

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Coal Dealers Unite in Raising Price of Bituminous Twenty-Five Cents.

FURTHER ADVANCES ARE LOOKED FOR

Scarcity of Supply and Enormous Demand Combine to Give Dealers Their Grounds for Making the Increase.

A meeting of South Omaha coal dealers was held yesterday afternoon and the coal situation was discussed at some length. It was agreed by all that the price for bituminous coal, recently adopted in Omaha, should prevail here.

While the anthracite coal question was talked over no steps were taken, as it was decided that nothing could be done at this time to hasten shipments. All of the dealers have orders in and the statement was made that shipments to South Omaha would be made shortly after January 1.

Contracts for coal at the school buildings are being filed and Superintendent McLean does not look for any delay in filling the orders given by the board.

The advance in prices will not affect contracts made prior to this date, but from this time on until there is a big supply on hand soft coal will continue to go up, at least that is the prediction here now.

Republican Rally.

A last grand rally of republicans was held at the Tropic armory last night. The meeting was upon the auspices of the South Omaha Republican club.

Mayor Koutsky has directed the police to look sharply after all persons peddling without a license.

Edward Stegeman was admitted to bail late yesterday afternoon by Police Judge King.

Stegeman, it is alleged, will be tried for assault and battery for throwing a meat cleaver at A. Pearson.

City Treasurer Hennings decided yesterday after reviewing the condition of the money market that two or three weeks hence would be a better time than now for the sale of the funding bonds.

There were two bids, both of which offered a premium, but considering the fact that all night in New York is quoted almost cent of money at the present time.

Yesterday City Engineer Beal made a trip to the northwestern part of the city and inspected the work now being done by the Elkhorn road.

Within the last few days a number of spurious silver dollars have been passed on local merchants.

Miles Mitchell, formerly chief of police here, has gone west for an extended trip.

Jack Burda, twenty-first and I streets, is laid up with a severe case of blood poisoning.

C. M. Swan of Sioux City, who spent a few days here looking over the city as the guest of B. E. Wilcox, returned to his home last night.

that South Omaha was a good point for investors. It is expected that the registration today will be the heaviest of any of the previous days this year.

J. W. Christie is back from Dexter, Ia., where he spent a couple of weeks with friends and relatives.

On account of illness, two or three changes in the members of the registration board have been made by the council.

The fire department was called to Eighteenth and W streets yesterday afternoon, but the blaze proved to be so small that no lines were not laid.

HALLOWEEN PASSES QUIETLY

Mischiefvous Youths Take Their License, but Bring No Serious Disturbance.

Halloween, in the present stage of its evolution, is distinctively a young people's festival, and in its observance as it is now observed the elders have no participation and no part except such as may be forced upon them much against their will, and cannot give countenance except in a fugitive way or by patient toleration.

The grandparents and great-grandparents of the present rising generation, while making this holiday an occasion for frivolity of a certain kind, maintained a certain decorum with it that has gradually disappeared until the latter day Halloween has come to be merely the one time in the calendar year when the sons—and in some cases the daughters—of law-abiding citizens may feel at liberty to do things that at another time would promptly land them in the lockup.

The weather of last night was not favorable to out-of-door amusement, but with almost unlimited license for mischief the youth of Omaha was not to be deterred by that, although his possibilities were circumscribed by the fact that there were fewer of his elders abroad.

Throughout the evening the numerous members of the jack-o'-lantern family prowled abroad and citizens were summoned to their doors to find no one awaiting admission, while others were annoyed by the mysterious "tick-tack" or the blowing of horns and ringing of cowbells.

The night, however, was not without its share of decorous observance, and it was made the occasion for a number of pleasant social events, a large proportion of which were for the juvenile element.

SANTA MARIA STILL BURNS

Pours Out More Ashes Onto the Growing Coffee Crop.

