Our cloak buyer's third trip to New York this season has been the most successful we have known him to make in a number of years. Our trade's so enormous and increasing so quickly, that it was necessary to go a third time-something unusual for any house between Chicago and San Francisco. He was fortunate in striking the market at just the correct time. The weather east was wet and unseasonable; the strike in the coal regions and in other parts of the country made the manufacturers uneasy and anxious to unload. Any reasonable cash offer was accepted
