladies' home...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges that at Christmas, Thanksgiving and on other holidays distribute supplies among the poor.

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

BANK WRECKING AND SALVING

Duties and Responsibilities of the Man Who Manages Insolvent Banks.

SOLEMN NOTES ON FINANCIAL FUROR

Operations of the Director and the Undertaker Who Camp on the Trail of Napoleonic Finance Sources of Disaster.

Hon. Charles G. Dawes, former comptroller of the currency, writes to the Philadelphia Saturday Evening Post, as follows: National banks in the United States are managed, as a rule, with marked ability, conservatism and integrity...

It is, so to speak, the financial switchboard of the entire business community. All the live commercial wires center at the bank. There is scarcely a monetary transaction of any moment in any community which does not in some manner record itself at the bank...

There is seldom a time when the comptroller has not under his management several insolvent banks in various stages of liquidation. In order to avoid great sacrifice, frequently this official has an opportunity to demonstrate his ability as a railroad manager...

To all practical purposes the comptroller of the currency finds himself in the position of the private capitalist who has scattered his investments in a wide variety of enterprises. His lieutenants are the receivers who are appointed directly to administer the affairs of each insolvent bank...

There are even now several families who drive away from the city school, even in the most severe weather. In fact, the more bitter the day the more active are the children, their pitiful stories, together with their scanty apparel, rarely failing to obtain the desired clothing, which they take home to their parents, who are second-hand clothing dealers.

Of all the means that have been employed for testing the men who apply for jobs in the wood yard is the best. If a man is really in need and willing to work he may chop or saw wood, for which he is paid, and he is privileged to cut as much of it as he likes.

Omaha has still another organization whose articles of incorporation provide for the care of destitute children. This is the Woman's Christian association, and until within the present year it has cared for a number, but recently this work has been left to the other organizations for that purpose and all its effort concentrated upon the Old Ladies' home...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges that at Christmas, Thanksgiving and on other holidays distribute supplies among the poor.

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

BANK WRECKING AND SALVING

Duties and Responsibilities of the Man Who Manages Insolvent Banks.

SOLEMN NOTES ON FINANCIAL FUROR

Operations of the Director and the Undertaker Who Camp on the Trail of Napoleonic Finance Sources of Disaster.

Hon. Charles G. Dawes, former comptroller of the currency, writes to the Philadelphia Saturday Evening Post, as follows: National banks in the United States are managed, as a rule, with marked ability, conservatism and integrity...

It is, so to speak, the financial switchboard of the entire business community. All the live commercial wires center at the bank. There is scarcely a monetary transaction of any moment in any community which does not in some manner record itself at the bank...

There is seldom a time when the comptroller has not under his management several insolvent banks in various stages of liquidation. In order to avoid great sacrifice, frequently this official has an opportunity to demonstrate his ability as a railroad manager...

To all practical purposes the comptroller of the currency finds himself in the position of the private capitalist who has scattered his investments in a wide variety of enterprises. His lieutenants are the receivers who are appointed directly to administer the affairs of each insolvent bank...

There are even now several families who drive away from the city school, even in the most severe weather. In fact, the more bitter the day the more active are the children, their pitiful stories, together with their scanty apparel, rarely failing to obtain the desired clothing, which they take home to their parents, who are second-hand clothing dealers.

Of all the means that have been employed for testing the men who apply for jobs in the wood yard is the best. If a man is really in need and willing to work he may chop or saw wood, for which he is paid, and he is privileged to cut as much of it as he likes.

Omaha has still another organization whose articles of incorporation provide for the care of destitute children. This is the Woman's Christian association, and until within the present year it has cared for a number, but recently this work has been left to the other organizations for that purpose and all its effort concentrated upon the Old Ladies' home...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges that at Christmas, Thanksgiving and on other holidays distribute supplies among the poor.

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

BANK WRECKING AND SALVING

Duties and Responsibilities of the Man Who Manages Insolvent Banks.

SOLEMN NOTES ON FINANCIAL FUROR

Operations of the Director and the Undertaker Who Camp on the Trail of Napoleonic Finance Sources of Disaster.

Hon. Charles G. Dawes, former comptroller of the currency, writes to the Philadelphia Saturday Evening Post, as follows: National banks in the United States are managed, as a rule, with marked ability, conservatism and integrity...

It is, so to speak, the financial switchboard of the entire business community. All the live commercial wires center at the bank. There is scarcely a monetary transaction of any moment in any community which does not in some manner record itself at the bank...

There is seldom a time when the comptroller has not under his management several insolvent banks in various stages of liquidation. In order to avoid great sacrifice, frequently this official has an opportunity to demonstrate his ability as a railroad manager...

To all practical purposes the comptroller of the currency finds himself in the position of the private capitalist who has scattered his investments in a wide variety of enterprises. His lieutenants are the receivers who are appointed directly to administer the affairs of each insolvent bank...