MEXICANS BECOME ALARMED AT ERUPTION

Tell Renewed Stories of Danger and Trouble, Though Guatemala President Describes Reports as Libels on His Mountain.

TAPACHULA, State of Chiapas, Mexico, Oct. 31.—There is continued alarm here over the eruption of Santa Maria, in Guatemala. For fifty-three hours the city was almost totally dark.

On the coast the falling ashes covered the decks of ships in Port San Benito. Subterranean rumblings have been almost constant here.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—Felip Garcia, consul at San Francisco for Bolivia and Guatemala, has received from the president of Guatemala the following telegram relative to the eruption of the volcano of Santa Maria:

It is true the volcano is in eruption, but without any damage.

A message from the superintendent of the Ocos railroad states that the volcano has been in continuous eruption since October 24 and ashes to the depth of twelve inches have fallen on the terraces of the line.

Officers of the Pacific steamer Colon, which has arrived here, state that when the vessel was lying in the port of Acapulca, Salvador, on the morning of October 16 there was a sudden and violent eruption of the volcano of Isalco, twenty miles in the interior of Salvador, and great excitement was occasioned among the peon class.

From the city and port a great cloud of black smoke was seen to shoot up to a great height from Isalco's peak, whence neither smoke nor fire had come for five or six months. The natives, when they saw the eruption, anticipated earthquakes and tidal waves, but within an hour the big black cap on Isalco had drifted away and the volcano was again apparently quiet.

SHOPS AND SHOPPERS IN JAPAN

is the title of a copy-right article which tells of some of the features of everyday life in the mikado's empire. How the vegetables, fowl, etc., for the table, the flowers for adornment and all other articles of necessity or luxury are handled by the tradesmen of Japan is told in this article, which is illustrated from photographs made by the author.

NEBRASKA GRAND ARMY VETERANS

made a fine showing in the grand review recently held at Washington, but all their time was not spent in marching. A full page of pictures will show the boys and their wives and daughters enjoyed themselves from the time they viewed Niagara falls until after they had visited the president.

American goods have penetrated the silk country of Franco and Frank G. Carpenter tells how the features of everyday life in the mikado's empire. How the vegetables, fowl, etc., for the table, the flowers for adornment and all other articles of necessity or luxury are handled by the tradesmen of Japan is told in this article, which is illustrated from photographs made by the author.

BLIND MATHEMATICIAN LOUIS CARL

has long been known to students of higher mathematics, but is seldom heard of by the public. That a man totally blind should be able to solve the most intricate problems and to hold a place among the foremost teachers seems singular, but it is true. A special article in The Illustrated Bee will tell about Prof. Carl and how he came to adopt his profession.

SEWAD COUNTY'S WALNUT LUMBER

isn't known to many Nebraskans, but it is being shipped to England by the carload. A fine view of a scene where the logs are being gotten out will be found in The Illustrated Bee on Sunday, along with a number of other equally interesting pictures not connected with the text, and several pictures of people who are the public problem.

G. W. WATTLES TOO BUSY TO ACT

Compelled to Decline Requests to Become President of Auditorium Company.

Friday evening G. W. Wattles said: "I have been asked repeatedly to become president of the Auditorium company since it has been learned that Mr. Barton had declined to serve. I have told the members of the board that while I am willing to do all in my power to advance the interests of the enterprise, it will be impossible for me to take the presidency of the company. My business occupies so much of my time that I am unable to give to the company the time and attention which the president must devote to it if he is to fill the office as it should be filled."

JOHN B. BIRMINGHAM DIES SUDDENLY

A telegram was received last night in this city from Coroner Graham of Sioux City, Ia., announcing the sudden death there of John B. Birmingham, who lived at 2870 Farnam street. Mr. Birmingham had gone to the depot at about 4 o'clock to take the train for Omaha, and was there stricken down with heart disease, living only a short time, and the remains were taken in charge by the coroner until relatives could be communicated with. Mr. Birmingham was notified last night and will go to Sioux City this morning. There are no children and no other relatives here.

