ROOSEVELT AND MITCHELL.

Some Enthusiast Suggests These Names for President and Vice President.

THE BANKERS RESERVE LIFE

Holds Both in High Regard as Executive Officers and Second the Suggestion.

Theodore Roosevelt must commit some extremely egregious blunder to lose his prestige for a nomination in 1904. At present no candidate seems likely to enter the lists against him.

John Mitchell, by his moderation and good hard sense in the trying times of the great strike, has made a place for himself in the hearts of the American people—a people always impressed by manliness.

THE TWO NAMES WOULD DRAW

votes from the working people and lose few from the capitalistic class. Both enjoy in a large measure the confidence of the country. In this great west, we are pretty busy just now and cannot devote much thought to a campaign two autumns distant. We are devoting our energies to a development of latent resources and the upbuilding of financial institutions like which was founded in Omaha, by Omaha people in 1897. It began its aggressive career as a standard life company under the law of 1899 and since that date has placed over $5,000,000 upon its books. From the small beginning in 1897 the company has grown until now it banks from $15,000 to $20,000 per month in cash premiums. Its second annual dividends to board members have just been paid and the State of Nebraska resounds in praise for the new company.

THE BANKERS RESERVE LIFE,

H. H. ROBINSON, PRESIDENT.

needs assistance in the agency field. New states are to be covered, new territory is available. Experienced underwriters can do better with the Bankers Reserve than with any other life company in existence. Write him to Omaha for circulars and terms.
