FULL OF FIGHT AND FUMBLES

Game Between Creighton and Haskell Provides Lots of Varied Sport.

INDIANS WIN, BUT LOCALS SHOW STRONG

Resistance of the Omaha Team Proves Genuine Surprise to the Redskins, Who Play Desperately All Through.

Mallé'o tea, ta lau malolosi! Haskell Indians 17, Creighton 6.

Whenever the more or less immediate descendents of the "auld sod" and the only partially trammeled sons of the warlike redskin get together there is something doing. It was done yesterday. Thrice it was only the cool head of the bystander which averted a generl row, and there was, besides, a fight in the grand stand, which had nothing to do with game or players. Mullaley of Creighton played dirty ball until put out of the game, and the Indian Dubois was so enraged at being retired that he deliberately smashed Welch in the face, nearly knocking him out. The Indian probably did not know or care who he struck, and his action was without excuse.

Although Creighton caught the Indians at their worst, when they were just from a drubbing at Lincoln Saturday, and Redwater, their star guard, and Captain Fallis were out of the lineup, yet the local team made an unexpectedly good showing, and in the first half there was little to choose between the teams. The Indians showed a superior hardness, either acquired or inherited, and never required time out for injuries. They showed much tenacity in pushing through the line and tackled well. A number of Creighton's best gains and only score were made on the delayed pass trick, which seemed to fool the red men every time. For Creighton Callahan was excellent at dodging and tackled finely. Eddie Creighton did the kicking well. Welch and Walker were good for ground most of the time. Bain and Archiquette, the Haskell halfbacks, ran swiftly and eluded tacklers deftly, and hit the line hard. A large crowd watched the game with interest.

Nice Work by Creighton.

At 2:40 Dubois, the Indian righ tackle, kicked off for Haskell, Creighton defending the south goal. The ball sailed for thirty-five yards and was returned to the forty-yard line. On the first down Callahan got sixteen yards around left end on a delayed pass. Creighton made the necessary five yards in the next three downs through the line. A try to circle right end was a failure. Then Welch hurdled the line for four, Walker got three through right tackle, Welch made good for four feet against the line and the next try netted enough for first down again. Mustain tried right end and was downed for a two-yard loss. The next down gave the Indians the ball because of holding in the line. The red men fumbled on the first play, but fell on the pigskin. Hauser only made two yards through center and Haskell was forced to punt, the ball going forty-five yards. One of the Indian ends was down the field like a streak of lightning and threw Welch just as the ball touched his hands, for which Haskell was penalized fifteen yards. Creighton got the ball at the next play through a fumble and lost it immediately in the same manner. A brave broke through left guard for eight yards and was downed by Callahan. The next two downs added one yard through right tackle and four on center. Then Bain, taking the chance of a fine hole between right end and tackle, and cleverly dodging along, carried the ball to within four feet of the goal line. Next play he carried it past left end for a touchdown after twelve minutes of play. Dubois kicked the goal. Haskell 6, Creighton 0.

Creighton Ties the Score.

Eddie Creighton kicked off forty-five yards for Omaha and the ball was returned ten yards. Then the red men took six yards around Hobbs and eight more past Roney. Then Creighton was penalized ten yards for off side play, but got the ball next down on a fumble. Welch pushed ahead for two yards, Eddie Creighton and Walker made short gains, but on next the Indians held and took the ball on their five-yard line. Archiquette slipped past left and ran forty yards, but lost the ball when thrown. Creighton fooled the red men with a delayed pass and Callahan circled left end and eluding tacklers, ran forty five yards for touchdown. This was seven minutes from the second kickoff. Walker kicked an easy goal. Haskell, 6, Creighton, 6.

Mustain returned Dubois' thirty-five yard kickoff eighteen yards. Welch bucked the line for three yards, but Mustain was thrown back of the line on a try at right end. Creighton punted forty yards, ball run back fifteen. The Indians lost on first down and had six to make on third. Punted thirty yards out of bounds. Ball brought in; Walker hit the line for three yards and Eddie Creighton two. Indians got ball on fumble and Bain circled left end for ten yards.

