THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: SATURDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1902.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 10 .- It required seven heats to decide the first race, the feature of today's card. Despite the fact that four drivers, McMahon, McHenry, L. McDonald and Erwin, were fined on the charge of laying up heats every finish was hotly contested. The last three heats resulted in neck victories under the whip. Little Squaw was the favorite, but until the last two heats seemed to lack steam at the wire. In the seventh heat she overhauled and nosed out Prince Direct.

Much interest was manifested in the wagon race and Deverenux's success was the more popular because a surprise. He caught Smathers in each of the last heats just before reaching the wire. The attendance today was fully 6,000. Results:

tract: Contributions, as a result of your letter, continue to reach me from nearly every part of the union. I have received up to date 5641. But better than all money is the brotherly love, good will, gentleness and kindness which pervades every letter I have received. I read your letter a short time ago to the old soldlers at the home at Mountain Creek and every one of them said "May God bless General Torrance." and such, I believe to be the prayer of every true ex-confederate soldier in Ala-bama. CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 10.—The All-Star Americans and Pittsburg, the National league champions, played a marvelous game at League park this afternoon, neither team scoring in eleven innings, after which darkness compelled a post-ponement. They will play again tomorrow. Bernhard and Leever were the opposing twirlers and each pltched great ball, hold-ing his opponents down to four hits. The errors generally came after two were out and were not costly. Attendance, 3,300.

The meeting of the Tri-City Driving club postponed from last Baturday will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the park at Twenty-fourth and Sprague streets. some of the leading merchants of the city have contributed appropriate prizes for the events. Admission to grounds and stand free.

and such, I believe to be the prayer of every true ex-confederate soldier in Ala-bama. In my opinion, down to this date, nothing has ever been done that is to be calculated to obliterate the scars of war and to wipe out forever the bluterness between those who wore the blue and the gray, as your action in this matter, and while there may be a few who came in late and did not get enough of war, that are still treasuring animosities, yet there are few indeed who are not ready to say in the language of that illustrious and magnanimous victor, General Grant, "Let us have peace." My friends and comrades throughout the state wish for you and every member of the Grand Army of the Republic a great meeting at Washington, and if we could meet you there would be such a union of hearts and shaking of hands that it would be impossible to distinguish between the blue and the gray, and we would then show how much we appreciate the noble efforts of the members of the Grand Army of the Republic to aid in caring for some of our comrades who are unable to care for them-selves. NEW YORK, Oct. 10.-Gold Heels, this year's winner of the Suburban, was pur-chased from Winnie O'Connor today for $6,750, for E. J. Arnold & Co. of St. Louis. Gold Heels will be shipped to St. Louis. After the installation of the new officers the encampment adjourned finally a few minutes before 3 o'clock.

The sessions of the Union Veterans' union today were marked by scenes of wild dis-order and confusion. The proceedings at times became so heated that personal enounter seemed likely.

The trouble began when an effort was made to amend the constitution so as to restore the six months' service clause as a basis for membership. After a two hours' discussion the proposition was rejected. This action created considerable ill feel 650 ing.
