STEPS IN FRONT OF A TRAIN

Earl Burke, a Newspaper Carrier, Killed on the Union Pacific Tracks.

WAS PICKING UP COAL AT THE TIME IN ATTEMPT TO AVOID A SWITCH ENGINE

He Steps Directly in Front of a Rock Island Passenger Train.

Earl Burke, the 14-year-old son of Edwin Burke, living on Tenth avenue and Thirtieth street, was run down and instantly killed by a Rock Island passenger train on an early hour yesterday morning on the Union Pacific tracks near the east approach to the bridge. The young lad with a companion of about his own age was picking up coal along the track and the accident occurred almost within sight of his home.

Young Burke, accompanied by Ed Kelley, the son of a gardener living at Sixteenth avenue and Thirtieth street, started out about 6 o'clock to pick up coal along the tracks. They had partially filled a sack when they noticed a switch engine going west bearing down on them. Young Kelley was a little away down the track from the other boy and stepped clear of the tracks to the side of the embankment, but young Burke, who apparently did not notice the Rock Island passenger train coming from the east, stepped directly in front of the passenger. The body was horribly mangled, the head being severed from the trunk and both arms and legs being crushed. The remains were removed to Lunkey's undertaking rooms, where Coroner Treynor will hold an inquest Monday. Young Burke was a newspaper carrier. The funeral will be held at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon from Lunkey's undertaking parlors. Burial will be in Fairview cemetery.

The miners have all gone to work and the great, long strings of cars will be hauling thousands of tons soon for the consumers. Anyhow don't fail to call on us for anything in the stove line. To Paint and Paint Right. You must have good paints. All paints are not good because they claim to be. It depends upon the one who sells you the paints, to a great extent. A reliable house, depending upon your future patronage, would not care to sell you poor paints. That's the ground we stand upon. We do not want to make one sale to you and then have you quit us because of some poor article we sold you. We are after your perpetual trade and will sell you only the best of goods made. Our Celebrated Lincoln House Paints. Are the best ready-mixed paints on the market. If you paint your house with these paints you will be sure of being satisfied. We also have Tipton's barn and wagon paints, decorative enamel, and fine varnishes. We know we can please you if you will figure with us for your paints and painters' supplies.