Next four yards around Hobbs. Archiquette slipped past Roney for fifteen yards on double pass, lost ball, but fell for it. Creighton stood nobly and held Indians for downs. Omaha's ball two feet from line. Time called. Score for half, Haskell, 6; Creighton, 6.

Second Half Sees Slugging.

Eddie Creighton kicked off forty yards; Archiquette brought it back twenty-five. The Indians' first down was for no gain. Felix then bucked left tackle for eight yards, then Bain ran across the field, but could not gain. Creighton held for two downs and Haskell punted, ball rolling to line and being brought back to the twenty-five yard line by Callahan. Next down Mullaley of Creighton and Dubois of Haskell were ruled out for slugging. Dubois, very angry, knocked down Welch. Kennedy and Lugo were substituted. Play resumed after much wrangling. Callahan took twelve yards on a delayed pass, five yards were added through the line and Walker lost three. Creighton punted thirty yards and the buck who returned the ball ten yards dropped, but fell on it. The red men made four yards through center, but failed to add to this, so punted. Callahan caught the oval at the goal line and by excellent dodging carried it twelve yards. Creighton tried the line three times, but were held for downs. The Indians only made two and a half on two downs. Then Baln made a beautiful place kick for goal from the thirty-five yard line, the ball sailing squarely between the uprights. Haskell, 11; Creighton, 6.

Indians Playing Hard.

At Omaha's kickoff, Eddie Creighton sent the ball across the goal line, where an Indian fell on it. After this touchback it was brought to the twenty-five yard line for a kick. Indians punted forty yards, Roney running it back six. Walker made his distance through center, and after a down for no gain went around Guyon at right end for seven yards on the next play. Two line bucks netted six yards, but next two downs failed to gain, the last being a fumble. Eddie Creighton then tried for a field goal from the forty-five yard line. The ball went true, but fell short, Lamotte catching it on the five-yard chalk and running twenty-five yards. The Indians then raced the ball down the field making heavy gains at every down, going through and over the line and about the ends. Creighton carried off its feet. Walker hurt and Keppes put in. After five plunges through the line, the Indians put Silvas (who had replaced Miguel) over the line. Bain kicked goal. Score, Haskell, 17; Creighton, 6.

Creighton kicked off forty yards. Archiquette caught the ball and ran forty yards right through the white men, being finally downed by Callahan. Time called. Final score, Haskell, 17; Creighton, 6. The lineup:

BOXER BEATS TWO IN NIGHT

Forbes, Bantam Weight Champion, Defeats Couple of Opponents in One Evening.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—Harry Forbes, the bantam weight champion, met two men in the same ring here tonight and defeated both. His opponents were George Halliday of New York and Billy Finucane of Chicago. Each contest was scheduled for six rounds. Halliday met Forbes first and was knocked out after two minutes of the first round. Halliday was badly outclassed and succumbed to a right swing on the jaw.

After Forbes had rested a few minutes his second opponent, Finucane, faced him. Finucane managed to last the six rounds, but was in bad shape and Forbes was given the verdict. Finucane is young and had fully five pounds the better of the weight, but Forbes' cleverness easily offset this advantage.

Forbes used a left jab, coupled with a right hook to the jaw, that had his opponent in trouble before the end of the second round. Finucane was put down for a count of nine in the third round. The bell saved him from a knockout in the next round. Finucane was knocked down twice in the next round, but resorted to clinching and succeeded in lasting.

In the last Forbes tried hard to finish him, but Finucane just managed to stay through. He was all but out when the final bell rang and had to be assisted to his corner.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Ordinance All Right for the Carnegie Offer to Library Fund.

CITY MAKES NECESSARY PROVISION

Record Shows that Council Passed Ordinance to Take Care of Institution Building After Its Construction.

Mention was made yesterday in The Bee of the fact that Mr. Carnegie called for further data in relation to the compliance of the city with his proposed contribution for a public library here. At first it was though the city had neglected to make any provision for maintenance of the library after its construction. An investigation of the records shows that on January 7, 1902, the city council passed an ordinance providing for the annual levying of a tax sufficient to bring to the library the sum of $5,000 each year, this amount to be used for the support of the institution. It appears that A. R. Kelly, who was mayor at the time refused to sign the ordinance. This was because there was some controversy about the appointing of a library board. The mayor wanted the appointive power wholly in his hands, while the council wanted to have something to say. The matter hung fire for some little time. Finally the ordinance was amended so as to permit the council to name the board and the mayor was ignored.

