Colineum Being Transformed Into Place for Christian Church Meeting.

MANY CONVENIENCES HOW BEING LOCATED

Committee Rooms, Exhibit Booths, Quarters for Women and for Restnurants Laid Out by the Committee.

The plans for the Collseum alterations for the Christian church convention have been approved by the general committee and will be carried out at once, a large force being now at work. The stage at the Coliseum is about one half the distance from the north wall of the building to the center of the room. It stands equi-distant from the east and west wall. A partition will be run east and west from the front of the stage to the walls, and will pass in the rear of the stage. North of this partition will be arranged the booths of the educational, missionary and publication societies, around the walls of the building. The main floor of the building north of the partition will be devoted to the postoffice, the bureau of information, the entertainment committee which will assign boarding places to the delegates, the board of ministerial relief and the benevolent association. Quarters for the Women.

The only entrance to the building will be ing. All of that part of the building under the seats south of that entrance will be devoted to the women. The first room will be a committee room, then will come the women's parlor. The room which was used by the men as a cloak room during the ball will be used as the headquarters for pany says: the Women's Christian Board of Foreign

From the main entrance to the women's quarters a canvass partition which may be withdrawn during the sessions of the convention will separate the passage to those quarters from the main floor. the barber shop.

Both floors of the annex on the west of the building will be used as dining rooms. The entrance will be cut off from the main half during the sessions of the convention, but will be opened at the noon

Representatives of the rocieties which will exhibit are arriving in the city on every train and will go to work Tuesday morning to install the exhibits. .

ARRANGE CONVENTION HALL TWO COLLIDE WITH MOTORS N. Segel and A. Mathias in Hospital from Driving on Tracks.

> N. Segel, a baker at 116 North Eleventh street, and A. Mathlas, driver for a coal firm, 3227 Lalk street, are laid up at St Joseph hospital, the result of collision with street cars. N. Segel was driving in a buggy north on Twentieth street, on the car tracks. A Dodge street car turned north on Twentieth and ran down the buggy, striking it in the rear end. Segel was thrown aut and struck the pavement on his hip and right elbow. After being hastily treated by Police Surgeon Mick he was sent to the hospital. His injuries are not serious, no bones having been broken. Leroy Lester, a passenger on the car, said Motorman Chris Hansen rang the bell repeatedly for Segel to get off the track, but the latter pald no attention. The motorman attempted to stop the car, but owing to the tracks being wet, it was im-

Mathias attempted to cross the tracks at Twenty-fourth and Indiana streets and the car struck the hind wheel of his wagon This was torn off and Mathias was thrown between the horses and the front wheels of right foot, severely bruising it and probably breaking some of the bones. He was also injured in the side. He was taken to the hospital in the police ambulance.

OBSERVE FEAST OF ST. EDWARD

Natal Day of Its Patron Saint.

Monday there was festivity and rejoicing at Creighton university, it being the Feast of St. Edward, the patron of the founder of the institution. At 9 o'clock a solemn high mass was celebrated in the college chapel, Father Shaffel acting as celebrant, Father Rigge as deacon and Mr. Noonan as sub-

Father Kuhlman, the vice president of Creighton university, delivered an eloquent sermon, in which he eulogized England's glorious saint and king who taught the nations that worldly honor and dignity are not incompatible with consummate sanctity. The speaker fervently exhorted the students, who assisted at mass in a body, to imitate the virtues of St. Edward, the patron and exemplar of their esteemed benefactor. In honor of the event the Reverend Rec-

MENDING AFTER STREET FAIR City Engineer's Department Has Few Holes in Pavement to Fix.

The city enginneer's department has been for some days past engaged in making the the recent street fair. There is no very extensive work to be done at any place, but there are a number of places where small jobs of mending have been needed, owing to the cutting of the asphalt pavement in setting posts or driving stakes. All of these repairs will be paid for by the Ak-Sar-Ben association, as has been customary.

OMAHA BONDS IN DEMAND

Large Firms Among Eastern Brekers Show Interest in Issue.

CITY TREASURER GRATIFIED BY PROSPECT

Letters of Inquiry Indicate that the $200,000 to Be Sold at End of Month Will Fetch Good Premium.

