LIGHT VOTE CAST IN IOWA

Republicans Will Have Only About 70,000 Plurality in State.

UNCLE HOD BOIES BEATEN FOR CONGRESS

Democracy's Old War Horse Made a Game Fight, but Couldn't Land the Place He was Looking For.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

DES MOINES, Nov. 4. (Special Telegram.)—Meager returns from the state have been received up to midnight by the committees, but enough has been received to indicate that the republican plurality in the state is about 70,000. This is due to the unusually light vote, as the republicans have suffered more than the democrats.

Chairman Spence said at midnight: "It looks like the plurality would go above the 65,000 mark, which we set a few days ago. The returns show that it has not been possible to get the voters interested in the campaign. The falling off has been general all over the state, and of course we have suffered more than the democrats as compared with two years ago."

The republicans are claiming all the members of congress. The second district is close and the precincts reporting show a less of an edge to the republicans, which would cause the district to be about even, but Senator Hayward telegraphs from Davenport conceding the election of Wade (dem.) by 400. The returns from the Third district indicate that Boies has made a pluralistic loss of 43,000 over Phillips and Herriot for lieutenant governor had a little larger plurality. It was expected that the chief falling off in the vote this year would be with the republicans, which would reduce the pluralities slightly.

Congressional Contests.
The republican pluralities two years ago in most of the districts of Iowa were so large as to discourage the democrats. They were as follows: First district, 3,400; Second, 1,400; Third, 11,000; Fourth, 11,000; Fifth, 9,000; Sixth, 3,000; Seventh, 12,000; Eighth, 5,500; Ninth, 9,000; Tenth, 16,000; Eleventh, 12,000. But the democrats set out to make a campaign in the first four districts, and in the fifth, the chief interest, however, centered in the second district, where all conceded the result to be in doubt. Reports from that district are to the effect that the election day was an exciting one, especially in Davenport, Muscatine, Chicago, Iowa City and other cities of the district. "There was a great deal of hard work done up for Gov. Boies made a great deal of noise. In the First and Sixth there were many places where the contest was fierce."

Local Contests.
The only contest in Des Moines was over a justice of the peace on whom a fight had been made because of an irregular decision in a criminal case. Otherwise the vote was without interest. The county in which Des Moines is situated is now so overwhelmingly republican that but little pains have been taken to get the returns and the exact result will not be known for several days.

Chairman Spence returned from Leon today after voting and received returns at republican headquarters.

Hepburn's Big Lead.
CRESTON, Ia., Nov. 4. (Special Telegram.)—The efforts to find a process for artificially drying soft corn in Iowa so as to make it marketable, have failed and have been abandoned.

Des Moines is not satisfied with the federal state and city directory censuses, and so is arranging to have the letter carriers take another one.

The duck hunting season in Iowa is in full progress and the killing and wounding among the birds is a three-cornered fight on county attorney will surely elect Higbee, the democratic candidate, by 100 plurality. Rowell, the prohibition candidate for county attorney, polled a much larger vote than any other candidate on his ticket and pulled largely from the republicans. Hicks, the democratic candidate for clerk, is also elected. All the other republican ticket elected.

Lot Thomas' Lead.
SIOUX CITY, Ia., Nov. 4. (Special Telegram.)—Congressman Lot Thomas (rep.) is re-elected in the Eleventh congressional district over J. M. Parsons by about 5,000 majority. Vote light and republican county ticket elected.

PROHIBITION LEADER SHOT

Debtor Kills His Creditor and Commits Suicide in Jail.

EFFINGHAM, Ill., Nov. 4.—Hale Johnson, a prohibition leader of national prominence and candidate for vice president on the prohibition ticket in 1896, was shot and killed by Harry Harris this afternoon at Bogota, a village in Jasper county, thirty miles from here.

Harris committed suicide in the county jail tonight by taking poison.

Mr. Johnson, who was practicing law at Newton, the county seat, went to Bogota to collect an account on which judgment had already been rendered against Harris. An altercation occurred at the Harris home and the latter secured a shotgun and fired at Johnson at close range, the charge striking in the face and causing instant death. Immediately after the shooting Harris jumped into Johnson's buggy and attempted to make his escape, but was apprehended by a deputy sheriff who had accompanied Johnson and who was a witness to the shooting. Johnson's body was taken to his home in Newton and Harris was conveyed to jail in the same place.

The votes of several negroes were purchased at $2 and $3 apiece. Some of them were bought both at the entrance to the booths. At one booth a democrat offered a negro $2 and was about to vote him, when a republican raised the price to $3. The republican was sent sprawling with a fist blow.
