Malley, Alliance, $5; Ebenezer Harde, Centerville, $5; Paul Hansen, Wood River, $5; Jacob Bennett, University Place, $17; Paul Platt, Tecumseh, $17; Charles C. Cranfall, Cheyenne, $17; George H. Wood, Fort Crook, $17 (war with Spain).

MEAT INSPECTION ORDINANCE UNDERGOES A CRITICAL EXAMINATION.

CITY CLERK SHRIGLEY spent a portion of his time yesterday in going over the old records of the council in relation to the meat inspection controversy.

MEAT INSPECTION ORDINANCE UNDERGOES A CRITICAL EXAMINATION.

Next comes ordinance No. 117 creating the office of stock inspector and then this is followed by ordinance No. 155 providing a salary of $50 a month for the stock inspector.

MEAT INSPECTION ORDINANCE UNDERGOES A CRITICAL EXAMINATION.

In his official notice Mayor Kautsky declared the ordinance of meat inspector vacant, but made no mention of a stock inspector. It is presumed that the mayor will issue a new ordinance in the next meeting of the council, making a correction.

MEAT INSPECTION ORDINANCE UNDERGOES A CRITICAL EXAMINATION.

One portion of the ordinance creating the office of stock inspector says that the incumbent may be removed for cause by the mayor, with the concurrence of the council.

Walk Needs Repairing. The sidewalk on the north side of J street between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth streets is in a deplorable condition.

MEAT INSPECTION ORDINANCE UNDERGOES A CRITICAL EXAMINATION.

This walk is a plank one and a count yesterday showed that in the distance of one block twenty-four planks were missing.

MEAT INSPECTION ORDINANCE UNDERGOES A CRITICAL EXAMINATION.

Members of the Presbyterian church which is located at Twenty-fifth and J streets are anxious that this walk be repaired as soon as possible.

MEAT INSPECTION ORDINANCE UNDERGOES A CRITICAL EXAMINATION.

Several efforts have been made to have this one block graded, but some of the property owners are always objecting to the city under a new charter.

MEAT INSPECTION ORDINANCE UNDERGOES A CRITICAL EXAMINATION.

It is unable to do anything. It can, however, repair the walk at a comparatively small expense.

Teamsters Getting Together. The local teamsters' union has issued a call for a special meeting on Sunday next, when it is expected that definite steps may be taken to secure an increase in wages.

MEAT INSPECTION ORDINANCE UNDERGOES A CRITICAL EXAMINATION.

At the present time the union here has about seventy-five members, but efforts are being made to increase this membership to 150 as soon as possible.

MEAT INSPECTION ORDINANCE UNDERGOES A CRITICAL EXAMINATION.

It was stated at a regular meeting of the teamsters that a regular schedule of wages between Kansas and Nebraska, Kansas was represented by Patrick and Neumann, while Wright and Tyner wielded the racket, for Nebraska.

MEAT INSPECTION ORDINANCE UNDERGOES A CRITICAL EXAMINATION.

Nebraska started things with a rush in the double and triple team work. The Kansas university men took a brace in the second set, however, and won 6-4, playing altogether too fast a game for the cornhuskers.

MEAT INSPECTION ORDINANCE UNDERGOES A CRITICAL EXAMINATION.

The last set was a close contest, but by the end of the Kansas game, the Cornhuskers in the singles this afternoon Wright and Peitshans were very evenly matched.

MEAT INSPECTION ORDINANCE UNDERGOES A CRITICAL EXAMINATION.

Wright hit the better of Peitshans in his hand and his playing was of the first quality throughout. Peitshans gave him a very hard race, however, although darkness was against the Kansas toward the last. The score in the singles was 9-4, 3-6, 7-5.

Harry L. Carpenter, manager of the stock yards at Lincoln, which were recently purchased by W. J. C. Kenyon, general manager of the Union Stock Yards company here, was in the city yesterday and said that he is doing a good business.

MEAT INSPECTION ORDINANCE UNDERGOES A CRITICAL EXAMINATION.

The yards at Lincoln now feed livestock for this market. A rest in transit is given and the result is that the stock arrive at this market in much better shape than formerly.

Enlarging the Choir. An effort is being made to enlarge the choir at St. Martin's church, and Rev. James Wils, the rector, has requested the papers to say that boys, women and men were requested to join the choir.

MEAT INSPECTION ORDINANCE UNDERGOES A CRITICAL EXAMINATION.

From this time on there will be choir practice every Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Prof. F. H. Wright, organist of Trinity cathedral, will direct the choir at practice. All applications for places in the choir should be made to Rector Wils.

Sixty Days for Coal. South Omaha coal dealers were greatly pleased yesterday to learn that the strike in the anthracite regions had practically been settled.

MEAT INSPECTION ORDINANCE UNDERGOES A CRITICAL EXAMINATION.

It is not expected that any extensive shipments of hard coal will be received here for about sixty days. Some of the local dealers, however, have stocks of the east where anthracite is used almost exclusively, will be supplied before shipments are directed toward the west.

MEAT INSPECTION ORDINANCE UNDERGOES A CRITICAL EXAMINATION.

Livestock shippers to this market continue to complain about the western car famine. Many shippers report that it is almost impossible to secure cars when needed.

MEAT INSPECTION ORDINANCE UNDERGOES A CRITICAL EXAMINATION.

On the other hand, railroad officials are reported as saying that every effort is being made to secure sufficient cars for the transportation of stock to this market. One railroad official stated yesterday that if there was a car famine on now it would not last long, as arrangements were being made to get all available stock cars in service as soon as possible.

MEAT INSPECTION ORDINANCE UNDERGOES A CRITICAL EXAMINATION.

While hog receipts are a little low at the present time, the receipts of cattle are above the average. The same may be said of sheep. Local commission men say that most likely the hog dealers will see that is made up by the end of the calendar year.
