WOMEN'S MISSION BOARD MEETS FIRST

Sessions of American and Foreign Missionary Sociation Do Not Begin Until Saturday-Program in Futt.

When the annual convention of the misstonary sceleties of the Christian church opens in Omaha next Thursday evening there will be brought together one of the most interesting religious gatherings which essembles in the United States. The Chrisian church is an American organisation. Historians outside of the church trace its her inning to Alexander Campbell, preacher in Pennsylvania.

The Christian churches are individual in heir government and there is no sesociation higher than the individual church, which is a law unro itself. There are, however, a number of societies, chiefly for missionary work, both in the United States and in foreign lands, in which the separate hurshes unite for a common purpose, but these societies have no power to control the action of a church or of any of the societies of the church. No form of representation in the work of these societies is which is a law unto itself. There are, howsentation in the work of these societies is lette Reports. As this is the case there is no limit to the number which may have voice and vote in the convention, so that it is impossible to tell how many persons there will present or what work will be done. Precedent has established certain rules for the government of the societies which unite in national convention, but this precedent nothing binding in it, as are the rules of the assemblies and conferences of other

Tyler of Denver, the president of the International Sunday School union, and Mr McGarvey of Kentucky, who is one of the oldest ministers in the work in the west, In recent years there have been a large umber of educational institutions established by the church and the ministry has taken rank in education and research with those churches who have for much longer ime insisted upon an educated ministry. These colleges and universities will be repregented at the convention by many of heir officers and members of faculty, while each of the strong publications of the church will have representation.

But the convention is essentially the meeting of the missionary societies. There are three sty one missionary societies in the church—the American Christian Missionary society. Die Fereign Christian Missionary society and the Christian Women's Board of Missions. There are other organicaions, such as that for work among the Indiana and the negroes, work in the colleges, etc., but all in one way or another are subject to the officers of one of the three large societies.

Opening Session Thursday. When the convention is called to order brasks, the city of Omaha and the local missionary societies will be delivered by Holcomb, Mayor Frank E. Moores and Mrs. Jennie R. Burne, president of the Tri-City federation of the women's missionary societies of the church, respectively. ponses will be made by Harvey O. Brecden of Des Moines, who will preside at the convention; F. M. Raines of Cincinnati, corresponding secretary of the Foreign Christian Missionary society, and Mrs. Nancy F. Atkinson of Wabash, Ind., vice president of the Christian Women's Board of Missions. After the formal addresses there will be an opportunity for forming general acquaintance among the visitors and residents of the city. The first session of the convention will be devoted to the work of the Women's board. This will be called to order Friday morning by Mrs. J. S. McCleery of Nebraska, after bible study led by Calla Scott Willard. The program for the ses-

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Arrested School Beard Members Decline to Make Statements.

IMPEACHMENT PROCEEDINGS TALKED OF

Street Rumor is that Five Members Not Accused May Attempt to Unsent the Four Who Have Been.

The members of the South Omaha Board of Education who have been called before the county court to answer to the charge of bribery declined to talk for publication yesterday. Colonel Lott said that he had nothing to say. Alongo Miller and J. L. Kubat had the same disinclination. Theodore Schroeder could not be reached, as be was not at home when two calls were made by a Bee reporter.

A meeting of the Board of Education is on for tonight and the question will be raised as to the right of the four members now under arrest to vote or take any part in the proceedings. A. L. Sutton, the attorney for the board, said last night that he did not think that the proceedings in the county court would debar the indicted members from taking part in the regular order of business.

It was reported on the streets yesterday that the five members of the board who have not been called upon by the courts to explain about alleged charges of bribery might be induced to commence impeachment proceedings in advance of the county court affair. Should the four members now in the charge of the sheriff be tried by the board and their places be declared vacant on account of malfeasance in office it would devolve on the remaining members to select members by a ballot vote to serve out the terms of those already indicted The terms of Scroeder, Miller and Lott expire on May 1, 1903, while Kubat, Murphy and Loechner will stay in office until the spring of 1904. Laverty, Morrill and Bock will hold office until the election in April,

No Council Meeting Tonight.

The city council will not meet in regular session until Monday, October 20. this session it is expected that the judiclary committee will report on the three telephone ordinances now in its hands. Should the judiciary committee fail to make its report at this meeting the mayor will not be able to include in his proclamation the referendum for a vote of the people on the ordinance franchise. The charter provides that in order to have the vote of the resident voters who are registered there must be not less than a majority of