Inquiry from the larger firms of brokers in the east regarding the new issue of city bonds, soon to be sold, has been very active and City Treasurer Hennings finds much gratification in the fact that letters have been received from firms which heretofore have not taken any interest in the bonds of this city. There is every present indication that the outcome of the sale, which will take place October 31, will be most favorable.

Under the terms, as arranged, the bids will be received up to 1 o'clock of the day mentioned. The purpose of this issue of bonds is to fund the floating indebtedness of the city and the aggregate amount the wagon. One wheel passed over his is $200,000, which has been provided for in ten bonds of $20,000 each. These are described in the prospectus as thirty-year, 34 per cent, semi-annual, registered, non-optional funding bonds, and principal and interest have been made payable at the banking house of Kountze Bros. in New York.

INJUNCTION CASE ARGUMENT

Judges McPherson and Munger Listen to Lawyers for Ten Hours.

In the United States district court yesterday, with Judge McPherson of Iowa sitting with Judge Munger of Nebraska, the argument in the application of the Union Pacific Railroad company for an injunction against its striking employes was in prog-

The ten hours allowed by the judges for the argument were divided equally between the parties. John N. Baldwin for the company is to speak for three hours, followed by Ed P. Smith, who will speak for three hours on behalf of the respondents. He will be followed by Mr. Baldwin, who will speak for an hour. C. J. Smyth will argue for an hour's speech. With this division of time the arguments will not be concluded until Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. It is not expected that an immediate decision will be given, as Judge Munger may desire to write an opinion and he will open court at Lincoln Wednesday morning, so that it may be a week or more before a decision i reached.

It is said that the attorneys for the respondents will not oppose an order restraining certain of the respondents, admitting that a few have been guilty of actions which cannot be defended, but they will present the question of the lawfulness of the picket ress of invention has made it possible and line and ask a decision upon that question.

BOYS DISAPPEAR FROM HOME DINNER TO AK-SAR-BEN BOARD

Sons of W. E. Jehnson Are Lost and Cannot Be Traced.

NOT SEEN HERE SINCE LAST THURSDAY Lads May Have Gone to Neighboring Town to Attend Street Fair, but Police Are Unable to Find Them.

The disappearance of Albert Johnson, aged 14 years, and Lee Johnson, aged 11 ears, sons of W. E. Johnson, from their home in Benson Thursday morning, is mystery. All efforts of the police of Omaha and South Omaha to discover any trace of the boys have been without avail. Thursday morning the boys were in the yard at their home, playing. Mrs. Johnson called them to get ready for school and then returned to the house. short time she again looked out into the yard and the boys were gone. Mrs. Johnson, thinking they had gone to school, thought nothing of them, having left the yard. At noon they failed to return home and inquiry at the school, which is within two blocks of the Johnson home, developed that they had not been there.

Lee Johnson had about $6 in cash, which his father had given him the night before to do some purchasing, and when the boys did not return home that night it was thought they had taken the money and gone for a trip.

But as no trace of them has been found the father and the police are at a loss to account for their disappearance. Neither of the boys had ever ran away from home before and had not been away for a night except to visit their grandmother downtown. They were always supplied with spending money and last week their father and purchased a horse for them. To none of their playmates had they ever intimated, so far as the police have discovered, any desire to leave home. Both of the boys had been regular attendants at the street carnival and it is possible they have gone to one of the neighboring lowns to attend a street fair. At the time of their disappearance Albert wore a dark coat, bicycle pants of a light color, with a dark stripe down the sides, a pair of new shoes and a skull Lee wore a black sweater, dark blue coat and knee trousers, a cap and old

Mr. Johnson, the father of the boys, was for twenty-seven years an engineer in the employ of the Union Pacific Railroad company, but for the last year he has been in the poultry business at Benson

Those Men's Suits 3

We advertised on Saturday are not all gone yet, by any means. There isn't much danger of their being all gone for several days to come. It is not like "The Nebraska" to advertise an article as "special" and have only enough to last a few hours. People know this and that's perhaps why we didn't sell more than 200 of these suits Saturday when we ought to have sold twice that number, going by the big values they are. It isn't often you have a chance to buy suits that are positively worth $15 for $10. That's why we should be selling three and four hundred of these suits a day. But there's no hurry. Suit yourself as to time. Only don't blame us if you come here in a week or ten days and find every other fellow's size but yours.
