

REPUBLICANS WIN AT POLLS

Results of the Election Shows Unquestioned Endorsement of Administration.

BIG MAJORITIES FOR AN OFF YEAR VOTE

legislative ticket. This will re-elect Congressmen Overstreet and that figure. Secretary Kelley of the democratic state committee at midnight conceded the state to the republicans by 25,000 to 20,000.

KANSAS

TOPEKA, Aug. 4.—Kansas has gone republican by at least 40,000 majority. The entire state ticket and congress are elected. The republicans will have 106 members of the legislature.

The democrats did not expect to elect their state ticket, but were surprised that W. H. Craddock, their candidate for governor, did not run better than he did. W. J. Baily, the republican candidate for governor, runs ahead of his ticket.

A great fight was made on T. T. Kelly, republican candidate for treasurer, but he gained enough from the democrats to more than offset any disaffection in the republican ranks.

The democrats devoted most of their attention to the legislature. In a few counties they made gains, but the republican majority will be about the same as last year.

Returns from over the state show that the republican county officers were generally elected. It was the most complete republican victory since the days before populism.

The state democratic committee concedes the republican claims in everything except the legislature.

MARYLAND

BALTIMORE, Nov. 4.—The election in Maryland, which was only for congressmen passed off quietly, with the exception of a few minor disturbances in the eastern end of the state.

Of the congressmen, the republicans elect four and the democrats two.

The judges in one precinct of the Third district had a dispute because of the imperfect marking of ballots, and the ballot box was sealed and placed in the care of the election supervisors. The disputed precinct is normally republican and will not affect the result.

MASSACHUSETTS

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—Lieutenant Governor John L. Bates of Boston was elected governor by the republicans in the state election today, defeating William A. Gaston, the democratic candidate, by 37,439 plurality, the vote being: Bates (rep.), 195,961; Gaston (dem.), 158,482.

The republicans, after a vigorous campaign, carried the state by a substantial plurality in a majority of the congressional districts. In seven out of the eight congressional districts and retaining a firm control of both branches of the legislature.

The officers elected were as follows: Governor, John L. Bates, Boston; lieutenant governor, Curtis Guild, Jr., Boston; secretary of state, William M. Olin, Boston; treasurer, Edward S. Bradford, Springfield; auditor, Henry B. Turner, Malden; attorney general, Herbert Parker, Lancaster.

The outpouring at the polls was the largest in the history of the state, with the exception of 1900.

In five of the congressional districts the fight was very warm, although in the Ninth it was confined to two democratic candidates. The results in the Sixth, Ninth and Eleventh were not finally known until a late hour, and even then it was expected both sides would ask for a recount.

The republicans also elected the rest of the state ticket and ten out of fourteen congressmen. The state legislature remains unchanged, the senate standing, according to the late returns, 2 republicans and 9 democrats, and the house 45 republicans, 32 democrats and 3 socialists.

MICHIGAN

DETROIT, Nov. 4.—The republicans of Michigan have elected Governor A. T. Bliss and their entire state ticket, eleven of the twelve congressmen and an overwhelming majority of the members of the legislature. The vote was light throughout and the republican majority is estimated at between 30,000 and 40,000.

As expected Governor Bliss ran far behind his ticket, from 10,000 to 15,000. L. T. Durand, the democratic candidate for governor, polled a correspondingly heavy vote, especially in Detroit, which he carried by from 4,000 to 5,000.

While the returns indicate that the democrats have increased their representation in the state legislature, the republicans will have an overwhelming majority in both branches. This assures the election of General R. A. Alger to the unexpired term of the late United States Senator James McMillan.

The tickets were scratched and split so extensively in this city that returns are very late.

MINNESOTA

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 4.—The entire republican ticket has been elected in Minnesota by a plurality of certainly over 30,000, and possibly by over 50,000. Full returns have not been received but enough has come in to indicate that the claim that Governor Van Sant has been re-elected by over 30,000 plurality is well founded.

Chairman Buck of the democratic committee does not admit publicly that the republicans have taken everything, but other democratic leaders are more ready to concede the entire victory.

The legislature is republican in both branches, the democrats not having named candidates in many districts.

MISSISSIPPI

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 4.—The vote in Mississippi today was very light, the tabulations so far made indicating a total of less than 40,000. All the democratic candidates for congress were elected without opposition. The constitutional amendments are believed to have been defeated.

