

Miss Lillian Ramsey

A Prominent Club Woman of Denver and Her Mother Tell What Warner's Safe Cure Has Done for Them.

New York's Most Successful Specialist in Woman's Diseases Says: "Nearly Every Case of So-Called Female Weakness and Painful Periods Is Due to Kidney or Bladder Disease of Some Form."

If You Have Pains in the Back and Feel Miserable, Make a Test of Your Urine and Satisfy Yourself.

MISS LILLIAN RAMSEY.

Miss Lillian Ramsey, President of the Denver Quincy Club of Denver, Colo., says: "I was ill down, suffering from kidney disease, diabetes, rheumatism, neuritis, and indigestion. My urine in my back and suffered until misery during my monthly periods until I was as strong and healthy as any woman could be. My mother suffered for over two years with what our doctor called 'weakness' and she had great pain in her back and her head ached almost constantly; in fact, she was an invalid until she began to take Warner's Safe Cure. Three bottles made a permanent cure. She has no more of her old troubles and enjoys perfect health. All her complications have disappeared, and she is the picture of health and happiness. Had my mother taken Warner's Safe Cure in the first place, instead of a lot of so-called cures for female weakness, she would have never had a great deal of suffering. We will never be without a tonic of Warner's Safe Cure in the house, and we are better off than we were before the merits of Warner's Safe Cure she might be restored to perfect health."

Thousands who have died from kidney disease can now live again because it had poisoned their systems before they knew it, might have been saved had they known the true condition of their kidneys. Put some morning urine in a glass or bottle, let it stand 24 hours; if it is cloudy or has sediment, it is kidney trouble. If your kidneys are diseased, and if not attended to at once your life will be cut off with Bright's disease, diabetes, ureic acid poison, indigestion and stomach trouble, which are so often caused by the disease.

A free trial bottle has often been sufficient to cure cases of kidney disease when simple home remedy described above has been made in the earlier stages of the disease.

BOWEN ASKS FOR WAR SHIPS

Minister at Caracas Says the Situation is Becoming Critical.

RIOTING AND PILLAGE IS FEARED

Occupation of the Capital of Venezuela by Revolutionary Forces Will Be Attended with Danger for Foreigners.

CARACAS, Oct. 15.—United States Minister Bowen has cabled to Washington requesting that warships be sent to La Guaya. The situation is extremely critical.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—United States Minister Bowen at Caracas has cabled to Washington asking that one, or perhaps two, more warships be sent to reinforce the gunboat Marlineta at La Guaya in view of the present critical situation which has arisen at the Venezuelan capital.

Some time ago, when President Castro left his capital, Minister Bowen expressed to the State department his fears that an occupation of the capital by the revolutionary forces would result in rioting and pillage and attend with greater danger to unimportant foreigners. At a session, it is inferred here, is again imminent.

The nearest war vessel in the scene of trouble is the gunboat Montgomery, which left Hayti about the first of this month for Santa Marta, near the mouth of the Magdalena river in Colombia, to look into the troubled situation. Owing to the interruption to cable communication the Navy department has received no report from Montgomery since it left Hayti, and it is feared that even if its services at Santa Marta are not now needed it cannot be reached with dispatch.

Panther is still at Colon and Cincinnati has just arrived in Haytian waters. There are several gunboats and cruisers which are destined for the Caribbean section, which are ready for active service—namely, Newark, Machias at Boston, Hatteras at New London, and Detroit at Portsmouth, N. H.

From Minister Bowen's advices it appears that a vessel is needed at the earliest possible moment, so it is probable that either Panther or Cincinnati will be ordered from its present station and sent to the Venezuelan capital.

The following cablegram received at the State department this morning from Minister Bowen, dated last night at Caracas, shows the critical condition of affairs in the field:

The army is still near Valencia. No particulars obtainable. Valencia closely surrounded and battle going on now.

ward. After a few moments of conversation Lynch was whirled away to the Eighth ward, where he met his friends.

"They introduced him to a man named Fowler and in a short time he was again at the city hall for an Eighth ward affidavit and back again to vote. The man Fowler was met at the saloon a half block east of the polling place.

Lynch also said he voted in the First ward, being furnished a name by a party who talked with a man who held a book, which appeared to be a copy of the registry of voters.