However, the failure of Mayor Kelly to sign the ordinance does not invalidate it as section 76 of the city charter, which was in force at that time makes allowance for just such cases.

As Kelly did not present a veto the ordinance became a law without the signature of the mayor and the document is held to be good and binding.

Officers of the library board secured a copy of the ordinance in question yesterday and after having it certified to by the city clerk, sent it to Mr. Carnegie at his New York address. The finding of this record will greatly expedite the securing of the proposed donation.

Campaign Closes.

The fall campaign of 1902 closed last night. While the republicans were putting in their time doing good, hard work in every one of the twelve precincts in the city the democrats were busy holding a couple of rallies. Quite a number of prominent republicans expressed the opinion last night that the republican state and county tickets would come out on top. All of the election booths are in position and the judges and clerks have been notified, so that there will be no delay in opening the polls at 8 o'clock this morning.

New Ruling Goes.

The ruling of Judge Baxter in connection with the swearing in of votes will be adhered to by City Clerk Shrigley today. In cases where voters who have failed to register desire to be sworn in the clerk will insist that two freeholders from the precinct in which the voter resides vouch for him. This will be quite a change from the old method and it is thought that on account of the ruling the number ov votes sworn in will fall below the ordinary.

Heavy Feeder Output.

Reports from the Union Stock Yards company show that October broke all previous records in the shipment of feeder cattle and sheep. Buyers from a dozen states were almost constantly on this market with orders to send young stuff to feedlots. The result was that the output was the largest in the history of the yards here. Now that the heavy feeder movement is about over it will not be long before the cattle and sheep sent out of here will be coming back in fine shape and will be sold for fat stock. Iowa and Nebraska were the heaviest purchasers of feeders for the last two months. During September Iowa was the heaviest buyer of cattle feeders, while last month Nebraska led, taking over half the entire output.

Ed Daugherty, one of the old residents of the city and already a cripple by the loss of a leg, was run over by a trolley car at Twenty-fourth and N about 11:30 last night. He was taken to the South Omaha hospital, where he was attended. It is thought by the doctors he will lose his other leg.

A bottle of Prickly Ash Bitters kept in the house and used occasionally means good health to the whole household.

Amusements.

At the Boyd.

Almost half a century has been added to the past since "Uncle Tom's Cabin" was first presented as a play; every condition that called the story into existence has vanished. Slavery no longer exists, Uncle Tom and Simon Legree, Liza and Topsy have long since passed from everything but memory. But sympathetic hearts still yearn with pity or swell with indignation as the tale of the good old darky is unfolded through the action of the play. Tears flow as freely in response to the dying words of Little Eva as ever and laughter springs as spontaneously in response to the pranks of Topsy. As a literary production the story is beyond criticism; as a play it is equally exempt. It has a place very near the heart of the people, a place from which neither flight of time nor change of custom seems potent to dislodge it. Last night at the Boyd theater not a seat nor box was left unoccupied, and many people stood while the Al Martin company gave its modern production of the old play. Tears and laughter, applause and hisses greeted the actors as they went through their mimicry of the actions described in Mrs. Stowe's story. Viewed from the standpoint of either audience or management, the performance was a success.

A special matinee will be given today for the school children, the curtain being held until 3:30. Another performance this evening will close the engagement.

NATIVES DIE LIKE FLIES

Civilization Spreads Disease and Whisky Among Natives of Far North.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—Thousands of natives of Herschal island and along the Arctic coast are dying from measles.

"The march of civilization has increased the death rate from Nome, north, said an old whaling captain today. Two years ago the devastation began. When the natives began to wear civilized men's clothing and drink white man's whisky their decline began. Diseases unheard of attacked them, and, not knowing how to care for themselves, they died rapidly. Pneumonia, rheumatism, grip and every conceivable malady made their appearance and spread all along the coast with appalling results.