NORTH CAROLINA

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 4.—There is no appreciable change in the democratic state majority, which is apparently about 63,000. Klutz (dem.) is elected to congress in the Eighth by about 1,500 majority. Moody (rep.) is defeated in the Tenth about 1,000, thus electing Gudgeon and giving North Carolina a solid democratic representation in the house of representatives.

Clark (dem.) is elected chief justice, despite a desperate fight made on him. He was scratched about 4,000 votes.

The legislature and state senate will be overwhelmingly democratic and a democrat will succeed Pritchard as United States senator.

NORTH DAKOTA

FARGO, N. D., Nov. 4.—North Dakota has gone republican by about the usual majority, although Governor White (rep.) who was a candidate to succeed himself, ran behind the balance of the state ticket.

The republican state committee, however, estimates that his majority will be from 7,000 to 8,000.

North Dakota elects two congressmen at large this year and both of these are republicans.

The legislature, which will elect a successor to Senator Hansbrough, is overwhelmingly republican, the democrats only securing forty out of 140 members.

OHIO

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 4.—The republicans carried Ohio by next to their highest plurality on record. Nothing above 70,000 had been predicted, but partial returns indicate that it will greatly exceed those figures.

At the same time the republicans, on returns up to midnight, made no gain in Ohio congressmen and are likely to lose one. The present Ohio delegation in congress consists of seven republicans and four democrats, and the returns show six republicans and four democrats elected, with the Twelfth district in doubt.

The present apportionment of Ohio congressional districts was made by a republican legislature, with fourteen republican, four democratic and three doubtful districts. Two years ago the republicans carried all the doubtful districts by close pluralities, and this year they increased their pluralities in the republicans and two of the doubtful districts and reduced the pluralities of the democratic districts without gaining any congressmen and probably losing the close Twelfth district.

At the last session of the republican legislature only one congressional district, the Twelfth, was changed by the democrats. It has probably been carried by the democrats.

At midnight Chairman Dick said: "Returns to this hour do not change our estimate of 100,000 republican plurality. We have carried all districts now represented in congress by republicans, with the possible exception of the Twelfth, and in its place we have probably carried the Thirteenth district."

PENNSYLVANIA

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—Today for the first time in the history of the state (more than 1,000,000 votes were cast in an election. Samuel W. Pennypacker (rep.) was elected governor by an estimated plurality of 175,000 and the republican ticket was generally successful in the various counties.

The democrats elected two and possibly three of the thirty-two congressmen.

The legislature will be more strongly republican than ever before with the exception of the 1897 session, and it is certain that Robert Pennypacker will succeed himself in the United States senate.

Governor Pennypacker, 163,716; Pattison (dem.), 73,690; Republican plurality, 90,026.

RHODE ISLAND

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 4.—The republicans have undoubtedly secured full control of the senate and have a majority decreased somewhat from last year in the house, and with the possible exception of the chief executive they have elected their state ticket.

The election of Congressman A. B. Capron in the Second district is assured. In the first district the contest is close between Melville Bull, the republican, and D. L. Granger, the democratic nominee.

TENNESSEE

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 4.—The entire democratic state ticket, headed by James B. Frazier for governor, has been elected by a majority estimated at 50,000.

TEXAS

DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 4.—The vote in Texas for state and congressional officers today was lighter than in 1900. The democrats swept the state, their ticket, headed by W. T. Lenham, winning by a heavy majority.

Latest returns show that the democrats elected congressmen from sixteen districts. The constitutional amendment requiring voters to pay poll tax was the chief point of interest. Indications are that it carried by a good majority.

UTAH

SALT LAKE, Nov. 4.—Indications are that William McGuffey (rep.) is elected associate justice of the supreme court over Richard W. Young (dem.), by 2,500 plurality, and that the republicans will have a considerable majority in the legislature, thus ensuring the election of a republican United States senator to succeed Senator Rawlins.

No one-tenth of the state has been heard from.

It will be several days before complete returns are in.

CONGRESS GOES REPUBLICAN

Delaware should be called in extra session and be able to get together and elect two republican senators before the new legislature convenes the republican strength in the senate would be increased two, giving a majority of eighteen.