Easy Up in the Eighth.

"At the McClellan camp a number of persons were met who were willing to admit that they had visited Omaha on primary election day, but they were not disposed to give the snap away. However, they were somewhat disposed to talk when the Bee representative stated he had been there and had been sent there to work and vote for Meeker.

"One of them said he had been to town and read an Omaha paper in which it was stated that graders had been over to Omaha to vote and that they might get into trouble, and this discussion cut short the conversation at supper on the evening of Monday, September 28. That evening, at a later hour, when indulging in a game of cards, one of the men gave his experience.

I made up that Friday, I voted twice in the Eighth ward and was sworn in by the same men both times. They didn't know me, but I was known to the balance of the boys in the Milwaukee yards, and then went to Lee Mitchell's apartment with Norton and went to the polls and voted. We got out in front of the polls and walked to the saloon to have a drink and look for Fowler. He would have a roll of yellow papers in his hand and would be at or near the saloon. I asked several until I found out outside. The slip had been printed on red and white cardboard, looked like a railway ticket, and this gave to him the name of the voter and the date and place. His name was written.

When it was given me Norton took a book from his pocket and wrote down a name and address, wrote the word "Fowler" and put figure 8 at the end and told us how to reach that place. This ticket was taken into a carhouse on Douglas street and got into a carhouse on Cuming street.

I took a motor to Omaha and got into a carhouse on Douglas street and got into a carhouse on Cuming street.

It is understood also that the wording of the mine operators' proposition, omitting any reference to the miners' union, does not meet Mr. Mitchell's approval. He desires, if possible, to obtain some formal recognition of the union, although that is a technicality which he may waive subsequently, as, by agreement to arbitrate the controversy, the miners will get a general exchange of congratulations.

Convention Must Meet.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Oct. 15.—President Mitchell arrived here from Washington at 1:35 this morning. He was met at the railroad station by National Secretary Wilson. The announcement from Washington that the strike was settled was read to him while he was surrounded by a small army of newspaper men.

He was immediately congratulated, and in reply he said:

Your congratulations should be withheld until we see who the six representatives on the commission are.

I understand that I left Washington at the time when the six men were to be appointed before the joint meeting of the two assemblies of the anthracite region at their meeting at 10 this morning. I will wait upon the miners' full statement issued by Mr. Corleyton.

In reply to the question whether he would comply with the president's request that coal mining be resumed immediately, he said he would make a more definite answer when he knew more about the matter.

Only the newspaper correspondents were at the headquarters when the news was first received, about twenty-five minutes before Mr. Mitchell arrived.

After his interview with the reporters in the hotel lobby Mr. Mitchell went to his office on the second floor, where he was closed with Mr. Wilson.

While there the correspondent of the Associated Press again went to him for further enlightenment on the situation regarding immediate resumption and he made the positive statement that a delegate convention must first pass upon the question of calling off the strike.

From the calling of the convention to its adjournment is only a matter of three or four days.

There is hardly any doubt that a convention will stand by any agreement he has made to President Roosevelt.

If a convention is held it will probably be called together within four days. While Wilkes-Barre is more centrally located there is the probability that Wilkes-Barre would be the location because headquarters are here. About 800 delegates would be in attendance.

The general strike situation is unchanged.

Two additional men being recruited by the coal companies. The soldiers passed a quiet day. They made the usual morning tours through the region to protect men going to work.

Hoped for Speedy Success.

SCRANTON, Pa., Oct. 15.—The miners who would dismiss the arbitration at all times were generally adverse to its acceptance, but were satisfied to do whatever President Mitchell thought best. There was a strong hope prevalent among the people at large that President Roosevelt would call a meeting of the anthracite miners and impartial tribunal could be selected.

When the word came that Mr. Mitchell had called a meeting of the district boards this hope grew into a firm belief that President Roosevelt had succeeded and that tomorrow would see something that would indicate a close approach of the end.

Secretary Shaw is on his way to Oakland City, Ind., where he will deliver a political speech tomorrow evening. When questioned regarding the statement that the secretary planned to recruit a stock of bonds, the officials here declared in the absence of the secretary to talk, except to say that the report was without foundation.

The fact that the secretary so far has declined all bond offers is taken to indicate that he is not at present, at least, in the market.