There are even now several families who drive away from the city school, even in the most severe weather. In fact, the more bitter the day the more active are the children, their pitiful stories, together with their scanty apparel, rarely failing to obtain the desired clothing, which they take home to their parents, who are second-hand clothing dealers.

Of all the means that have been employed for testing the men who apply for jobs in the wood yard is the best. If a man is really in need and willing to work he may chop or saw wood, for which he is paid, and he is privileged to cut as much of it as he likes.

Omaha has still another organization whose articles of incorporation provide for the care of destitute children. This is the Woman's Christian association, and until within the present year it has cared for a number, but recently this work has been left to the other organizations for that purpose and all its effort concentrated upon the Old Ladies' home...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges that at Christmas, Thanksgiving and on other holidays distribute supplies among the poor.

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

BANK WRECKING AND SALVING

Duties and Responsibilities of the Man Who Manages Insolvent Banks.

SOLEMN NOTES ON FINANCIAL FUROR

Operations of the Director and the Undertaker Who Camp on the Trail of Napoleonic Finance Sources of Disaster.

Hon. Charles G. Dawes, former comptroller of the currency, writes to the Philadelphia Saturday Evening Post, as follows: National banks in the United States are managed, as a rule, with marked ability, conservatism and integrity...

It is, so to speak, the financial switchboard of the entire business community. All the live commercial wires center at the bank. There is scarcely a monetary transaction of any moment in any community which does not in some manner record itself at the bank...

There is seldom a time when the comptroller has not under his management several insolvent banks in various stages of liquidation. In order to avoid great sacrifice, frequently this official has an opportunity to demonstrate his ability as a railroad manager...

To all practical purposes the comptroller of the currency finds himself in the position of the private capitalist who has scattered his investments in a wide variety of enterprises. His lieutenants are the receivers who are appointed directly to administer the affairs of each insolvent bank...

There are even now several families who drive away from the city school, even in the most severe weather. In fact, the more bitter the day the more active are the children, their pitiful stories, together with their scanty apparel, rarely failing to obtain the desired clothing, which they take home to their parents, who are second-hand clothing dealers.

Of all the means that have been employed for testing the men who apply for jobs in the wood yard is the best. If a man is really in need and willing to work he may chop or saw wood, for which he is paid, and he is privileged to cut as much of it as he likes.

Omaha has still another organization whose articles of incorporation provide for the care of destitute children. This is the Woman's Christian association, and until within the present year it has cared for a number, but recently this work has been left to the other organizations for that purpose and all its effort concentrated upon the Old Ladies' home...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges that at Christmas, Thanksgiving and on other holidays distribute supplies among the poor.

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

Realizing the necessity of centralizing the work of the various missions and churches of the city, the Salvation Army, the Volunteers and the many lodges...

After the ball is over and the excitement attendant upon the preparation for the ball is past, you will have time to attend to your winter wants. Our store is a scene of bustling activity and beauty these days. Crowded full of the choicest merchandise from all the markets of the world. We wish to thank our friends and customers for their kindly consideration and patience during the busy days of the past week.

In our cloak and suit departments we were unable to give as good attention, as usual, to our patrons, but we did the best we could, and we want to ask our Omaha friends who were not waited on, to kindly call again. For Monday's selling we will show several new suits just received. Also another shipment of skirts and jackets. Some exceedingly nobby things, well worth looking at.

We have a splendid lot of furs to show you this season, and no matter what the style of piece may be you can rest assured it is the best of its kind—selected personally by our own buyer.

These fall mornings should make you think of warmer underwear. Our stocks for men, women and children never were so large—never were so well assorted.

At dress goods section Monday we will display several choice pattern suits, ranging in price from $10 to $50. Among them are fine silk zibelines, Scotch plaids, Bannockburn mixtures, fake zibelines, imported for us. Also a few dainty, exclusive patterns in choice FANCY collars and waives.

A magnificent gathering of waistings awaits your inspection, from 50c up to $3.00 per yard. Silk department doubled in size—doubled in stock—more than doubled in assortment. We would like to show you the line of Cheney Bros' wash taffetas, 27 inches wide, the world's best for wear, all colors, $1.00 per yard.

Lustrous, crisp taffetas, all colors, at 75c per yard. ALL SILKS GUARANTEED. We have just received from England a line of mantle velveteens, dyed by Worrall, ranging in price from 75 cents to $1.75 for costumes, waists, jackets, capes, etc., absolutely unapproachable—confined to our store for Omaha.

Score of colors on hand awaits of crepe de chine—our $1.00 quality will be found exceedingly hard to match. Plain black and cream, in doublewidths up to $3.50 per yard.

At the glove counter we were reminded of the busiest days of Christmas time. Still plenty left. Heavy manish gloves, overseas and piques, with nobby big buttons for cool days. Golf gloves imported direct by us—new and exclusive styles. Monday we will close out all that is left of the real kids, worth up to $1.25, at 50 cents per pair.

Go to the counter just to peep at the new stocks for ladies. Here we are always a little in advance of most stores, and always show the latest and most correct fashions.