FRISCO RAILROAD IS SOLD

President and Another Man Buy the St. Louis & San Francisco.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—The following statement was issued from the office of St. Louis & San Francisco railroad in this city today: B. F. Yoakum and James Campbell of St. Louis, have purchased the St. Louis & San Francisco railroad from the trustees of the Cheney estate of Boston. B. F. Cheney who is one of the trustees retains his personal holdings which are large.

LORENZ CONTINUES OPERATING

Treats Two Children, but Refuses Others as Too Little for His Knife.

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 31.—Prof. Adolph Lorenz, the celebrated Austrian surgeon, performed an operation on two little children here for congenital dislocation of the hip. Both operations were highly successful.

Nothing so Good for Coughs and Colds

Mr. J. N. Perkins, druggist of Colton, Okl., who has been in business eleven years, says of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy that during all this time he has never had a bottle of this remedy returned as not having given satisfaction, proving conclusively that this preparation will do all that is claimed for it. There is nothing so good as this remedy for coughs, colds and croup. It is pleasant to take and, as it contains no injurious substance, may be given to a child with perfect confidence.

HORN ASKS FOR A NEW TRIAL

Attorneys Assert They Have Confession that Another Killed Willie Nickell.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Oct. 31.—(Special.)—The motion for a new trial in the Tom Horn murder case will not be argued until some time next week, when, it is said, Horn's attorneys will make some sensational charges on which to base their application for a new trial.

One of the attorneys for Horn said today that he had secured the confession of the man that killed Willie Nickell, and that this confession would be used as an argument to secure a new trial.

The prediction is made that he will not be granted a new trial, and also that when he is satisfied he will be hanged he will make a full confession, giving the names of the men who are alleged to have hired him to kill the boy and commit other crimes that have occurred in this county during the past few years.

GOES OVER HIGH PRECIPICE

John Simmons Falls One Hundred Feet at Deadwood and is Dead When Found.

DEADWOOD, S. D., Oct. 31.—(Special Telegram.)—John Simmons, who was a packer in the government service in Cuba, fell from a precipice in lower Deadwood some time last night and his body was found near the railroad track at the Elkhorn roundhouse.

He dropped nearly 100 feet sheer. He had been dead several hours when found. It is believed that he was walking along the Spearfish road when he fell.

New Bank at Sioux Falls

SIoux FALLS, S. D., Oct. 31.—(Special.)—Sioux Falls is to have a new banking institution in the near future. It will be known as the People's Savings bank. The names of those who will start and the sum at which it will be capitalized have not yet been made public.

Fireman Crashed to Death. LARAMIE, Wyo., Oct. 31.—(Special.)—Everett Horning, a locomotive fireman, was killed at Howells station yesterday while uncoupling his engine from the train.

Augustana College Prospers

SIoux FALLS, S. D., Oct. 31.—(Special.)—Augustana college, at Canton, is enjoying a great degree of prosperity. The fall term opened a week or two ago with an enrollment of sixty-five and this has already been increased to about 100.

THE REALTY MARKET.

INSTRUMENTS placed on record Friday, October 31: Laura M. Cox and husband to J. A. Thompson, lots 13 and 14, Ludwick place, $1,900.

Amusements.

At the Boyd. "Down by the Sea" might have stayed there and theatrical annals of the west would have been just as readable. So long as it has been torn from its anchorage and brought 1,500 miles from tidewater one may be pardoned for asking "Why?"

Church Damaged by Fire. St. John's Methodist Episcopal church (colored), Eighteenth and Webster streets, had a close call at 2 o'clock this morning.

Marriage Licenses.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to: Name and Residence. Age. Henry Slek, Omaha, 27.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

All Saints' day services will be held in all Saints' church today at 7:30 and 10:30 a. m.

The Omaha Philosophical society will meet in the parlors of the Paxton hotel at 2:30 Sunday afternoon.
