SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.—Bir James Mackay has arrived here on the steamer Coptic. from China, where for a number of months past, as the diplomatic representative of Great Britain, he looked after the protection of the British trade in the framing of China's new tariff. Incidentally he negotiated a new British commercial treaty with China, which has been formally signed and is to become effective one year from next January. He is now on his way back to England, accompanied by Lady Mackay, Miss Mackay and Lieutenant Brocker of the British navy.