Hundreds of remnants of waistings and dress goods left from the busy bustling business of the past week, on sale Monday at about half former prices.

New fall stationery at book counter, from Hurburt, Whitney, Newcombe—and a full line of the latest Hard papers. Remember we engrave.

The busy basement will bristle with bright bargains on Monday. Blankets and Comforts piled to the ceiling—a little better grade and perhaps a little lower in price than the average shop.

One Skirt Item for Monday to Attract Attention to This Department

Mercedized black sateen with three tailored flounces—three different styles to select from, usually $2 and $2.25, on through the supervision of the national authorities and their checking of dangerous tendencies are not known to the public, but there is generally full discussion of the question of thoroughness and competency of bank examiners when a failure does occur.

Monday $1.45 Each

Agents for the Butterick patterns and publications. Now is a good time to subscribe for The Delineator, the great magazine and fashion journal.

Thomas Kilpatrick & Co., THE WHITE STORE. 1505-1507-1509 DOUGLAS STREET.

Once, when visiting a friend in one of the suburbs of Philadelphia, I received a message from a bank examiner who had been at work in another city. He insisted that I come at once to Philadelphia. Arriving there I found him in company with the president of a large bank in the city where he had been prosecuting his duties.

Throughout the entire history of bank liquidation runs a depressing strain of tragedy. Three suicides, in quick succession, followed the closing of as many banks in my own official experience, and I never ordered the appointment of a receiver without the apprehension that perhaps I was thereby plunging another man to the last desperate extremity of those too proud to face the results of their own crimes.

Always the two objects first in the purpose of a comptroller of the currency in the liquidation of an insolvent bank are to close up the transaction with as little delay and expense as possible, and to reach the maximum amount from the assets. Often it is difficult to accomplish speedy settlement without heavy sacrifice of securities, and frequently the only way in which to prevent material shrinkage is to take sufficient time to protect the enterprises in the list of assets.

The records show, however, that the cheapest liquidation of insolvent enterprises is that of national banks. This is to be in part accounted for by the fact that in this phase of his duties the comptroller is unhampered by red tape and has free authority over the institutions under his management.

From the beginning of the comptroller's report to 1899, for example, the amount of nominal assets liquidated was $235,638,788. Of these $101,618,174 was actually collected, with $40,000,000 nominal assets still on hand.

The percentage of total expense was only 1.15. The percentage which the creditors of these national banks received was 75.62, and this has not materially changed in subsequent years.

In that year (1899) investigation was made regarding the cost of collections under receivers for state and private banks appointed under authority of the state courts. Information was had concerning 283 such banks which paid dividends of 42.97 per cent. The cost of administration was 16.3 per cent of the total collections, or over twice the percentage of expense of liquidating national banks.

Of late years the plan of consolidation in the administration of insolvent banks which has reached an advanced stage of liquidation has been followed by comptrollers with decidedly economical results. Some thirty different banks, for example, were placed under one receiver and a small force of office assistants at Washington, with the result that the cost of the management was reduced to an average of only $427 a year for each bank.

Fifty years ago no municipality in the United States had reserved a single acre of land for park purposes. Now there are about 1,800 acres of park land, for the improvement and maintenance of which at least $1,000,000 are spent annually.

My disease was displacement and ulceration of the uterus, and I was in a terrible condition with pain and weakness. I had tried all the remedies I could find, but nothing helped. I was told to try Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, and I did so. I was cured in a few days. I feel like a new woman now. I am so glad to have my health restored. I will never again be troubled with this disease. I will recommend Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets to all my friends who are suffering from this disease. I will also recommend it to all my friends who are suffering from any other disease. I will also recommend it to all my friends who are suffering from any other disease.

My disease was displacement and ulceration of the uterus, and I was in a terrible condition with pain and weakness. I had tried all the remedies I could find, but nothing helped. I was told to try Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, and I did so. I was cured in a few days. I feel like a new woman now. I am so glad to have my health restored. I will never again be troubled with this disease. I will recommend Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets to all my friends who are suffering from this disease. I will also recommend it to all my friends who are suffering from any other disease. I will also recommend it to all my friends who are suffering from any other disease.

My disease was displacement and ulceration of the uterus, and I was in a terrible condition with pain and weakness. I had tried all the remedies I could find, but nothing helped. I was told to try Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, and I did so. I was cured in a few days. I feel like a new woman now. I am so glad to have my health restored. I will never again be troubled with this disease. I will recommend Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets to all my friends who are suffering from this disease. I will also recommend it to all my friends who are suffering from any other disease. I will also recommend it to all my friends who are suffering from any other disease.

My disease was displacement and ulceration of the uterus, and I was in a terrible condition with pain and weakness. I had tried all the remedies I could find, but nothing helped. I was told to try Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, and I did so. I was cured in a few days. I feel like a new woman now. I am so glad to have my health restored. I will never again be troubled with this disease. I will recommend Dr