ANDREWS GIVEN MORE TIME Bond is Increased Practically from One Hundred Thousand Boliars to Double that Sum.

LANSING, Mich., Oct. 29 .- The supreme ourt today decided in the matter of the ball of Frank C. Andrews of Detroit, the convicted former vice president of the defunct City Savings bank, that the sureties on his $100,000 bail bond must be able to qualify in the aggregate to the amount of $200,000, but that each one need not qualify in the sum of $100,000. The court also held that Judge Murphy can accept any reasonable number of sureties on the bond. Judge Murphy yesterday decided that each of Andrews' bondsmen must qualify in the sum of $100,000 and Andrewa' attorneys took the case to the supreme court today.

When Andrews was granted bail by the supreme court two weeks ago he was given fifteen days in which to produce his bondsmen. Owing to this fatest ruling in regard to their qualifications, the court today extended this time fifteen days.
