CITY STREETS TOO DIRTY

Mayor Morgan Returns From His Western Trip With a New Idea.

PROPOSES TO HAVE PAVEMENTS CLEANED

Funds for Purpose are Short, but Expresses Belief That Enough Can be Squeezed Out for the Purpose.

Mayor Morgan's recent western trip convinced him that one of the cities he visited had as dirty streets as Council Bluffs and since his return home he has made up his mind that something must be done at once to improve their appearance.

The mayor is also determined that the custom of merchants and others of throwing refuse into the streets shall be stopped and that the city ordinance governing this matter shall be rigidly enforced.

Adams Express Company Indicted for Breach of Iowa Prohibition Law.

KEOKUK, Ia., Oct. 22.—The grand jury today returned an indictment against the Adams Express company for a violation of the internal revenue laws. Persons at Birmingham, Ia., received C. O. D. packages of whiskey from Illinois and paid the express agent.

The grand jury held that the C. O. D. method of delivery constituted a sale of goods by the express companies and required a retail liquor license.

The case arose out of efforts of people in many Iowa communities to prevent the sale of liquor, and the efforts of dealers to circumvent the prohibitory law.

The indictment today is considered the most important step in the prohibition struggle in Iowa since the "original package" decision fifteen years ago.
